

Camp Fire Workshops Announced

Rogue council, Camp Fire Girls, will begin spring workshop for Blue Bird leaders, Camp Fire guardians and Horizon club advisors tonight and will continue them through April and May. Meeting will be held once a week.

These workshops are not limited to present leaders but are open to anyone interested in becoming a leader next fall according to Mrs. T. M. Gerety, executive. Assistants, sponsors, mothers or friends who wish to help the leader may attend.

Anyone desiring transportation may call the Camp Fire office in Medford; in Ashland, Mrs. Ray Graber; in Talent, Mrs. Macy Critten and in Eagle Point, Mrs. Merle McGraw. Anyone not already registered in the Camp Fire program may attend by calling the Camp Fire office.

The program schedule will be as follows: March 28 for all divisions, orientation and purpose of program given by Mrs. Elmo Stevenson; April 3 for all divisions, "How to Sell Candy"; April 5 for Camp Fire guardians and Horizon advisors, a meeting with committee of awards; April 11 for all divisions, "Bird Study" by the Rev. Thomas McCamant; April 27 for Blue Bird leaders, a workshop on song fest and rhythm band given by Mrs. Fred Lorish and Mrs. Jack Suksdorf.

A workshop in preparation for the Grand Council Fire will be held May 1 and on May 9 "Frontiers for Science" will be given by Dr. Elliot MacCracken for all divisions. Workshops on mixed crafts for Blue Birds during the week of May 14 to 19. A song fest for Camp Fire Guardians will be given by Mrs. Lloyd Roberts on May 24th.

Fall workshops are being planned and will be announced when completed.
