East Squad High Scorer Reinstated

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

New York — (U.P.) — High-scoring Darrell Floyd was reinstated as a member of the East squad Saturday but the Bill Russell-led Westerners remained heavy favorites in the 10th annual basketball game at Madison Square Garden.

Floyd was suspended as an amateur along with Si Green of Duquesne, Tom Heinsohn of Holy Cross, Ron Sobiescyk of DePaul and Julius McCoy of Michigan State Friday when the AAU ruled they were ineligible because they had stated intentions to turn professional.

Won't Turn Pro

Floyd, however, persuaded the AAU to lift its ban a few hours later when he convinced the amateur body that he had no intentions of turning pro. The AAU said Floyd "has proved he had no professional tieups."

It was not made clear whether that ruling meant Floyd had abandoned his intention to play against the Harlem Globetrotters Sunday or to go on a national tour with them.

Notwithstanding the return of Floyd, who led the nation's major college scorers this year, the east team was believed to have suffered a terrific blow. Green is generally regarded as the finest all-around player in the country and Heinsohn, a 7-foot, 7-inch center, as the squad's best "big man."

East Squad Men

The East squad will be composed of Floyd, Hal Lear of Temple, Bob Burrow of Kentucky, Bill Uhl and Jim Paxson of Dayton, Chuck Rolles of Cornell, Johnny McCarthy of Canisisus and Vic Molodet of North Carolina State.

The West squad is composed of Russell and K. C. Jones of San Francisco, Carl Cain of Iowa, Paul Judson of Illinois, Willie Naulls of UCLA, Bill Reigel of McNeese State, Sellect of Stanford.

The AAU's surprising action was taken because 14 of the players originally slated to play in tonight's game are Olympic eligibles and the body wanted to protect their international amateur status.

Beaverton Dog Wins Retriever Club Derby

Portland — (U.P.) — Kingfish II, a Labrador male owned and handled by E. L. Minoggie of Beaverton, won the derby stake Friday at the 11th annual spring trial of the Oregon Retriever club at Sauvies Island.

Jo's Mike, a male Labrador owned and handled by J. M. Rothchild of Oswego, finished second and another Labrador male, Highlight Rockey, owned and handled by Allen Bradford of Eugene, placed third.

Puscas To Meet Sams Here On 14-Bout PAL Club Card

Medford fight fans will have an opportunity to see Jackie Puscas, Medford police athletic league boxer and national AAU lightweight champion, meet Clifford Sams, highly touted Burns Elk's club battler in the main event at St. Mary's High school gym next Saturday, April 7.

Semi-windup on the 14-fight card will match PAL clubber Larry Lewis with Lloyd Louis of Burns.

Puscas and Sams have met twice before. Once in bouts at Burns and again at the recent Portland Golden Gloves matches in Portland where Puscas won a close one from Sams.

NW Champ

Puscas returned recently from winning the northwest Golden Gloves crown at Seattle. He declined an invitation to go to the national Golden Gloves tournament because it was impossible for him to leave his job here.

In the semi-main, Larry Lewis, 1955 state AAU champ, meets Lloyd Louis, runner up in the state matches at Portland this year. Both boxers lost close decisions to the Golden Glove flyweight king in the Portland bouts. Lewis is reported gaining strength and skill with each succeeding fight. The Burns Indian boy beat Lewis at the northwest tourney with a decision that resulted in a near riot.

Loren Christean, 180-pound Medford PAL clubber, will meet Del Smith, hardsocking Burns battler.

Dick Lopez

Mose Martinez, Klamath Falls, who scored a KO over Christean in the PAL club February fight card, will be matched against Dick Lopez, now of Medford and formerly three-time Texas Golden Glove champ in his division.

Other local fighters scheduled to see action next Saturday are Jimmy Evans, Bob Little; Ashland's Dick Rensfield; Larry Little and Larry Christean.

Tickets are now on sale at the Medford police station, Lamports, Sams Sporting goods, the Bohemian Club, the Union Club and Browns Club.

The PAL club board of directors at their last meeting appointed Bob James and Lyle Perkins, arrangements; Hugh Jennings and Tom McLeod, publicity; Clifton Lacy and Ted Whisler, tickets; Paul Haviland, announcer; Larry Schade, trophies; Jack Barr and Joe McDuffie Jr., judges; and Hugh Jennings, coach and promoter.

Medford Baseballers Edge Out Crater 4-3

Medford and Crater high schools engaged in 11½ innings of baseball action Friday and Saturday with all the scoring packed into the Saturday ruckus.

The Black Tornado tipped the Comets of Central Point 4 to 3 in 6½ innings yesterday. Friday's scoreless activity, played in chilly, blustery weather was halted after five innings by mutual consent.

Crater ran up three runs in the first two innings yesterday and the Tornado nine came back with two runs each in its third and fourth stanza batting turns to gain the decision.

For its third frame tallies Medford utilized an error, a single by Larry Perkins and a double by Ed Reinking. In the fourth safeties by Henry Putney and Gordon Owsley, a base on balls to Jim Putney and a Comet miscue produced the runs.

Comets Score

One-base blows by Harold a pair of Medford overthow and a pair of Medford overthrow errors enable the Comets to score twice in the opening inning. Singles by Bill Reaves, Bob Fowler and Neil Green and a base on balls figured in getting over one Crater marker in the second session.

Henry Putney, pitching for Medford, grew tougher after yielding five hits in the opening two innings and allowed only one more during the game. He struck out nine batters and walked but one. Wayne Allen, promising Comet freshman hurler, was tagged for five hits in the six times he faced Medford batters. He issued five walks and whiffed three.

Harold Lefler was the lone Comet to get on base in Friday's scoreless tussle. He collected the lone hit off Medford pitcher Duane Sides. The Tornado socked three hits off Crater chucker Fred Herrmann, Gordon Owsley got two singles one on a bad hop and Larry Gober slugged the other.

Two Chances

Medfordites reached the basepaths on seven occasions and had two scoring opportunities. In the first inning Owsley stole second after a single. He went to third on an error on a rap by Gober but Dick McLaughlin popped up to retire the side. In the fifth frame Ray Hilton walked and Owsley singled him to third. Ron Peery was retired on a foul fly for the third out.

Only two balls were hit out of range of the infielders by each team. Sides recorded six strikeouts and allowed no walks. Herrmann fanned five and issued two bases on balls.

Crater came up with one double play in the contest.

Glendale drove in six runs in the first half of the seventh inning yesterday to gain a 9 to 6 win over Eagle Point on the Pointer's home field.

Eagle Point edged out the Douglas county mittmen 6 to 3 at Glendale Thursday.

The score yesterday was tied 3 to 3 going into the seventh. Then Glendale put together nine hits for six runs. In the last half of the seventh the Pointers drove in three runs to make it 9-6.

Foran Gets Homer

Glendale scored in the first, third and fifth, as well as the six run extravaganza in the seventh. Eagle Point scored in the second and in the third when Foran slammed out a homer, driving in Tresham.

The battery for Glendale was Owens, West, 5, and Muryon, and for Eagle Point, Foran, Schauble, 6, Boren, 7, and Tresham.

Eagle Point will play Prospect at Eagle Point Thursday, and will start Rogue League competition when they meet Illinois Valley at Eagle Point, Friday.

Eagle Point held Glendale to six hits while pounding out a 6 to 3 win at Glendale Thursday.

The score was tied at three-all at the bottom of the sixth but the Pointers knocked in three runs in their half of the seventh and final inning.

Glendale loaded the bass three times and left 15 men on base. Eagle Point hurlers Wallace and Boren walked five men while Smith, pitcher for Glendale, walked three.

Black Tornado Whirls In Cinder Encounter

Medford high thinclads showed off their track and field strength yesterday for the first time in interscholastic competition this season and indicated that they will again be a power to be reckoned with in rivalry for state diadem in both regular and relay style meets.

No score was kept in a triangular affair with Ashland and Crater and shortened distances were run off in the cinder events. But the Black Tornado, perennial Oregon titlist, sounded a warning with some exceptional times, heights and distances for early season. And the Medfordites also displayed depth.

Medford recorded 23 first places out of a possible 28 and swept five heats. Crater got three firsts and Ashland two. The meet was contested in championship and novice divisions in a number of events. There were 14 actual events and the Tornado had one stellar performer or more in nearly every one.

Larson Blazes

Hurdler Wally Larson of the Tornado blazed over the 80-yard high hurdles in :08.8 and over the 110-yard lows in :10.9. Bob Gould and Mike Hawkins of Medford bested Ashland's star sprinter, Stewart Baker, in the 80-yard dash, Gould being timed in a scorching :08.1 and Hawkins in :08.2.

Mike Russell romped through the 330-yard run in a fast :36.1 for Medford. The time was a shade off his best in practice. Loren Christean won the novice 330 for Medford in a good :38.3. Wilcey Winchell of Medford raced through the champion 660-yarder in a blistering 1:25.9 for a new school record and Bilbee Lane in taking the novice run for the home team turned in a fine 1:28.6.

Medford's crew of Hawkins, Russell, Larson and Gary Riley ran the quarter-mile relay in a zippy :45 flat.

In the field events Neil Plumley, outstanding junior, put the shot out 51 feet 6½ inches, indicating that he may be a strong contender from Medford for state laurels with likely improvement as the season rolls along. Three Medford broad jumpers exceeded 20½ feet and two of them went better than 20. Wayne Close went21-1⅜, Hawkins 21-½ and Bob Tisdel 20-9¼. In the pole vault Lew Breazeale cleared 11-6 for Medford.

A surprise in the meet came when Eldon Francis, Medford's state javelin champ, was beaten out by his teammate Gary Lewis. Winning heave by Lewis was 171-3, not his best of the year. Francis, lamed by a turned ankle, had a top cast of 164-¾. Lewis has demonstrated that he'll give the champ a battle this year but Francis was hampered by the injury while performing his specialty.

In the 180-yard dash Ashland's Baker beat out Gould and was timed in a fast :18.3. George Juveland of Crater won the novice heat in :18.6.

In the high jump Dick Davis of Crater took the champion division and Bom Tams of Medford the novice with identical heights of 5-8. Jack Lilly took the championship discus for Crater and Al South the novice platter throw for Ashland.

Winchell's time in the 660 beat the mark of 1:26 set a week ago by Les Lingscheit. The latter ran the three-fourths mile yesterday in the good time of 3:30.9.

Red Sox Claim Big Potential

This is another in a series on the 1956 prospects of the major league clubs.

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

Sarasota, Fla. — (U.P.) —Mike Higgins surprised the baseball world last year when he brought the Boston Red Sox home fourth but no one would be surprised this season if he won the pennant.

Higgins himself, who never goes out on a limb, agrees with Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Bucky Harris of the Tigers, that the Red Sox have the potential to go all the way.

"After all," he pointed out, "I'll have Ted Williams all season and Bob Porterfield and Mickey Vernon will strengthen the club, too."

He also has two infield rookies, who could make the difference — shortstop Don Buddin and third baseman Frank Malzone.

Higgins admits that the infield is "the weakest point." It was what kept the Red Sox from finishing higher last year. But he has high hopes that Buddin and Malzone will plug those leaks.

Pitching Appears Strong

He goes along with Stengel and Harris who claim that the Red Sox could come up with the best pitching in the league.

Pitching and the outfield figure to be the strongest points.

Williams, Jim Piersall and the hard-hitting Jackie Jensen will be the regular outfield trio with Faye Throneberry, Gene Stephens and Dick Garnet the likely reserves.

Frank Sullivan, an 18-game winner last season, will anchor the mound staff with Tom Brewer (11-10), Willard Nixon (12-10) and Porterfield, (10-17) with the Senators, the other regular starters.

Other starting candidates include Mel Parnell, George Susce Jr., Ike Delock, rookie Dave Sisler, Hall of Fame first and Frank Baumann.

Heading the regular relief corps will be Tom Hurd, Bill Henry and Leo Kiely.

Higgins plans to platoon Vernon and Norm Zauchin at first base, with Vernon going against righthanders and Zauchine against lefties. If Buddin makes it at short and Malzone at third, Billy Klaus, the Red Sox sparkplug last season, will battle the veteran Billy Goodman for the second base spot.

Goodman Best Hitter

Goodman is the better hitter, Klaus the better glove man If Malzone doesn't make it at third Klaus can also play that position and if Buddin fails to measure up at short, Klaus could take over there.

The veteran Grady Hatton and Billy Consolo, who never has lived up to the bonus the Red Sox paid him, are other third base possibilities. Also in the running is Ted Lepcio, who may have found his batting eye at Louisville last season, where he hit .310.

Catching is all set with Sammy White the No. 1 man and Pete Daley behind him as he was in 1955.

All in all, the Red Sox prospects appear to hinge on the infield. If Higgins plugs those leaks, the other contenders will have good cause for alarm.

Two Horses Withdrawn From Race

Bowie, Md. — (U.P.) — The $100,000 added John B. Campbell Memorial Handicap lost two of its greatest attractions Saturday when it was announced Swaps and Nashua have been withdrawn from the race at Bowie next Saturday.

The mile and one-sixteenth event was raised in value from $75,000 to $100,000 this year to entice the owners of the champion colts into a rubber match, but now it appears they won't get together until the Belmont Park or Hollywood Park meetings this summer.

James Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, Nashua's trainer, informed Bowie officials by telephone from New York Friday that owner Leslie B. Combs has decided not to start the million-dollar horse in the Campbell.

Hours later, M. H. Tenney, Swap's trainer, announced that the California comet will remain in Florida until the end of the Gulfstream Park meeting, April 21.

In the Campbell imposts announced Friday, Fisherman, Jet Action and Social Outcast drew 123 each while Sailor, who upset Nashua in the recent Gulfstream Park Handicap, drew 122.

SIGN WITH PACKERS

Green Bay, Wis. —(U.P.) — Tackles Bill Mullburn of Texas and Dick Gordon of Toledo University were added Saturday to the roster of the Green Bay Packers of the National Football league. Millburn is a 230-pounder who played on the Txeas Cotton Bowl team of 1952 while Gordon, a 265-pounder, was the Los Angeles Rams' 17th draft choice in 1954.

Fish Lake Seen As Good Fishing

A good season at Fish lake is expected this year, according to Robert Cavanaugh of the resort at the lake.

A few weeks ago, he said, there was six to eight feet of snow on the ground, but the ice on the lake was mushy, and it is believed there will be no solid freezing over as there was last year.

The season opens April 28, the same as fishing season, and closes Oct. 7, Cavanaugh reported. Boat reservations, which he said are going fast, may be made by telephoning Medford 2-2859.

Cavanaugh reported that 75,000 fish, 4 to 5 inches long, were planted last October, and are believed to be sizing up well.

Emigrant Speed Boat Runs Scheduled To Start Sunday

First of the annual Emigrant lake speed boat races will be held next Sunday, April 8, at 1 p.m. on the lake about four miles south of Ashland on Highway 66.

Jerry McGrew, commodore for the Western Speedboat association, has announced the preparations for the Emigrant Lake Regatta have been completed.

This will be the first year in the history of the local club that the races will be sanctioned by the American Power Boat association.

Enough boats have already registered for the races to insure a full card of events. Cash prizes will be given to winners in addition to trophies an an incentive to competition.

The course will be a complete mile this year with two heats to each race and five laps to each heat. There will be six races including runs for 'D' stock hydros; 'B' stock hydros; 'F' hydro; DU runabouts; BU runabouts, and D runabouts.

Local drivers have been practicing on the lake for the past two weeks and should complete preparation for the competition today.

Invitations to participate in the meet have been sent to all competitive clubs on the Pacific coast, as well as a notice in the APBA circular sent to clubs all over the United States.

Trophies will be on display at Barker's Men's store in Medford this week. Admission price is $1 for adults. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

Ski Conditions

Skiing conditions at Crater Lake National parker were considered good as of 4 p.m. yesterday. There was three inches of new snow and 171 inches of snow on the ground. It was snowing hard. The temperature was 21 degrees. Highway 62 through the park and the road from Annie Springs to the rim were open with chains or abrasive snow-tread tires advised. The warming hut will be open today, weather permitting.
