MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Jim Rowan Elected President of RVHM Founders Group

Jim Rowan was elected president of the Founders Organization of the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital at a meeting of the board of directors this morning. He succeeds the late Diamond L. Flynn. Rowan was the group's first vice president. Frank Morgan was elected to succeed him. Col. Charles Stafford has been named office manager of the campaign organization by the hospital board, an action which was approved by the founders group this morning. Stafford will be in charge of the office on Bartlett st. First call for payment of pledges taken during the fund-raising campaign for the hospital will be made in June.

Latham Appointed

It was reported this morning that more than $15,000 in pledges have been made toward construction of the hospital since the drive closed early this year. Plans and specifications for the building will be completed early in May, and bids are scheduled to be let in June, with groundbreaking ceremonies to follow. Jerry Latham was named to be in charge of arranging these ceremonies.

The board adopted a resolution in honor of Mr. Flynn, who was one of the most active and successful workers in the hospital campaign, and had been temporary office manager for the organization.

Kefauver Denies Stand on Oregon

Portland (U.P.)—Managers of Sen. Estes Kefauver's Oregon campaign said here today that their candidate had denied Saturday reports from Linden, N. J., that he had decided "not to make a contest" in the Oregon primary with Adlai Stevenson.

The candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination wired William L. Josslin and Jack Bain that his New Jersey statement had been misconstrued and that he had referred only to the fact that his national campaign organization would not take active charge of the write-in campaign in Oregon.

The telegram said "I authorize and encourage your state organization to use every effort in my behalf for the write-in campaign."

The message concluded, "I will be with you on April 21 for the Young Democratic dinner and other meetings and hope to return again prior to your primary May 18."
