

Princess Gives Luncheon For Miss Kelly and Parents

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent

Monaco — (U.P.) Prince Rainier III took a suddenly hat-conscious Grace Kelly on an auto drive through his tiny principality today. They wound up having lunch at his sister's villa across the border in France.

Princess Antoinette gave the luncheon attended by the two families, the Grimaldis of Monaco and the Kellys of the United States.

Dashing, in dark glasses and natty getup, the prince shunned a chauffeur and drove the Hollywood movie actress himself in his American limousine.

They swept out of Monaco in his green Chrysler sedan, accompanied by Miss Kelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelly Sr. of Philadelphia.

Wears Tiny Hat

Miss Kelly sat primly in the front seat beside the Prince. Her parents were in back.

The actress wore the tiniest of hats, a mere sprig of material that exposed her classic face. Apparently this was a concession to the grumbles here yesterday at the size of her arrival hat. That was a huge, downturned, platter-brim affair that almost hid her face.

The villa of Princess Antoinette, who is to be a witness at the wedding, is a large structure on the mountain slopes. Big windows overlook the sea beyond graceful gardens.

Spectacular View

Gardener Paul Monet patrolled the palms and plants of the garden to keep back photographers while Miss Kelly and her Prince lunched with their families.

This was Miss Kelly's first semi-private trip with Rainier. They rode together from the pier to the palace in a public motorcade when she arrived yesterday after disembarking from the S.S. Constitution which brought her from New York.

Until the marriage, Rainier has turned over apartments in the palace to his bride-to-be and her family. He took her to his sister's villa for lunch so she could enjoy the spectacular view of the Mediterranean.

Earlier, Miss Kelly had walked alone through the palace gardens in early morning mists, which were dissipated by bright sunshine just about the time Rainier showed up to take her to lunch.

The forecasters predicted unrelenting showers during the next five days before she marries Prince Rainier III.

Continuing wetness would wash out the gala series of outdoor celebrations leading up to Monaco's most spectacular wedding in seven centuries. That was the main dread.

Flag Missing

But at mid-morning on this day of romantic re-acquaintance the Prince's red and white royal standard still was missing from the barber-pole flagstaff atop his palace.

However the royal standard often is not displayed in rainy weather such as today's.

Rain pelted down on the principality most of the afternoon Thursday on Grace's day of arrival spring days on the Riviera are usually sunny.

This morning, light gray mist sifted down and clouds spread a heavy grey fuzz over the peaks rimming Rainier's domain.

Parents Withdraw

Thursday night was the first time Grace and the Prince had an opportunity to see each other alone. Their parents gracefully withdrew from the flood-lit palace and dined at the Hotel de Paris.

Skyrockets exploded over the world's richest yachts blazing with lights in the picture book harbor. It was an unscheduled display but it demonstrated the spirit of the happy principality.

The captain of the palace guard said the Prince and his bride-to-be went out for the evening. But he only shrugged his shoulders when asked where.

Pre-School Group To Hold Meeting

GOLD HILL Stolen Safe Found by Creek

By MRS. SAM ELLIOTT

Gold Hill — On April 8, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allen, Mr. and Mrs. John Wisley and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Evans and family, Central Point; Mrs. Geneva Clark and children, and Mrs. Verna Martin and family, Grants Pass, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith on Sardine creek to go prospecting.

Just below the Smith home, Allen saw something across the creek that looked like a safe. It was, and proved to be the safe stolen from the Greyhound bus depot in Grants Pass April 3.

Many important papers were found intact, plus a few pennies missed by the thief.

Richard Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker who has been home on a 13 day leave, is leaving today for Maryland for further training at the proving grounds there. Walker has just completed his basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif.

Vernon N. Fields, chief dispatcher for Southern Pacific, and his bride, Mrs. Alta Fields, Eugene, Mrs. Fields' two sisters, Mrs. Mattie Reed, Pasco, Wash., and Mrs. Lucy Gutleben, San Francisco, spent the week end with Mrs. Fields' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elliott.

The Fields met in Medford nearly 50 years ago after breaking their engagement in Creswell, Ore. They were married at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard of Medford in October, 1955. Mrs. Howard is Mrs. Field's sister and acted as chaperone preceding their marriage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fields were married twice before, and both had two children from their first marriage and acquired a stepdaughter by the second. Fields was agent in Gold Hill and Rogue River a long time ago.

Ralph Cupp, Oroville, Calif., is here for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. Merrett Davis.

Mrs. Myrtle Reel left Sunday in the company of her daughter and family, Mrs. William Holmbauch of Grants Pass, to welcome home Robert Middleton in Chico, Calif. Robert is the son of Mrs. Reel's youngest daughter, Mrs. Bert Middleton. Young Middleton has been in the U.S. Air Force for two years, and has just completed a year in Labrador. When his 30 day pass is up he will report to Camp Davis which is near Tucson, Ariz.

The Womens Society of the Methodist Community church is giving a ham dinner Saturday, April 14, for the public. The dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. in the church dining room.

Mrs. Gene Arias has been called to Cleveland, Ohio, by the news that her mother, Mrs. Tarok, is critically ill.

Mrs. Florence Livingston and Mrs. Olav Lockin spent a few days in Redmond, Ore., visiting with Mrs. Livingston's son, Victor Livingston, and family.

When they returned they brought back Kathy and Jackie, Mrs. Livingston's two grandchildren for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed McKay, former residents of Gold Hill, were involved in a car accident at the Redwood junction near Grants Pass, April 8. McKay was not injured, but Mrs. McKay is in the Josephine County hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Page of Sardine creek are active in veterans' affairs in the valley. Sunday they attended the VFW and auxiliary meeting for the installation of officers in Grants Pass. On April 9 they met at the Elks temple in Medford with the Veterans' Administration Volunteer Service group. Mrs. Page is a representative of the Military Order of Lady Bugs at Camp White.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held their last class on the study of American Indians. Mrs. Roy Eskew, in the role of teacher has made the subject interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowers spent the week end in Powers, Ore., with Mrs. Bower's mother, Mrs. Floyd McDonald.

Mrs. Johanna Wolleson of Los Angeles is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Jansen and family.

Mrs. Alice Hood, Medford, who has spent the last week with her son, Melford Hood and family, is leaving to spend a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Kelly, Central Point.
