Sauer Provides Evidence Of Lane's Golden Touch

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Mark down Hank Sauer today as proof that Frank Lane still retains his "golden touch" as a trader.

In fact, it may not be long before the experts are debating whether the March 30th deal that brought Sauer from the Chicago Cubs to the St. Louis Cardinals is the best "steal" Lane ever made. Frantic Frankie said Sauer "would help us against left-handed pitching"—and, right now, that qualifies as the understatement of the spring.

The 37-year-old Sauer made Lane look good again Thursday when he and Stan Musial hit "back-to-back" homers for the second straight game in helping the Cardinals down the Chicago White Sox, 5-2, in 10 innings. The victory was the amazing Cardinals' sixth in seven meetings with the White Sox, their 15th win in their last 18 games and their 20th in 29 Grapefruit League contests.

Freese Homers Twice
The Pittsburgh Pirates, another spring surprise, wound up their barnstorming with a 19-13 citrus circuit record when Gene Freese's two homers gave them a 2-1 nod over the Kansas City Athletics. The Pirates, who were victimized by a triple play in the ninth inning, had a 10-5 advantage over the Athletics in their spring series.

Rocky Colavito collected four hits, including two homers, to lead the Cleveland Indians to an 11-inning, 8-7 verdict over the New York Giants that gave the American Leaguers, an 11-8 edge in the spring series. Colavito doubled in the 11th and scored the winning run when rookie Jim Constable walked the next three Indians.

Tommy Jackson 8 to 5 Choice Over Williams

Washington — (U.P.) — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, who would like a go-at Rocky Marciano for the heavyweight boxing title, is an 8-5 favorite to bowl over Johnny Williams of Britain in their nationally-televised 10-round bout tonight at Uline Arena.

The whirl-wind, madcap Jackson has been taking on all comers. He has done pretty well and is looking hard for a big paycheck someday against Marciano. He is a rough fighter, and rated as the No. 2 contender for the world title.

"Hurricane" trained in New Jersey. The Briton worked out here and caught more than a little "house" when he did his road work behind the capitol building.

Williams is a former British champ who hopes to have a job or two at a world crown. He has had 78 professional fights, 66 of which he won. There were draws and four lost decisions in between.

Providence Pick Over Cleveland

Cleveland — (U.P.) — The Providence Reds are heavy favorites to dispose of the Cleveland Barons in the shortest possible order tonight and thus wrap up their fourth Calder Cup championship in the American Hockey League.

The Reds, regular season champions, have won the first three games of their best-of-seven final series with Cleveland in awesome fashion, outscoring the Barons, 17-5.

Dodgers Dump Orioles

A crowd of 22,540 turned out in Baltimore to see the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers defeat the Orioles, 7-2, behind the four-hit pitching of rookies Charley Templeton and Ken Lehman. Lehman, a candidate to replace World Series hero Johnny Podres, shut out the Orioles in the last four innings. Gino Cimoli, filling in for center-fielder Duke Snider, drove in five runs with a triple, double and single.

The Boston Red Sox scored four runs in the first five innings off Curt Simmons and beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-4, despite homers by Bob Bowman and Roy Smalley. Frank Sullivan, tuning up for opening day, hurled the first six innings for the Red Sox.

Bob Thomson singled home two runs in the seventh inning to give the Milwaukee Braves a 7-5 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Eddie Mathews hit a three-run homer for the Braves and Al Kaline, 1955 American League batting champion, hit one for the Tigers.

Ducks Edge Viking Nine

Eugene — (U.P.) — University of Oregon staged a five-run rally in the fourth inning and went on to beat Portland State college 8-6 here yesterday.

The Ducks sewed up the game in the fourth on four-singles, plus a double by Jerry Ross. They got 13 hits including three for extra bases. Jack Henkel went the distance for Oregon to chalk up his second win.

Bowling

ROGUE VALLEY LEAGUE
Although it dropped three games to Andy's Thursday night, Kliever's still holds on to top place in the Rogue Valley Bowling League. The only change in the standings was City Hall's drop from tie for fourth place to seventh place. Bud Van Hoy took all the honors for the evening with a 213 game and a 554 series.
