At the early service St. Mark's senior choir, under direction of Ward Smith, and with Mrs. Ernest G. Conrad at the console, will sing. The service will include the best known Easter hymns. At 9 a.m. St. Mark's junior choir, directed by Miss Marcia Houghton, with Mrs. R. J. O'Sullivan at the organ, will sing a traditional setting of the eucharist. The Rev. Robert F. Burger, assistant to the rector, will preach at this service.

At 11 a.m. the senior choir will give a second rendition of the sunrise music, and the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's, will deliver the sermon.

The 4 p.m. children's service will feature the traditional ceremony of "Flowering the Cross" and the Lenten mite box offering will be presented. This service will be conducted by senior acolytes, Jim Boyd and Tom Morris, and a short Easter meditation will be given by the rector.

Potted pansy plants will be given to every child at the con-

Family Night Supper At Phoenix Church

Easter observance at the Phoenix Presbyterian church will begin with a family night and covered dish supper at 6 p.m. today.

Following the supper an Easter cantata entitled, "The Day of Resurrection," will be given by the choir under the direction of Halw Loofbourrow with Mrs. Loofbourrow at the organ.

Sunday morning, a youth group from the church will attend sunrise services at Huener's Butte at 5:53 a.m.

"He Is Risen—Why?" will be the Easter message of the pastor, Rev. E. R. Volkman, at 11 a.m.

The Easter service will be held in the newly remodeled church sanctuary. A number of new members will be welcomed into the church.

Special School Program Planned

A special Sunday school program will be given Easter at 9:45 a.m. at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., Sunday night at 7:30.

Dr. E. T. Quanabush, evangelist of Costa Mesa, Calif., who is conducting special revival meetings at the church, will speak on "Three Reactions to Easter."

Dr. Quanabush will speak tonight on "The Truth Behind the Cross." This is a special Good Friday service and the public is cordially invited to attend.

A sunrise service will be held by the young people of the church in cooperation with the other Assemblies of God Christ's Ambassadors throughout the valley. Persons who wish to attend should meet at the Medford Assembly at 5:30 a.m. and transportation will be provided to the location of the service which will be on a hillside northwest

Evangelist To Speak At Assembly of God

"The Saviour Lives," an Easter story cantata, will be presented by the choir of the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., Sunday night at 7:30.

Dr. E. T. Quanabush, evangelist of Costa Mesa, Calif., who is conducting special revival meetings at the church, will speak on the subject "Resurrection Realities."

Soloists and groups singers for the cantata will include James Nilsen, bass soloist, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leslie, tenor and alto duet; Marilyn Cook, soprano solo; Leon Stansfield, Dale Clemens and Donald Strong, men's trio, and Carol Colbaugh, Victoria Stiles and Claudine Edwards, ladies trio.

Try red cinnamon candies, raisins and butter for an extra good filling for baked apples. Wrap the cored and filled apples in foil and bake half an hour in a very hot oven. Serve with cream.

'Barabass' Is Slated At First Church of God

The worship hour Sunday at 10:45 a.m. at First Church of God will be devoted to an Easter emphasis. All children's departments will be represented in the Easter program. A missions offering will be taken during the worship hour.

The worship at 7:45 p.m. will feature a play, "Barabass," directed by Mrs. Edna Guyer. Cast members include: Glenn McCullough, Mrs. Imogene Eads, Donald Jones, Miss Sharon Eads, Don Guyer, Miss Jeannie Simpson, and Miss Charlene Simpson. The public is invited to attend both services.
