

Guest Day Style Show Held By Medford Club Thursday

A style show highlighted the annual guest day of Medford Sojourners' club, held Thursday afternoon at the Medford hotel. The show was given by Mrs. Vinson Vaughan and Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain and Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain of Town and Country shop, Eagle Point, and the former serving as commentator. Mrs. Larry Juniper, club member, provided background music.

Models were Mrs. Carl Borg, Mrs. Don Carlon, Mrs. Thomas J. Williams, Mrs. Meredith H. Parsons, Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, Mrs. R. W. Billingsley, Mrs. Richard Reum, Mrs. A. B. Davis and Mrs. Ruth Wood. Hats and bags were provided by Mrs. Maude Coddling of Hadley's, shoes were from Burelson's and furs were provided by Frances.

Opening the show, Mrs. Vaughan spoke of the "costume look" with dresses having dust-ers, jackets, capes or capelets to match. She stated the "long torso" is getting longer and has now become the "tulip silhouette" with dresses slim to below the knee and then flaring into fullness.

Shirtmaker dresses have been glamorized with laces, ribbons and sequins, the commentator said and added that this is also a great season for skirts which are more elaborate than ever before. Knits, particularly hand-made imported ensembles, are particularly stylish, she said.

Considered outstanding by the audience was a beige and brown Mandarin dress modeled by Mrs. Billingsley; a navy blue silk with the tulip silhouette worn by Mrs. Reum; Mexican imports worn by Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Reum and Mrs. Carlon, a black and white heavily sequined skirt modeled by Mrs. Reum particularly bringing comment. A white hand-loomed and hand knit dress with matching capelet, an import from Europe, also brought much comment.

Mrs. Williams modeled a blue knit dress accented with one large white flower earring which was effectively combined with blue plastic pumps. Several dresses and ensembles were combined with the high-fashion plastic pumps.

Before the show little Vicki Vaughan presented each member and guest with a small package of cigarettes.

Hostesses were members of the governing board.

Prospective members at the club for the first time were Mesdames Kenneth Johnson, A. J. Powell, Tom Moore, Elwin Fordyce, Robert Hankins, John W. Poage, James Mitchell, Everett DeGarmo and Forest VanVleck.

New members received into the club were Mrs. W. H. Cramer and Mrs. Otto Schlueter.

Guests included Mesdames Laura Alldredge, B. D. Blackstone, Earl Courney, William Cowning, J. M. Chancellor, Ray Chamberlain, C. E. Chamberlain, Ed Chamberlain, C. E. Emery, Steve Hess, Maude King, H. M. Lappin, Alice Leverette, Don Lue, Carol Miller, Robert Marshall, Roth Makey, Mike Morris, Bob Messer, Robert E. Nelson, Ed Olson, C. Parker, Fred Purdin, Jean Reeves, David Roberts, Wilson Smith, F. B. Sweeney, Jack Vaughan, Clark Walker, John Watkins and Ed Watson. Out of town guests from Portland were Mrs. Harry Thomas and Mrs. John F. Vaughn; Mrs. Don Fowler from Ashland and Mrs. R. V. Cummins, Eugene.

At cards prizes were awarded for bridge to Mrs. F. E. Cantrill, Mrs. John W. Poage, Mrs. Forrest D. Taft and Mrs. Robert Hankins. Pinochle prizes to Mrs. Steve Hess, Mrs. L. E. McConnell, Mrs. Don Lue and Mrs. L. E. Bean. Canasta awards went to Mrs. J. E. Harper, Mrs. Maude King, Mrs. John Mansfield and Mrs. L. Alldredge and a special award was won by Mrs. E. K. Ricker.

Next meeting of the club will be April 12 at the Medford hotel. An invitation to attend and become members is extended to all women who have lived in Medford and vicinity less than two years.

Club to Honor Past Presidents

A social meeting for members of Scottish Rite Women's club will be held Monday, March 26 at 8 p.m., in the Medford Masonic temple. Past presidents of the group will be honored and wives, sisters or daughters of Scottish Rite Masons are invited.

Cattle, oil, gold, and silver are important Mexico products.

Girl Scouts To Attend Big Roundup

Girl Scouts from the Rogue Valley area who have been selected to attend the 1956 senior roundup at Highland State Park near Pontiac, Mich., in June and July met at the scout house Monday evening to discuss plans for transportation, clothing and equipment.

Attending the meeting were Miss Mary Friend and Miss Karen Johnson, Medford, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Friend and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson; Miss Sandra Ullian and Miss Judy Drais, Grants Pass and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drais and Mrs. Bernie Ullian; also Miss Martha Stevenson of Medford who will be their adult leader; Mrs. Michele Rossi, and Mrs. Walter Garner.

Over 5,000 Girl Scouts and adults will attend the roundup from all over the United States, and all were selected on the basis of their ability to meet the roundup qualifications, based on scouting experience and skills. From this area and Lakeview one patrol of eight girls and their adult leader, Miss Stevenson, will attend. From Region 11, which includes Oregon, Montana, Washington, Idaho and Alaska, a total of 13 patrols or 104 Girl Scouts will leave by train June 28 for the roundup. Closing ceremonies will be on July 11.

The senior roundup of 3,840 Girl Scouts, their adult leaders, and four patrols of Girl Guides from seven member countries of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, represents one of the largest gatherings of Girl Scouts ever held in the United States. Purpose of the roundup is to give Senior Girl Scouts a sense of belonging to a strong and unified organization; to add interest to the present program of older Intermediate Girl Scouts; to give those attending an opportunity to meet girls from all over the nation; to provide experience in working with girls of different backgrounds; and to promote an understanding of the patrol system and good troop government.

Theme of the roundup will be "Americana," and everything that represents the United States' past, present, and even future will be the topic. The program will include campfires, American folk dancing, games,

Many Nations Provide Ideas For Spring Fashion Designs

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Correspondent
New York —(U.P.)—Designers this spring have their own United Nations.

They've turned to nearly every continent for inspiration of some sort. A United Press roundup of trends from the big domestic manufacturing centers shows everything from the Indian of the American Southwest to the Indian of Asia having a say in what the American woman will wear in the months ahead.

Designers talk of the Chinese, Japanese, Indian, Turkish, Persian and Spanish influences. And when it isn't a place, it's a period of history to which they turn—particularly this season the English Regency, the French Directoire and the Napoleonic influences show.

Sharp Colors
Here, by city, are the new season's highlights:
New York—Designers place the accent on the slim silhouette for spring although there are some full skirts. Much back interest, with both drapery and decoration. Suit jackets shorter; coats more often cut on straight lines than full. Colors sharp rather than muted, and showing the Oriental influence.

Los Angeles—The slim trend flag ceremonies, arts and crafts, and nature trail excursions. A motor trip to nearby points of interest, including Henry Ford's Greenfield Village which represents early United States at its best, and sightseeing in Detroit, are planned. A special highlight of the program will be the "Americana" pageant, under the supervision of Mrs. Irving Berlin and Miss Helen Hayes.

Such a large number of persons camping at one spot means a high degree of camp organization. Scouts and leaders will be divided into four sections of three camps each, 960 girls to a section. Each camp will consist of ten troops, four patrols of eight girls each to a troop, from different parts of the country so that roundup campers may have as wide an experience as possible in meeting and knowing girls from various sections of the country.

Girl Scouts are a member agency of the United Fund, but expenses for the roundup trip are not included in its budget. The troops have been busy raising money through projects, such as a recent rummage sale.

German Company Announces New Sheerest Hose

New York—Since synthetic hosiery first hit the American scene in 1940, women have been clamoring for sheerer and sheerer hosiery, and then complaining because it didn't wear. Now, a European hosiery firm has come out with the sheerest hosiery ever made—and one that wears.

Called Grande Dame, the imported hosiery is a 90 gauge, 7½ denier number made of a gossamer sheer, but incredibly strong synthetic, called perlon. The secret of its long wearing quality (as many as 45 wearings a pair) is in the stitch, four million of them, to be exact, in each pair. Yet the stitches are so fine that each pair of the invisible stitch wonders weighs a mere fraction of an ounce.

Created by the Araw Hosiery Corporation of Germany, which spent seven years perfecting a machine capable of producing such a fine stitch, Grande Dame is a full-fashioned stocking designed to give the illusion of more perfect leg proportions.

A beautifully fashioned stocking, Grande Dame has a needle-straight seam and delicately tapered French heel slimming to the leg and ankle. An invisibly reinforced shallow-cut foot enables Grande Dame to be worn with the new transparent plastic shoes or wispiest strapped sandals.

Color is newsworthy too. In the box the new perlon is pale taupe; on the leg they blend with the natural complexion coloring to provide a new personal on-the-leg shade. The hose retail at $10 a box for two pairs; they are not sold singly.

Human bodies are about 70 per cent water. Human blood is 90 per cent water, bones about 40 per cent, and the human brains about 85 per cent.

More farmers are said to own their own land in Wisconsin than in any other state of the Union.
