

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Tharp Mann
(Classic studios)

Guest Night Plans Made by Sorority; Party Conducted

Plans for a guest night meeting were made by members of Beta Sigma Upsilon sorority recently at the home of Mrs. M. H. Parsons. The observance is to be held May 15.

Mrs. Wayne Harris, Mrs. Jack Cannon and Mrs. Walter W. Smith were selected as membership committee members. It was decided that new pledges will be received into the chapter next fall and Mrs. Carl Christensen was appointed program chairman.

The cultural program was given by Mrs. Walter W. Smith on the topic, "You and Your Audience." The second program was presented by Mrs. De Von Wray on "Express Yourself."

After the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Robert Schroeder. Next meeting of the group will be held April 17 at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Gerald Von Ting, 1853 Delta Waters road.

A box supper was held by Beta Sigma Upsilon sorority women and their husbands March 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wright, 506 Barnes road.

After dinner bridge, canasta and pinochle was played. High prize for canasta was taken by Mrs. DeVon Wray and low prize by Mr. Wray. Pinochle high was won by Walter W. Smith and low by Mrs. Walter W. Smith. Bridge high was won by Warren Wolf and low by Mrs. Wolf.

Those assisting with the party were Mrs. Wayne Wright, Mrs. John Selby, Mrs. Gerald Von Ting and Mrs. Walter W. Smith.

Vaughans Leave For Trip East

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Vaughan, Brownsboro road, left Friday for San Francisco from where they planned for New York. The Vaughans were accompanied by their son, Dale. Their daughter, Vicki and son, Rusty, went by plane to Los Angeles to spend a vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. Dale Vaughan.

Mr. Vaughan will transact business while in New York and Mrs. Vaughan will buy stock for her shop, Town and Country, in Eagle Point.

Visit

Mrs. Ken Baker and daughter, Miss Carol Sue Baker, Oakland, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Baker's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hale, and their infant son, Gordon Curtis, who was born here March 31. The Hales live at 924 Alta street. Mrs. Baker and Miss Baker plan to be here for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wickman
(Classic Studios)

Wickman-Campbell Rites Held at Methodist Church

Miss Joanne Grace Campbell and Robert M. Wickman were married March 17 in afternoon rites at First Methodist church. Dr. Raymond Balcomb performed the double-ring ceremony. About 125 guests attended the ceremony and reception, also held at the church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan G. Campbell, 1395 South Peach street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wickman, 722 King street.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was designed with lace bodice over satin and the full length skirt was made with lace panels. She carried a bouquet of white orchids with white carnations.

Mrs. R. K. Schulz, a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and Miss Peggy Rutter and Mrs. Iva McKinney were bridesmaid and bridesmatron.

The attendants' gowns were of crystalline in ballerina length. That worn by Mrs. Schulz was in a coral shade while Miss Rutter wore blue and Mrs. McKinney, maize. Their flowers were coral roses with blue and yellow carnations in nosegays with ruffles of crystalline to match their gowns.

Candle lighters were Miss Mary Campbell and Miss Martha Campbell, twin sisters of the bride, who wore matching gowns of green and lavender.

Bert Rostel, Central Point, was best man. Ushers were Loren Carter and Ron Clawson.

The church was decorated with candles and baskets filled with forsythia, pussy willows,

Soprano To Appear In Concert

Sylvia DeVoss, young coloratura soprano, will be soloist for the final concert of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. The concert is set for Sunday, April 15, at 3 o'clock at Medford Senior High school auditorium.

Mrs. DeVoss, a native of British Columbia, Canada, has had considerable experience in the concert field. She began singing at the age of 10, appearing in church events, and at the age of 12 placed fourth in the section for girl's solo, high voice, at the British Columbia Musical Competition festival. She sang and played the piano over Station CKWX, Vancouver, that same year, and placed third in the same festival the next year.

The singer attended the University of Redlands in California, graduating with a bachelor of arts degree in music.

She played the role of Zerlina in an opera workshop production of "The Maid as Mistress" by Pergolesi, in 1947, and played the female lead in "Whisperland Fantasy" a musical comedy. This was the culmination of graduation festivities in 1948.

Mrs. DeVoss has also played Gilda in an opera workshop production of "Rigoletto," the mechanical doll in "Tales of Hoffman" and was soprano soloist for a production of "The Messiah" presented at the University of Redlands. She was also soloist for the Chapel choir which toured southern California.

For the coming concert Mrs. DeVoss will sing a group with orchestra accompaniment and another with accompaniment by Bruno Pellegrini, pianist. Her first group will be Handel's "My Beloved" and "O luce di quest'anima," recitative and cavatina from "Linda di Chamounix" by Donizetti.

The second will include "Sing, Smile, Slumber" by Gounod with flute obligato; "Carmena Waltz Song" by H. Lane Wilson; "Crepescule" by Massenet and "Hymn to the Sun" by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

The singer's husband, Henry DeVoss, is a speech correctionist in special education for the Medford school system.

Tickets for the concert are now on sale. Mrs. Ralph Matlack, 3-1045, is ticket chairman.

A meeting of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will be held Monday, April 9 at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Howard Phillips, 228 Sunrise avenue.

Traveler Back From Bay Area

Mrs. Royal Bebb arrived home Friday by plane from San Francisco where she had been since before Easter to visit her son, Ward Bebb, and to spend the Easter holidays.

While there she attended a presentation of Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis," at the San Francisco Opera house. Enrique Jorda conducted. Noted singers who appeared were Jan Peerce, tenor, and Yi-Kwei-Sze, bass-baritone. Choruses from the University of California participated and a quartet of soloists took part.

The visitor also attended performances of "Oklahoma," and "Anniversary Waltz."

Return

Mr. and Mrs. John Mansfield and son David, 924 Kenyon street, returned home Monday after spending the Easter holiday visiting relatives in the Bay area. They attended a Mansfield family reunion in Albany, and also visited in San Mateo.

Sylvia DeVoss
(Landis-Shangle photo)

MEETING ANNOUNCED FOR EVENING GUILD

St. Mark's Evening Guild will meet April 9, at 8 p.m., in the Parish house. Hostesses will be Mrs. Ralph Matthews, Mrs. Douglas Roach, and Mrs. Mark Taylor.

One Group of Fine WOOL SUITS AND COATS

SUITS 1/2 Price
Values to $59.95
Reg. & Half Sizes

COATS 1/2 Price
VALUES to $79.98

All new merchandise — Hurry! Supply Limited!

The Fashionette

22 S. Central Across from Craterian Phone 2-8168

Miss Lorraine Cummings Wed to Horace Tharp Mann

An event of Easter Sunday, April 1, was the wedding of Miss Lorraine Cummings, Alexandria, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings, 1000 Alta street, to Horace Tharp Mann, Washington, D.C. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Horace Tharp Mann Sr., Rolla, Mo.

The ceremony took place at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Zion Lutheran church, with the Rev. G. Herbert Hillerman officiating for the double-ring communion service. About 175 guests were present.

Mr. Cummings gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a traditional gown of satin and lace with veil first worn by her sister. The gold bracelet she wore was an heirloom given to her by the bridegroom's mother. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and carnations.

Mrs. John Liming, Fresno, was honor attendant for her sister and additional attendants were Mrs. Wallace Soland, Toledo, Wash., Miss Marion Juricic, Joliet, Ill., and Miss Gay Gaydos, Washington, D.C. Kristine Liming, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The attendants all wore frocks of blue lace and crystallette fashioned empire style, with matching shoes and hats of satin and nylon net. They carried nosegays of pink carnations with white rosebud centers.

John Liming, Fresno, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Wallace Soland, Toledo, Alan Pierce and Clifford Cain, Medford. Gary Cummings, brother of the bride, was junior usher.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons, stock and roses, and pink and blue carnations. Otto Ewaldsen was soloist, and Tim Hillerman was at the organ.

The reception which followed was in the church parlor. Mrs. A. J. Andersen, Tacoma, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Roy V. Rickard presided at the coffee service and Mrs. W. R. Gass at the punch bowl. Donald Andersen, Tacoma, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

Calla lilies and candelabra decorated the bride's table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cummings wore a lavender crepe gown with orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace gown with red rosebud corsage.

Also here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, Coeur d'Alene, Ida., grandparents of the bride; A. J. Andersen and son, Norman, and Oscar Nelson, Tacoma, relatives of the bride; Jeffrey Liming, nephew of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Liming and the Misses Eva and Mable Freeburg, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hagen, Pendleton, Ore.

The night preceding the wedding the Cummings were hosts for a buffet dinner for out-of-town guests and Friday night the bridegroom's mother entertained at a dinner for the bridal party before the rehearsal. It was given at Mon Desir inn. Gen. and Mrs. Roy Rickard were hosts for a pre-dinner party at their home.

Mr. Mann and his bride traveled to San Francisco and Washington, D.C., for their wedding trip and will be at home at Arlington, Va. The bride, a stewardess for United Air Lines, attended Pacific Lutheran college, Parkland, Wash., and the University of Hawaii. Mr. Mann is with the engineering research division, Department of Defense in Washington. He attended Missouri School of Mines, the University of Texas and the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Horace Mann Guest in Medford

Mrs. Horace Tharp Mann Sr., left Tuesday for her home in Rolla, Mo., after having been in Medford for the wedding of her son, Horace Tharp Mann, to Miss Lorraine Cummings. The wedding took place Easter Sunday at Zion Lutheran church here.

While here Mrs. Mann was a guest of Gen. and Mrs. Roy Rickard, 901 Newtown street, longtime friends.

Tuesday noon before her departure Mrs. Mann was honored at a luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club given by the bride's mother, Mrs. A. G. Cummings, 1000 Alta street.

Medford Couple Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Krows, 1215 East Main street, arrived home Wednesday after traveling some 7,000 miles through southwest states and Mexico.

They arrived home by way of El Paso, Tex., and took the central route through the Navajo Indian country and Nevada, arriving here by way of Alturas, Calif.

They reported excellent weather conditions throughout their trip with sunshine every day.

It's smart to buy Sterling ON OUR CLUB PLAN for only $2⁰⁰ a week per six-piece place-setting

For just a few cents each day you can have Gorham* Sterling, enduring and lovely always, to use and enjoy every day! Come in soon, choose the place-settings you need in the Gorham pattern of your choice, and enjoy the use of this fine sterling while you pay for it.

P.S. Ask to see the exclusive Gorham Sterling one-piece, dent-resistant knife handle.

LAWRENCE'S
YOUR SILVER STORE
Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Too!
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

Thank You

It was with considerable pride that we re-opened our new, finer store at Sixth and Bartlett streets, and invited our southern Oregon friends to pay us a visit. Your response to this invitation far exceeded our most optimistic hopes. Special displays, unique and interesting demonstrations, entertainment and prizes were arranged to make your call a pleasant and profitable one.

We were delighted with the crowds attending this four-day re-opening . . . and we were especially pleased with the many enthusiastic and sincere compliments paid by our guests. So, with deep feeling, we say: "thanks a million" for your wonderful reception of the new, bigger and better Medford Furniture Store . . . and assure you that a warm welcome will always await you here.

Robert Rector

MEDFORD FURNITURE
SIXTH & BARTLETT
SAVING CENTER AT
220 North Bartlett

Bigger, Better Displays Than Ever Before!
FAST FREE DELIVERY
EASY TERMS

your Portrait for Mother's Day

Special For April Only . . .

1 Big 8x10 Portrait for you to keep
2 fine 5x7's for you to give $8.95

Each mounted in lovely book folders

FULL SELECTION OF PROOFS
MAKE YOUR APPOINTMENT NOW!

Brainerd's
CAMERAS
PHOTOGRAPHS
120 East Main St.