New York — (U.P.) — The National AAU hustled today to straighten out the confusion surrounding John Landy's proposed trip to the United States before the strong-minded Australian star decides to call the whole thing off.

"If the argument isn't cleared up in a few days, I'll scrap the trip," said Landy, holder of the world mile record of 3:58.0, in Melbourne.

"These seemingly unnecessary arguments upset me," said Landy. "They take all the fun out of running."

Cancellation of Landy's plans to run in California on May 5 at Los Angeles and May 12 at Fresno would be a heavy blow to those meets. AAU President Carl Hansen promised to move fast and said an official invitation to Landy would be dispatched immediately.

Globetrotters Lace All-Stars

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The Harlem Globetrotters found plenty of time to clown around last night as they took an early lead and held it all the way to defeat the College All-Stars, 72-57, in the 13th game of a cross country tour.

De Paul's Ron Sobieszczyk of the collegians took high point honors with 19. The Trotters' Sweetwater Clifton led his team with 18 points.

The antic-minded Trotters gained an early lead with ease and then staged their comedy routine that brought roars from some 5000 fans at Shrine Auditorium. It was the Trotters' ninth win over the collegians in the present series.

DENTIST FAVORED

Las Vegas, Nev. — (U.P.) — Cary Middlecoff has been installed as the 5-1 favorite for the Tournament of Champions golf tournament here, April 26-29. Defending champion Gene Littler is the second choice at 6-1.

Dead line for Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Wilson Sporting Goods company has provided the vital statistics on Julius Boros, the world champion professional golfer who'll perform in an exhibition and clinic on Thursday, May 3, at Rogue Valley Country club. The Wilson dope came in a fancy publicity kit, a cardboard folder style after a plaid handbag and very convenient for filing.

Boros, who turned professional in 1949 after posting a 135 for the lowest qualifying score for the National Amateur tournament, is of Hungarian ancestry and was born at Fairfield, Conn. His home course is Mid-Pines Country club in North Carolina. The 200-pound, 5-foot, 11½-inch linksman's lowest competitive score has been a 65 in the 1951 Long Beach open. His lowest 72-hole score was 268 in the 1952 Texas open.

The Wilson shows 21 tournaments for Boros last year, 19 before he won the George S. Mays company sponsored World Championship tourney at Tam O'Shanter, Chicago. He tied for second in Bing Crosby tourney, tied for fourth in the Masters, knotted for fifth in the U.S. open and was fifth in the Western open. His big previous victories were in 1952 in the U.S. open and World Championship.

FEATHER IN CAP

The Medford Lions club should be congratulated in being able to bring the Jack Kramer tennis tour to Medford. Four of the world's top tennis stars will perform at Hedrick junior high school gym on the night of May 28. They are Pancho Gonzales, Tony Trabert, Pancho Segura and Rex Hartwig.

While Medford has never been especially noted as a "tennis town," valley residents probably will fill the gym to capacity in this, their first opportunity, to see the biggest names in the sport in action.

Not only is the mere signing of the tour a feather in the Lions club's cap, but Medford is the smallest city in which Kramer will take his tour this year.

Medford high school track and field men this season are performing their feats in shiny white new uniforms. They are attractive but somehow this writer is partial to the black jerseys and bright red trunks of previous years. The Tornado performers are not quite so easy to spot as they have been in past seasons. This department anticipates a suggestion—just watch the man who's out in front.

SHELDON MOVES HERE

Jim Sheldon, a top contender in a number of golf tournaments here, is now playing under the banner of the Rogue Valley Country club. Sheldon formerly played out of Salem. He's associated with General Credit service here.

CLUB SEEKS TRACKMEN

Operating again for this Olympic year is the Portland Track and Field club. It is seeking additional members and financial backing. Meets are planned on every week end although some are not finally scheduled.

Bill Sorsby of the squad writes that the club needs to get more young men out who are interested in taking part in track and raising its prestige in the Pacific northwest. Fellows throughout the state interested may contact Sorsby through the University of Oregon athletic department or may reach Deane Moore at 2020 Southwest 15th st., Portland.

Athletes in this area also are advised that they can show up at PTFC meets with equipment ready to participate. Meets include one with Oregon College of Education at Monmouth on April 21, one with the OSC Rooks at Corvallis and the north-west AAU track on May 26. Announcements of other meets will appear in daily newspapers, particularly papers in Portland. Sorsby points out that the group is non-profit and that funds are needed for equipment, travel expenses, shoes and uniforms.

LADY BOWLERS

Four women have bowled games of 250 or better this season at Medford Bowling lanes and six have bettered 600 in three-game series, according to Fred Anderson, proprietor of the lanes.

Dell Christenson recorded the top single game with 258 and Eleanor Lenz has a 257 to her credit. Mable Clark, who is high average bowler now with 174, has carded a 256 game and Pat Gardner has chalked up 254.

Mrs. Lenz has rolled 624 and 623 for top honors in the 600 group. Mrs. Clark with 619 and 602 is the only other lady knegler with a pair of 600s. Helen Culy has tabulated 618, Gerlie Riggs 610 and Rose Barr and Mrs. Christenson 602.

Mrs. Clark in compiling her high average leads in another department. She has run up 36 series of 525 or better. Mrs. Christenson has equalled or bettered 525 on 16 occasions. Vivian Knox 21, Mrs. Culy 13, Mrs. Riggs eight and Mrs. Barr nine.

Don Vannice, the losing tosser for the Cougars, yielded only one hit, and Jim Darland, throwing for St. Mary's allowed but two.

A dropped third strike got Laval Meunier on his way to the lone run in the fourth inning. He got to first base on the error, and to second and third on other miscues. Meunier scored on an outfield fly which was also dropped.

Gardener Doubles

Ron Pruitt struck the only hit for St. Mary's. Dave Gardener cracked a double and Keith Setzer a single for Prospect.

Vannice recorded 11 strikeouts and gave up five bases on balls. Darland whiffed nine and walked two.

Prospect was charged with eight errors and St. Mary's with a single miscue.

It was the second league win for the Crusaders and the first loss in two games for Prospect. Rogue River plays Jacksonville and Butte Falls meets Talent in other league scuffles today.
