Chapter Honors Mrs. John Pond At Last Meeting

Jacksonville — Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a stated meeting Thursday, April 5, at 8 p.m., at the Masonic hall in Jacksonville. Mrs. Orval Shores, worthy matron, will preside.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Benjamin F. Coleman, chairman, assisted by Mrs. James Ping, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Winn and Mr. and Mrs. William Coghil.

Immediately following the last meeting the chapter honored a member, Mrs. John R. Pond, member of the endowment fund committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, with a reception. Program numbers included musical readings by Menno Bachmann, and solos by Mrs. Ernest Lytle, accompanied by Mrs. Dale M. Blickenstaff. During an addendum by the star points and the worthy matron, Mrs. Pond was presented a hand etching of the Oregon Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove, done by Mrs. Fred H. Gardner. Mrs. Pond was also presented with a guest book from the chapter.

Tables were decorated with early spring flowers and gold colored tapers, with miniature hand made money bags for nut cups at each place. Light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Each guest was presented with an original wheat corsage. Grand chapter representation included Mrs. G. W. Hopper, grand chaplain, Wolf Creek; Morris Boughner, Medford, member of the "estari" committee; Mrs. Ira Poole, Canyonville, grand representative of South Dakota; Mrs. Leonard W. Williams, grand representative of Michigan; Mrs. Rex Note, Medford, grand representative of Rhode Island.

Visiting matrons and patrons included Mrs. Pete Blue, Selma; Mrs. Melvin McGrew, Central Point; Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Medford; Mrs. Robert E. Van Vleet, Ashland; Ross Gilkinson, Medford and T. Guy McGee, Canyonville.

National Society Announces Plans Of Annual Session

Washington, D.C.—Keyed to the theme of "Protect America's Future Through Patriotic Education", the 65th Continental Congress of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will open in D.A.R. Constitution Hall, Monday, April 16, Miss Gertrude S. Carraway, president general, has announced.

So many delegates and members from all parts of the country are expected to attend this Congress, when the triennial elections will be held, that arrangements have been made to seat overflow crowds in the Interior Department auditorium on Monday and Tuesday nights. Loud speakers will be installed so the program may be heard there, according to Mrs. Joseph B. Paul, Program Chairman.

Miss Carraway will give her annual address as retiring president general on Monday night and will read a message from President Eisenhower. Even before his heart attack, the society let it be known that it wished to spare the busy President the time and strain of a personal appearance.

For the first time this year, on Sunday, April 15, there will be a military parade honoring DAR, and a citation to the president general for the DAR by the Third "Old Guard" Infantry at Fort Meyer, Va. This is said to be the first time a woman's organization has been so honored.

Helpful books on how to retire and enjoy it are available at the Medford Public library.

Chairmen Named For Second Show Of Rose Society

Mrs. George Renaker and Mrs. W. R. Peabody were named co-chairmen of the coming second annual rose show at a meeting Monday evening in the courthouse of Medford Rose society. Twenty-six members and two guests were present.

Mrs. Renaker spoke of plans for the show, to be held June 2, and said a new division, arrangements of old-fashioned roses, will be added this year. Members were reminded of the National Rose society convention in Portland June 6, 7 and 8.

Five bushes of the new grandiflora rose, "The Texan," donated by Howards of Hemet, were auctioned, with the proceeds going to the American Rose foundation.

A panel discussion of rose-growing questions was presented by Dr. L. G. Gentner, Glen Brown, Eldred Peyton, Mrs. Ward Spatz and Mrs. Ronald Axtell. Prizes of two miniature roses were presented to Miss Florence Bain and Mrs. H. E. Peyton.

Two new members, Miss Grace Stuhr and Alfred Dees, and two guests, Mrs. Peyton and Mrs. Lorne McCoy, were introduced. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Several Guests Attend Meeting Of Electa Club

Several guests attended a meeting of Electa Social club March 23. Dessert was followed by a business meeting.

Guests were Mrs. E. G. Randolph, matron of Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Mrs. R. C. Marshall, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Maude King, Ivy chapter, San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. R. B. Thaanum, Victory chapter, Conrad, Mont.

The club accepted the invitation of Nevita Social club to attend a luncheon and style show at their club room April 27. Those who wish to attend are to call Mrs. Brown, 3-3288; Mrs. A. L. Schrack, 2-5363; Mrs. Dana W. Bowers, 2-8094 or Mrs. Clara Franklin, 2-2659, for reservations.

The committee, Mrs. Maude Duffy, Mrs. Freda Butler, Mrs. H. C. Caspey and Mrs. Bowers, served luncheon and cards were enjoyed during the afternoon.

MUSHROOM SAVORY

For a hot dish for Sunday night supper try stuffed mushrooms. Take large ones and peel gently. Cut off stems and brush them with melted butter. Stuff caps with finely ground well-seasoned chicken. Bake in the oven of your range in a greased pan with a tablespoon of butter until the mushrooms are done and the filling is cooked through. Serve with sliced fresh vegetables and toasted bread sticks.

Flavorful raisin peanut butter cookies and fresh rhubarb make a delicious springtime dessert. Cut the rhubarb in 3-inch lengths and cook until barely tender in a small amount of water. Add sugar to taste and stir until dissolved.

Bananas are good at any season of the year. Try a something to try: Cut in half lengthwise, dip in condensed milk, roll in coconut, then place in shallow pan and bake in oven at 370 degrees F for 20 minutes or until brown.
