

PHOENIX Woman's Brother Passes

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Phoenix—Mrs. Frank Carland left by plane March 17 for Lusk, Wyo., where she was called because of the death of her brother, Loyde Younklin, who has been a cattle rancher in that area for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parsons and daughter Beverly returned to their home in Pendleton Monday after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Modrell on Sunday. They made the round trip by plane, arriving last week end, and combined business and visiting other relatives in the valley. They are former Phoenix residents. Mrs. Parsons is the former Grace Glover, and they both attended Phoenix High school. Parsons is a nephew of Modrell.

Miss Hannah Vick is back on duty at the Jackson County Farm Home after being home several days because of a broken rib.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wines of Wenatchee, Wash., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Modrell Thursday afternoon. They were on their way home after spending a few days in California visiting relatives and vacationing. Wines is retired as a manager of the Wenatchee branch of the Pacific Fruit and Produce Co. and Mrs. Wines is a niece of Modrell. It is about 15 years since they were last in the valley.

Mrs. Pearl Hamilton, former Phoenix resident now living in Klamath Falls, is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hewitt and is visiting old friends during her stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Avery and daughter Nancy of Ashland motored to Eugene to visit Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Edna Raymond. The Averys went on to Salem where they visited with Avery's mother.

Dan Adams is on the Mexican coast this week, deep sea fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Don Avery of Klamath Falls were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Norton. Mrs. Avery is a daughter of the Nortons and returned to her position as bookkeeper and Avery is spending the rest of the week here with the Nortons, it being spring vacation at OTI.

G. G. Skinner is having a remodeling job done on the old post office building.

The Merle Coggins family have moved from Griffin Creek into the former H. E. Clason place on C st. The children have entered the grade and high schools.

Mrs. Lois Morris and two children, Dana and Nena, spent last week at Empire visiting with the J. W. Teague family. They were joined late in the week by Mr. and Mrs. Osa Waggoner, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Steele, and Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold of Medford. All returned last week end and report fishing was good and the weather ideal.

Chester Loomis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loomis, was recently promoted to assistant supervisor in the signal division at Santa Fe, New Mexico. He and his family will move to Emporia, Kan., where his office is located.

Saturday evening, March 17, a dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Marcus Norton for the Democratic Ladies club. Guest speakers were Charles Porter of Eugene, a candidate for U.S. representative for the fourth district, and Robert Boyer, candidate for state representative from Jackson county. They were accompanied by their wives.

The Democratic Social club is having a dinner at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 24, at the Grange hall. Speaker for the evening will be Dave Shaw, who is a candidate for U.S. representative. All Democratic candidates will be present.

Mrs. Eva Beck and three girls visited Mrs. Clifford Wallace over last week end.

Follow-Up Meeting On Education Set Here on April 4th

Invitations to attend the local follow-up meeting on the White House Conference on Education are being sent to all school boards, educators and organizations in the county.

The conference will be held Wednesday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Senior High school in Medford.

The report on the White House conference will be given by Mrs. Victor O'Neil of Klamath Falls, a member of the state board of education, who attended the Washington meeting.

Mrs. Jay Hill Gubser, assistant superintendent of public instruction for Oregon, will speak on teacher supply and demand and certification requirements.

Panel on Finance
The latter part of the program will be devoted to a panel discussion of school finance and taxation, with Marion Winslow, superintendent of schools in Coos Bay, Dr. Bill Sampson of Southern Oregon college, and State Sen. Phil Lowry, Medford, making up the panel and speaking on different phases of the problem. Dr. Marshall Woodell of Southern Oregon college will preside and will moderate the panel.

Anyone interested in welfare and problems of the schools is invited to attend.

Syngman Rhee Tells Plans for Third Term

Seoul, Korea (U.P.) — President Syngman Rhee in an announcement that surprised no one said Friday he was bowing to public will and would run for a third term.

The 80-year-old Rhee said he had received more than 22,000 letters and petitions signed by more than 3,000,000 persons calling on him to run.

Use Tribune Want Ads

Meat Market Changes Hands JACKSONVILLE

By MRS. C. S. HASKINS
Jacksonville — Earl's Meat Market on South Oregon and Main sts. was sold recently. The new owner, Marvin Williams of Ashland, took over its operation last Monday.

Williams' father-in-law, Herman Peller of Medford, will run the business, to be known as 'City Market.' They plan to have custom cutting and wrapping of locker meat, farm products and delicatessen foods as well as a regular meat counter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Maddox announced this week they have sold their ranch type house and 112 acres at 1000 Hill st., Jacksonville. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kennerley of Medford. Mrs. Kennerley is a music teacher of piano, organ and voice. She is choir leader and organist at the Congregational church in Medford. Kennerley is with Leonard Electric. The Maddoxes will rent temporarily and plan to build a small house on one of their lots on C sts. As soon as they are able to vacate their home the Kennerleys will move in. The Maddoxes have lived at 1000 Hill for 10 years.

A visitor in Jacksonville last week was Col. George Hueners, with three companions, a colonel, a captain and a sergeant from the CAP headquarters in Washington, D. C. Colonel Hueners spent last Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hueners, and had dinner with his brother's family, the Albert Hueners, as well as visiting other relatives in this area. They were en route from Long Beach to Seattle after attending the regional CAP conference, and gave the Medford squadron of the Civil Air patrol a surprise inspection. They left by air at noon Friday.

A house warming party was held March 16 at the new parsonage of the Assembly of God church in Jacksonville. Approximately 50 guests were present to honor the Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Turnbull at their new home. Games were played and refreshments served, and many gifts for the home were presented to the Turnbells.

Out of town guests present, who are also all former residents, were the pastor of the Assembly of God church in Rogue River, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Haverman, and children; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ralls and daughter Lois, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Meade and children of Four Corners. Mr. Meade is pastor at the Four Corners church.

House guests over last week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Well were two missionary workers from Bay City, Ore. The Rev. June Pearson and the Rev. Bonnie White. The two women were in charge of the Sunday services at the Assembly of God church here and gave the Sunday school classes an object lesson. They were enroute to Indian Wells, Ariz., where they plan to do Missionary work among the Navajo Indians.

Revival services by Assembly of God Evangelists, Fred and Sarah Byers, are being held March 20 through April at the church here except Mondays and Saturdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard White and son Mike are on a two week vacation trip in southern California. Mrs. F. P. Mitchell is taking care of their place while the Whites are gone.

Mrs. O. M. Kesler reports a new pupil at her kindergarden this week, Patrick Swanson of East Moline, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Swanson and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McIntyre, Jacksonville.

Returning travelers last week included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lawrence, their son Jimmy, and Mrs. Lawrence's mother, Mrs. Pearl Whitney, who accompanied them on a 12-day automobile trip throughout southern California. They visited friends and relatives in San Jose, Fresno, Los Angeles and Hollywood, and made a tour through Disneyland. Adding a sad note to their otherwise happy trip was a visit in Burbank to Mrs. Grace Walton, whom they found to be quite ill. Mrs. Walton is the late Harry Whitney's sister.

Mrs. Ella Russell of Table Rock rd., Medford, stayed at the Whitney residence while Mrs. Whitney was away on the trip. Mrs. Lee Maddox also returned this week by American Airlines from Dallas, Tex., where she was visiting her twin sister who is critically ill. Mrs. Maddox reports her condition to be unimproved.

Mrs. G. N. Smith was honored on the occasion of her birthday March 15 with a family gathering and dinner at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith of Medford.

Miss Natasha Bulkin spent spring vacation week in Fields Landing, Calif., returning here by bus last Monday.

Miss Sydney Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sutherland, spent spring vacation week with her parents in Jacksonville. Miss Sutherland is a student at Lewis and Clark college in Portland.

Jacksonville's High school seniors made a trip to Grants Pass March 22 to meet with representatives of the various state colleges to learn what classes are offered, entrance requirements, living facilities and other information interesting to students contemplating entering college in the fall.

Leroy Mauroni, high school music director, has announced a new date for the band concert, which has been postponed several times for various reasons. The new date is Thursday, March 29, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. The latest postponement is due to the director being confined at home last week with a case of pink eye.

Mr. and Mrs. John Connor and two children, of Medford, recently moved into the house at 601 C st., Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hamaker and children, John and Grace, were end of the week visitors in Jacksonville and Medford. They are from Horse Creek, Cal.

VFW Post Elects New Officers Last Week

Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, elected Prentice C. Petty as post commander last week. Other new officers are Ray Huson, senior vice commander; William Watkins, junior vice commander; Ira Canfield, reelected chaplain; Richard Schultz, reelected post advocate; Ivan Lusk, reelected post surgeon. The quartermaster is Ernst J. Braunig.

Installation of the new officers will take place at the VFW hall on Front st. in Medford at 8 p.m. April 24. The installing officer will be A. H. Birch, junior vice commander for the Department of Oregon. The public is invited.

4-H Club News

The Busy Bees of Prospect 4-H club met March 22. There were 10 present including Marian Governor, Barbara Lacy, Sue Betts, Janet Kargial, Lois Governor, Francis Governor, Judy Anderson, Dorothy Pontius, and Marilyn Valentine, a visitor. We were instructed by Mrs. Poole, our 4-H leader.

Today we cooked fried pears. Marian Governor and Barbara Lacy demonstrated it.

The next meeting, April 5, will be at Judy Anderson's home. The demonstration will be by Judy Anderson and Dorothy Pontius.

Dorothy Pontius Reporter.

GOLD HILL Spring Weather Has Results

By MRS. SAM ELLIOTT
Gold Hill — This wonderful spring weather is having many effects: The new Margaret E. Patrick school is starting to take on form as the cement walls rise; yards and flower gardens are showing new clean faces; vegetable gardens are being tilled, and here and there one can see someone nodding in the warm sun. Gold Hill is awakening.

Many relatives are here for the funeral of Cecil Smith who died in Eugene March 21. Mr. and Mrs. George Smith on the Sardine Creek rd. are host to Mrs. Cecil Smith, a sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice of Portland — (U.P.) — The Corps of Engineers has awarded a $9,269 contract to the United States Rubber company of Bristol, R.I., for furnishing 5400 feet of 12 conductor cable for The Dalles dam.

Crescent City are here. Bice is the step-son of Cecil Smith. Others are a stepdaughter, Mrs. Lory Nash, Redding, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Irene Delgado, also of Redding, and Mrs. Chester Lowman and Mrs. Lillian Ward, both sisters of Mrs. C. Smith.

Mrs. A. A. Anderson has returned home from a Medford hospital. She was taken there by ambulance when she suffered a heart attack March 2.

Home for spring vacation are Pat Foley, a junior at University of Oregon; Robert Balch Jr., a junior at Oregon State, and David Newland, a Junior at the university.

Week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Swindler, son-in-law and daughter and their two children, Robert and Lexie. The Swindlers are from Redding, Calif. A new family recently moved from Eagle Point to Gold Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Seral Lowry, his mother, Mrs. E. C. Lowry, and their five children. There are two children of school age.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walker left for a long week end in Santa Rosa, Calif., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Walker and children Danny and Robison. The Walkers left in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whitford, who are going on to Fresno and Bakersfield to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Paul Molloy was hostess to a group of children who gathered at her home to celebrate Donnie Molloy's seventh birthday. Present were Randy Turner, Douglas McMahan, David Williams, Michale Morris, Jimmy Arnold, David Molloy, and Tommy and Danny Kellog.

The Amethyst Rebecca lodge were guests of the Mt. Pitt lodge Tuesday evening. The Amethyst group entertained the Friendship party with a skit, "The Philharmonica Orchestra." With a background of recorded Philharmonica Orchestra numbers, Mrs. Ella May Gail whistled and sang with bulk of the group acting as the orchestra in pantomime.

David Molloy celebrated his spring vacation by going to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lenn Stadt of Junction City, who own Benton Lane park. Molloy stated that the swimming will be great.

EASTER FLOWERS

Phone 3-1733

Ginn's
FLOWERS
FLORIST • GIFTS
26 S. CENTRAL • PH. 3-1733

Easter Sale

BUY
NOW
AND SAVE

Westinghouse

ALL
STOCK IS NEW

APPLIANCES

BIG in size! BIG in value!

MODEL PH-109 REFRIGERATOR

10.9 Cu. Ft.
Automatic Defrost
REFRIGERATOR

- 70 LBS. OF FROZEN STORAGE
- FULL-WIDTH FREEZER
- COLD STORAGE TRAY
- 3/4-BU. VEGETABLE HUMIDRAWER®
- EGG SHELVES IN THE DOOR
- BONUS BOTTLE STORAGE IN DOOR

Was $329.95
Now Only $269.95

SAVE $60.00

SAVE UP TO $100.00
ON OTHER REFRIGERATORS

YOU CAN BE SURE...IF IT'S Westinghouse

Westinghouse

SPEED ELECTRIC

DELUXE Electric RANGE

Raisable Deep-well Cooker • Super Corox Units
Plug-In Surface Units

Was $319.95
Now Only $259.95

SAVE $60.00

Model D-H

BIG SAVING ON ALL WESTINGHOUSE APPLIANCES

• EASY TERMS •

Tune in on
"STUDIO ONE"
KBES-TV Mon., 7 P.M.

TROWBRIDGE & FLYNN
214 W. MAIN
PHONE 2-5211

ATTENTION

Home Freezer or Locker Customers!

Something NEW Has Been Added at

RICHEY'S Meat Market

Formerly Valley Sea Foods

1045 S. RIVERSIDE PHONE 3-1221

If your freezer or locker is running low on any one kind of meat that your family likes so well come in and let us restock your freezer or locker at wholesale prices. YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BUY A WHOLE BEEF, HALF BEEF OR A QUARTER OF BEEF — JUST THE CUTS THAT YOU NEED —

HERE'S A FEW EXAMPLES:

Prime Rib App. 20 lbs.	Rib Steaks	45¢ lb.
	Rib Roasts
Rounds App. 50 lbs.	Round Steaks	49¢ lb.
	Roasts
Loins App. 35 lbs.	T-Bones	59¢ lb.
	Sirloins
Chucks App. 60 lbs.	All Roast and Gr. Meat	35¢ lb.
	or all ground meat
Plates App. 20 lb.	Fine of boiling,	24¢ lb.
	baking or stewing
Pork Loins App. 12 lbs.	Chops or Roasts	48¢ lb.
	or both
Pork Butts App. 4 lbs.	Steaks or	45¢ lb.
	Roasts
Hams for Easter	Small size	55¢ lb.
Bacon Slab	Morrell's	39¢ lb.

THESE PRICES INCLUDE CUTTING, WRAPPING AND MARKING TO YOUR SPECIFICATIONS!

Open Week Days 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. for Your Convenience!

We Will Cut And Wrap Any of These Cuts While You Wait!

RENT-A-CAR
SYSTEM
LICENSEE

Daily's U-Drive

Medford Airport