Marisa Pavan Loses Valued Rings; Goes on Honeymoon

San Francisco (U.P.)—Newlyweds Marisa Pavan and Jean Pierre Aumont flew today to Hawaii, leaving Sheriff's deputies searching a women's lounge at International Airport for the Italian actress' two diamond rings.

Miss Pavan mislaid her engagement ring and another diamond ring, an heirloom of the Aumont family, in the lounge shortly before their Pan American midnight flight. Deputies were summoned, and they began a frantic search but were unable to recover the misplaced jewelry.

Sheriff's deputies said one ring was valued at $1,500 and the other at $500.

The couple was married yesterday in a civil ceremony in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Both are Catholics but no weddings can be performed in the church without special dispensation during the Lenten season.

"And we are in love," the actress said. "We have waited so long already we did not want to wait until after Lent. We will be married again in a religious ceremony in Rome in about six weeks."

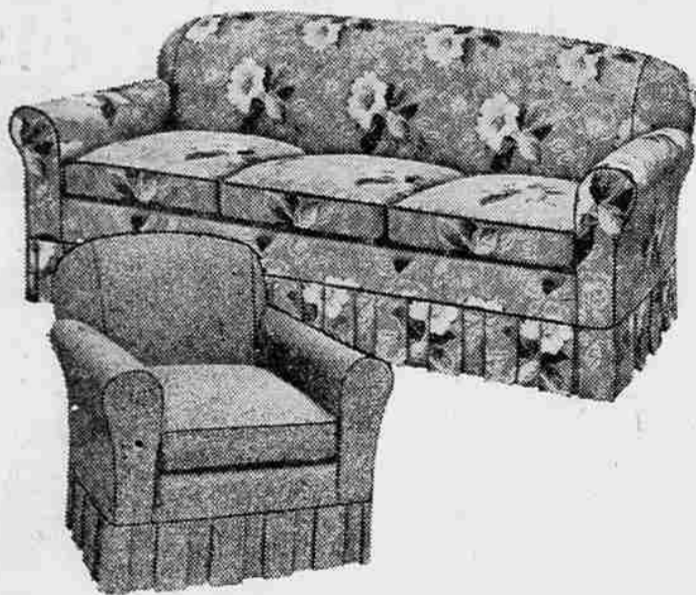

It was the first marriage for the actress, twin sister of film star Pier Angeli, and the second for Aumont, whose first wife, actress Maria Montez, died in a bathtub drowning accident after a heart attack.
