Annual Latin Club Banquet Held Amidst Roman Splendor

An onlooker at the Latin Club banquet at Medford Senior High school last Thursday evening, March 22, would have been impressed with the elegance of classical costumes and the transformation of the senior high school cafeteria into a spacious Roman dining hall. The guests wore long draped attire, with satin and velvet wraps.

Contrasting with the elegance of the guests were the appropriate, scant costumes of the slaves, who scurried in quick obedience to the many calls which they received.

Religious dignity of the Romans was given to the scene by the presence of the vestals, clothed in authentic dress for their ritual. The vestals were the Misses Gladys Beddoe, Carolyn Carr, Karen Johnson, Joan Laurila, Sue Martin, Carol Miller and Gail Prentice, who marched to the altar in measured step and presented sacrifice.

For the evening's entertainment, Bob Bright, Bill Frake, David Frohnmayer, Jim Corum and Dick Corum arrived as Caesar, Cicero, Mark Antony, Vergil, and Nero, respectively. Miss Sandra Laing presented a colorful oriental dance. Roman gods were represented with Harold O'Connors as Jupiter and Denise Bruning as Mercury. These two visited with Baucis and Philemon, who were Miss Judy Lobdell and Miss Diana Getchell. Ed Nienow read the script, written by Miss Carol Hussong, for a "Baucis and Philemon" skit.

Miss Getchell was song leader for the occasion. Miss Vicki Robertson announced the program, at the conclusion of which Miss Jane Barker thanked the many people who had worked to make the banquet a success.

Mothers who came to help included Mrs. Paul Beddoe, Mrs. Philip Bright, Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. B. J. Garris, Mrs. E. Miller and Mrs. Dan Patch. Miss Jane Bash was menu chairman.

Slaves from McLoughlin Junior High school were Robert Allen, Miss Susan Coffman, Pat Dougherty, John Flanagan and Miss Janet Merrill. Slaves from Hedrick Junior High school were the Misses Jackie Craeger, Roberta Sleeter, Pam Stacey, and Lou Ella Voegtly.

The dining hall, rich in tapestries, ivy-twined pillars and Roman insignia, was decorated by Harold O'Connors, Miss Maralee Chisholm, Miss Barbara Cox, Miss Elizabeth Patch, Ed Nienow and Ken Arnold.

Miss Ramona Baugh was in charge of printed programs. Entertainment chairmen were Miss Beddoe and Miss Carolyn Carr. Teachers present were Miss Dorothy Wilson, foreign language department head, Mrs. Maxine Smith and Mrs. Edna Stewart, advisor of the Latin club.

The entire function was proof that Latin does still live as a language. About eighty persons were in attendance.

Shady Cove Unit Activities Told; Nominations Made

Shady Cove—The Shady Cove Home Extension unit met Tuesday, March 20 at the home of Mrs. R. Bartus on Rogue River drive.

Mrs. T. R. Daw, chairman, presided. Mrs. Bartus reported on a lecture given by Dr. J. Corwin Hinshaw for Jackson County Public Health association.

Mrs. J. Hicks gave a report on both citizenship and research. Mrs. Littlefield gave a report on publicity. Shady Cove unit women are to make a portion of the name tags for the annual Spring Home Makers festival.

The nominating committee report included Mrs. C. Brewer, chairman; Mrs. F. Kelly, vice-chairman; Mrs. R. A. Pfeifer, secretary; and Mrs. I. Vanderlick, treasurer. The committee was made up of Mrs. R. Bartus, Mrs. R. Lane and Mrs. E. Houston.

Mrs. D. Larson and Mrs. M. Hawks were appointed on the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital committee.

Mrs. Ed Houston was presented a gavel pin.

Mrs. William Shepherd gave a short talk on sugaring flowers. She had made cup cakes decorated with sugared violets and leaves.

Roll call was answered by members naming a low-calory desert. After lunch Mrs. R. Lane gave a talk on Ceylon, its history, religions and occupations. She had maps of Ceylon, magazines and pamphlets with pictures she used in her talk.

Mrs. Shepherd was program planning chairman and gave a report on her work, and also gave a demonstration concerning hanging baskets. A workshop will be held for this project.

A workshop on lamp shades also is planned.

Ronald Axtell's See Art Exhibit

Trail—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Axtell recently went to Tacoma, Wash., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schneider. Mrs. Schneider is Mr. Axtell's sister. On the way home, they spent several days in Portland and saw the Chrysler art exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collier and daughters, Marlys and Linda of Cresswell spent part of their spring vacation at the home of Mrs. Audrey Collier. Mr. Collier is a teacher in Cresswell.

Camp Fire Holds Birthday Dinner For Eagle Point

Eagle Point—The annual Camp Fire birthday dinner was held by the newly organized Eagle Point Camp Fire Leaders' and Sponsors' association last Thursday evening at the Teen-Age club. Dinner was served buffet style and many of the dishes were especially prepared by the Camp Fire Girls using recipes borrowed from the countries of Burma, Ceylon, East Pakistan and the Philippines.

Birthday cakes were decorated with the Camp Fire 'crossed-log and flame' insignia. Individual place mats and cards were decorated by the groups to fit the birthday theme of "Plant Seeds - Reap Friendship."

Miss Joan Callaghan, member of the Ne Wa Ca Tanga group, was mistress of ceremonies. To open the program the Blue Birds sang "Hi Mom and Dad" and the O-Ne-Ki-Zu Camp Fire Girls, as a choral speaking unit, did the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Girls of the Ne Wa Ca Tanga group played hop scotch as the children in Burma do, and also "Who has the Pebble?"

Mrs. Elco Redding, a missionary recently returned from India, gave an interesting talk on the Indian customs and a girl's life in India. Her seven-year-old daughter, who is a Blue Bird while in this country, sang two songs of India and like her mother, was dressed in native costume. Mrs. Redding commented on how much the seeds that the Camp Fire Girls are sending to Asia will be appreciated and are needed.

Mrs. Dale Ackerman, president of the PTA, presented leader pins to Mrs. Merle McGraw, and Mrs. Leroy Beddingfield and Mrs. Arnold Arens. Mrs. H. Jordan, a Lady Lion sponsor, was introduced. Mrs. Ray Chamberlain and Mrs. Tom Shearin, who are music directors for the girls, and Mrs. Ed Gray, who serves on the Rogue council as committee of awards for the Eagle Point district, were also introduced.

Packages of seeds, for which the girls are earning money, will be sent to Asia through "Seeds for Democracy," and will be distributed by that organization.

Prospect Guild Names Delegates For Convention

Prospect—Mrs. Leo Hoag, Mrs. Heston Grieve and Mrs. Marcus Day were selected to attend the diocesan convention of the Episcopal church in Portland April 8-10 at the regular monthly meeting of St. Martha's guild of the church of the Good Shepherd.

Alternates to the convention will be Mrs. Curt Langston, Mrs. John Davidson and Mrs. Roy Vaughn.

Several guild members will appear on KBES-TV on Thursday, April 26, on the California-Oregon program to advertise the May 4 style show. Models for the show will include Mrs. Lewis Clevenberg, Mrs. Langston, Mrs. Darwin Bevens, Mrs. Darleen Bennett, Mrs. Lola De Rosier, Mrs. Ila Chapman, Mrs. Kenneth Vannice, Mrs. Vera Pope, Mrs. Madeleine Halley, Miss Judy Taylor and Miss Donna Clark.

Mrs. Wallace Dinkens, service chairman, reported that there will be a coffee hour after the Easter service and a work day was declared for Tuesday, March 27. A potluck luncheon will be held at noon that day in the Community hall. Women will make puppets for the hospital and will work on the rug for the church. Work on the kitchen will soon start.

Mrs. Steve Larson reported that the Lady-Lions are sponsoring little Greta Lund as queen in the coming pear festival to be held in Medford in April.

Mrs. Leo Hoag conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Roy Vaughn led devotions. Thirty-nine women were present. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Rogue-Elk Unit Plans Meeting on Wednesday

Rogue-Elk—Rogue-Elk Home Extension unit will meet in the home of Mrs. Ronald Axtell at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 28.

A potluck lunch will be served at noon. A program has been arranged for the afternoon.

Repertoire Of Ballet Said Varied

The San Francisco Ballet company will present classic, dramatic and humorous program numbers when it appears in the valley next month. The company is scheduled for performances in Ashland April 12 and in Medford April 13, with the latter performance to be at Hedrick Junior High school.

Nancy Johnson and Sally Bailey, ballerinas who premiered "Con Amore," hit comic ballet when it first played New York City, will head the list of dancers. The first time "Con Amore" was danced in San Francisco, an article about it in Newsweek Magazine caused the New York City Ballet company to request that the entire production, including the two ballerinas, be brought to New York.

"Con Amore," with music by Rossini and choreography by Lew Christensen, is danced in three scenes which portray love as it was frequently depicted in the 19th century European engravings.

"Jinx" and "Filling Station" are other ballets created by Mr. Christensen, director of the company, which have gone into international repertoires. Scene and costume designers as well as musicians collaborate on the spectacles in which the dancers are to be seen.

Eugene Berman, Paul Cadmus, Leonard Weisgard, Esteban Frances and Dorothea Tanning have created some of the sets. Music by Rossini, Mozart, Benjamin Britten, Bach and Virgil Thompson contributes part of the musical library for the repertory.

Earl Murray, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony orchestra, is musical director for the ballet organization.

Tickets are now on sale at Swens, Purucker's and the Medford Pharmacy.

Cubed peeled tomatoes and avocado mixed lightly with sliced celery and French dressing make a very delicious salad combination to serve in frilly lettuce cups. Sprinkle with chopped crumbled crisp bacon or a few capers.

Cooked large dry lima beans dressed with a sweet sour sauce makes extra good eating with pork or lamb. The sauce usually made for Harvard beans would be an excellent one to use.

Music for the afternoon will be furnished by Mrs. Darell Huson, Mrs. William McAllister and Mrs. George Wendt.

Hope circle women will have charge of the luncheon which will be served in the church social hall.

A short business meeting will be held by members of Medford American Legion auxiliary, Tuesday, March 27 at 8 p.m. Work will then be continued on the paper flowers to be sent to the Portland veterans hospital.
