'Answered Prayer' Rally Theme Sunday At First Baptist

A southern Oregon "Answered Prayer" rally in honor of a Baptist missionary who has just returned to the United States from a Chinese Communist prison will be held Sunday at First Baptist church, at 3 p.m.

The missionary, Dr. Lee Lovegren, attributes his release to the prayers offered for him during his 4½ years in a Communist prison He was released on September 19, 1955—on his 67th birthday. His wife had been waiting for him for 3½ years. During her time in Hong Kong, Mrs. Lovegren continued missionary work among Chinese refugees. Her daughter, Mildred, is also a missionary in Hong Kong.

Dr. and Mrs. Lovegren returned to the United States by way of Jordan, where their son, August Lovegren, is a missionary-doctor. During their visit with him, the Arab riots broke out and their lives were imperiled when an angry mob threatened to burn down the hospital supervised by their son. The mob was finally dissuaded by the young doctor.

The Lovegrens went to China as missionaries in 1917.

UMC Officials to Attend State Meet

Three representatives of the United Medford Crusade will be in Portland next week for the 13th annual luncheon and meeting of the Oregon Chest and the following western conference of the United Community Funds and Councils of America.

M. M Huggins, newly elected representative to the Oregon Chest board from Jackson county, and Harold B. Cook, executive secretary of the United Medford Crusade, will attend luncheon meeting April 10 and Cook and UMC President William Prentice will attend the conference April 11 to 13.

Gov. Elmo E. Smith will address the annual meeting at the Multnomah hotel and present a special citation and plaque to Chris Seely, Salem, president of the Oregon Chest in the 1955-56 term.

More than 1,000 volunteer leaders of Community Chests, United Funds and social service agencies from the state have been invited.

A series of lectures and seminars on problems of fund work will be held during the conference. James Linen, publisher of Time magazine, and president of the United Community Funds and Councils of America, will open the conference.

The American farmer uses more petroleum power in his tractors, trucks, automobiles and self-propelled implements than is used by all other industries combined.

Farm families buy 10 per cent of the new cars sold and six per cent of the used ones.

Phoenix Pastor To Begin Series; Topics Announced

Phoenix — The Rev. Ernest R. Volkman, pastor of Phoenix Presbyterian church, will begin a series of sermons Sunday which will continue each Sunday through the month. Next Sunday's topic will be, "Courtship and Marriage."

Topics which will be given on the remaining Sundays are "Christian Friendship," April 8; "Christian Courtship," April 15; "Christian Marriage," April 22; and "Christian Family Life," April 29
