

Portlanders Divide Sacramento Tangles

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer
Pacific Coast League teams completed their first rain-splattered series of the 1956 season last night all bunched up like a pile of wet wash.

The weatherman took two more decisions yesterday and all eight teams prepared for the mid-week partner-swinging with near-identical records.

Vancouver got into the win column via a one-hit 3-1 victory for Bob Harrison over San Francisco and Portland split with Sacramento, winning 6-1 in the daylight and losing 6-5 under the lights.

Los Angeles at San Diego and Seattle at Hollywood went down the drain as the rains came to the southland.

Today the teams shuffle about a bit with Vancouver going to Los Angeles, Seattle to Sacramento, Hollywood to San Diego and Portland to San Francisco. Close Pack

After the first whirl Portland and Los Angeles topped the loop with 2-1 records while San Diego and Sacramento sat in seventh and eighth with 1-2 marks. Everybody else was even at 1-1.

Easily the best game of the season was turned in yesterday afternoon when Harrison, a 25-year-old strikeout artist from Wichita of the Western Association, limited San Francisco to a single.

Harrison was wild in the early innings and deprived himself of a shutout by issuing three walks after giving up his only hit—a single by Don Lenhardt in the fourth frame.

The walk that forced in San Francisco's run was the eighth Harrison gave up in four frames—and the last of the game as he cut the Seals down the rest of the way.

Rightfielder Angelo Dagrass

provided all the necessary punch for the Mounties' initial win when he singled with the bases loaded for two Vancouver runs in the third.

Dick Young of Portland homered as the first man up in the first game of an afternoon-night doubleheader with Sacramento and the Beavers were never behind.

Three errors by Sac shortstop Tom Agosta contributed to the Portland scoring and the Solons were unable to make more than a single run despite 10 hits off Rene Valdes, the winner, and veteran Royce Lint.

The second contest was a seesaw affair, marred by seven errors, three by Sacramento and four by Portland.

Sacramento got off to a lead, lost it in the top of the eighth and then came from behind with two runs in the bottom of the same frame to win.

Veteran Jackie Tobin singled home the winning run.

Bob Borkowski was Portland's hitting hero, collecting three singles good for four of the five Beaver runs.

Seixas, Talbert Foes in Opener

Dallas, Tex.—(U.P.)—Top-seeded Vic Seixas meets Davis Cup Captain Billy Talbert today in a make-up first round match in the 10th annual Dallas Country Club Invitational tennis tournament.

Seixas of Philadelphia, who didn't get to Dallas in time for Thursday's opening round, is expected to catch up with the rest of the field. The winner of the Seixas-Talbert match meets Tom Brown of Los Angeles in a second round match.

Wightman Cup Team Selected

New York — (U.P.) — Wimbledon champion Louise Brough and stars Shirley Fry, Beverly Fleitz, and Dorothy Knobe were named today to the U. S. team which will defend the Wightman Cup against a British tennis team at Wimbledon, England, June 15-16.

Miss Brough, former U. S. champion, was appointed captain of the squad.

The American girls team has won the cup 24 times in 28 meetings with Britain, the last 19 in a row to turn the series into one of the most lopsided international competitions in history.

Sam Snead Leader at Greensboro

Greensboro, N. C. — (U.P.) — Creeking old Sam Snead, who won the first Greensboro Open back in 1938 and enough others in between to stake his claim here, was the familiar figure in front of the field this Friday the 13th.

Time may be slipping on the balding, eagle-eyed West Virginian but he played Thursday's first round with the bravado of a pirate. Snead, the defending champion, faced the challenge of a four-under par 67 posted by early-starting Frank Stranahan of Toledo and met it with three birdies on the last five holes for a 66.

Stranahan had trouble finding the green on the front nine, partly because of a morning wind. He made up for it with a blazing putter, having 13 one-putt greens. He posted a 32 coming in—four strokes off par.

Six Others
Right back of the leaders going into the second round were six other challengers who bested par Thursday and were within either two or four strokes.

Jimmy Clark of Los Angeles put 34s back to back for a 68. Young Bill Casper of Chula Vista, Calif., who played in the Navy with Gene Littler and Bud Holscher, sneaked in late in the day with a steady 68.

Bunched at 70 were a former champion, Doug Ford of Mahapac, N. Y., Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., John Serafin of West Pittston, Pa., and amateur Wayne Jackson of Warwick, Va.
