GOLD HILL Council Discusses Drainage

By MRS. SAM ELLIOTT
Gold Hill—The city council this week with Clyde Walker, who is a representative of Second ave. residents, concerning the drainage problems. The problem was discussed briefly since the council has not yet received an answer to their request for aid in the work.

It was voted that the city order asphalt cold mix to repair the city streets where there was winter damage.

The engineer's report has not been completed on the water filter question. An answer is promised by the May meeting.

A year ago it was voted to build a building for large city road equipment and other purposes. This building will be built behind the fire hall on city-owned property. The council discussed and voted to obtain the best lumber prices this month. The lumber will be purchased from funds in this year's budget. Several problems concerning the new budget were also discussed.

Councilman Carl Whitford's resignation was accepted. He had to resign because he was not able to attend meetings due to conflicting hours of his work.

The council voted that the Rogue Valley Flood Commission meeting could be held in the city hall here April 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holderness, one-time residents of Gold Hill, spent a week visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Holderness, and their two children, Renae and Paula. The Paul Holdernesses are from Sand Point, Ida., and own a cattle ranch.

The William Centers' home on Second ave. was the scene of a large family gathering Saturday evening. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hobson and children Bobby Lynn and Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Straus, and children Jackie, Jan and Kimbra, all of Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Centers and children Jeanie and Buddy, Medford; Mrs. Ann Payne and Chipper, Mrs. Bill Centers and Mrs. Opal Chase, Grants Pass, and Clifford Page of San Diego, Calif. Also present and a visitor during Easter week was Miss Patsy Tipps of Compton, Calif.

Resolutions Express Regret Flynn's Death

Resolutions expressing regret at the death of Diamond L. Flynn, former Medford mayor and civic leader, have been passed by the Medford city council, Kiwanis club, and the board of directors of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

"During his lifetime... Flynn unselfishly contributed of his time to the welfare of the people of Medford as a member of the water commission, the council and as mayor..." the council resolution states.

The Kiwanis statement describes Flynn as "an outstanding citizen of high courage, zeal and integrity," and an "inspiration to his fellow citizens."

A former director of the chamber of commerce and president of the League of Oregon Cities, Flynn "displayed to a high degree qualities of sincerity, impartiality and intelligent concern for the welfare of his fellowman," the Chamber resolution stated.

The resolutions tender sympathy and sense of loss to Flynn's family.

HORN BROOK Easter Bonnet Party Held

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — The annual Easter Bonnet party given by the Women's society of the Hornbrook Community Methodist church was held in the church parlors March 29. At the business meeting preceding the party, it was decided to hold the annual Mother's day cake and apron sale on Saturday, May 12, at Gordon Jacob's store.

Recent newcomers welcomed to Hornbrook include Mr. and Mrs. George Franko, and their three sons, Richard, George, and Martin, aged 2, 4, and 6. Their former home was at Walnut Creek, Calif. Franko is foreman of the Black Mountain ranch, recently sold by Paul Visser to Grant Burton, also of Walnut Creek. Friends here have received word from the Visser's that they are now settled in their new home in southern California where he is employed by the Hughes Aircraft corporation.

Mrs. Elena Conley arrived last Thursday from her home in Sacramento to spend a few days with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Breceda.

Easter week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jesperson of Ditch Creek road were Mr. and Mrs. Hoke Evetts, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bullock, all of Bakersfield, Calif. The Evetts are parents of Mrs. Reginald Jesperson. Other relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elberg of Coalinga, Calif. Mrs. Elberg is a cousin of Mrs. Allan Jesperson. Elberg has been on a survey in Arabia for the Standard Oil Co. for the past eight years, and at present is home on a two months leave. He brought with him a number of slides he has taken while in the Near East, including some taken 1000 miles into the desert.

Bill, Bob, and Jim Farmer returned last Thursday from a trip to Nashville, Tenn., where they had been called by the illness of their father. They report their father was showing improvement, and that his doctor said the visit of the boys was a real tonic to him. Jim returned to his home in Portland on Friday. The boys were fortunate in that they passed through Oklahoma just ahead of the tornado that struck there last week end.

Mrs. Henry Ronlake and daughter Jobea paid a short visit last week to their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Hodge. They were enroute home to Reading from Eugene where Jobea had registered at the school of interior decorating at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Lawrence Breceda, accompanied by her son, Gene, of Ashland, drove to Canyonville, Ore., Tuesday where they visited at the Canyonville Bible academy.

Mrs. Bertha Bradley was an Easter dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brunk on Hwy. 99. Other visitors last week at the Brunk home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Andrews of Pasadena, Calif. They expressed themselves as liking the country hereabouts, and anticipate coming up later in the season to fish.

Mrs. Ella Pratt, who has been quite ill this winter, was seen out walking up and down the road, and enjoying the warm spring sunshine this week. Mrs. Pratt is the grandmother of Penny Barnum, the local M-T carrier.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walsh and daughter Sheree, accompanied by Miss Mary Lee Rutledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Rutledge, drove to Salem, Ore., to spend Easter week end with relatives. En route home, they stopped at Riddle, Ore., their former home, to visit with friends there.

Mrs. Lena Cavin, who has been visiting her sister in Willows, Calif., for several weeks, returned home last week. Her health is much improved and she is able to get around some without her crutches. She suffered a broken hip in a fall at her home last year.

Carl Deal is in the Siskiyou County General hospital in Yreka where he was taken by ambulance Tuesday morning. He has been in failing health for several months.

Eddie Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mason of Henley rd., is spending Easter vacation with his parents. He is in his senior year of high school at the Seventh Day Adventist academy at Milo, Ore.
