

Orchestra to Give Concert At School Auditorium Today

Richard D. Werner will conduct the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon in the final concert of the season this afternoon at three o'clock in Medford Senior high school auditorium. The box office will open at 2 p.m. for ticket sales.

Richard D. Werner

Solost will be Sylvia DeVoss. Mrs. DeVoss will sing two groups of songs, one with orchestral accompaniment and the other with piano accompaniment by Bruno Pellegrini.

The orchestra's principal number will be Schubert's "Symphony No. 8 in B Minor" known as the "Unfinished Symphony." Also on the program are numbers by Mozart, Verdi and Bizet.

Before coming to Medford Mr. Werner played as a first violinist with numerous famous orchestras in New York, including the New York Symphony under Walter Damrosch; the Russian Symphony under Modest Aitshuler; the North Shore Symphony of Long Island under Conductor Cesare Sodero, once conductor of the Metropolitan Opera house, and the Ormandy orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy.

Mr. Werner has also composed extensively in various musical forms including the symphony, chamber music, opera and song. Mr. Pellegrini has worked as a colleague of Mr. Werner since 1945, serving as official accompanist and now as assistant conductor of the Philharmonic society.

Mr. Pellegrini studied piano in Trieste, Italy. His interest in music grew through playing in the opera houses in Italy, where he eventually became a coach for vocal work.

Later in New York he appeared as pianist with an orchestra over radio station WOR, of the Mutual chain, and filled numerous engagements as pianist with ensemble groups and as accompanist. At the same time he served exclusively as an operatic chorus coach.

Immediately following the concert, an orchestra supper party will be held in the Senior High school cafeteria for the musicians, the Society Guild members and their husbands.

Special guests for the concert and for the party will be Dr. Luigi Rebuzzini, Italian educator from Milan, Italy, and his interpreter, Leon Segal. Dr. Rebuzzini is in Medford for several days under the auspices of the State Department. He is acting as an exchange educator as sponsored by the governmental affairs institute.

Elected

Eugene—Miss Regina Hannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hannon, 705 West Tenth street, was elected second vice-president of Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary on the University of Oregon campus, at a meeting of the group held recently.

Miss Hannon, a graduate of St. Mary's school in Medford, is a junior in political science at the university.

Mrs. Scott V. Davis has been named Woman of the Year for 1956 by Medford Zonta club for her service to Girl Scouts, First Presbyterian church and the Medford Crusade. Mrs. Davis is seen (at right) receiving her award from Mrs. Ireen Grigsby, club member. —(Brainard photo)

Mrs. Scott Davis Receives Annual Award of Zonta Club

Medford Zonta club's 11th "Woman of the Year" is Mrs. Scott V. Davis. Mrs. Davis, given the award because of her work with the Girl Scouts in Medford and southern Oregon, with First Presbyterian church and the Medford Crusade, was honored at a banquet given by the women's service club at Mon Desir inn Thursday night.

She was presented a scroll and an arm bouquet of roses by Mrs. Ireen Grigsby, Zonta member.

Mrs. Davis has been a Girl Scout adult volunteer for 17 years. She has been a committee member, a finance chairman, and is a former commissioner for Region XI. She served as Medford staff and office chairman in 1947, worked in 1948 and '49 to promote the new Camp Low Echo at Lake o' Woods from 1949 to 1952 was regional committee member representing southern and eastern Oregon. For 1952-53 Mrs. Davis was second vice-president for the area, and from 1953 to 1956 was area staff and office chairman.

During this latter period Mrs. Davis is credited with an "outstanding job" in a troublesome period and during that time she personally promoted and supervised renovations and additions for the area Girl Scout headquarters in Medford.

The new Woman of the Year has just completed a three-year term as trustee for First Presbyterian church and during that time served as trustee on the house committee of the church. She is now on the church's committee for new church development.

Mrs. Davis was co-chairman for the United Medford Crusade last year and received an award for her outstanding efforts.

Miss Vera Humphey, now of Eugene, was the club's first Woman of the Year, receiving her award for Junior Red Cross work. Mrs. A. Orin Schenck was the second, her award having been based on her work as production chairman of Jackson county chapter, American Red Cross.

Mrs. George B. Canode received the award for her work "above the call of duty" as an elementary teacher and Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini was the award winner one year, having been honored for many years of service in instructing immigrants in citizenship classes.

Mrs. Justin B. Smith received the award for her work with American Association of University Women and League of Women Voters as an authority on international relations, and Mrs. Clarence Meeker, now national editor of Methodist Women, received the award for the field of Christian education.

The late Mrs. John Gribble was Woman of the Year because of her years of service in making Braille books for the blind, and Miss Hazel Swayne, Medford nurse, received the award in recognition of her service to crippled children and on the Medford Safety council.

Mrs. Henry Padgham received the award two years ago in recognition of her public health activities and last year the award went to Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, organizer and director of Junior Service league's kindergarten for deaf children. Several of these women were present and were given corsages and introduced.

Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, charter member and first president of Medford Zonta club, was introduced. Mrs. Ethel Tennant served as toastmistress and Mrs. Effie Kurtz, president, closed the meeting.

Decorations and appointments were in the club's colors.

Shower Given for Two Brides-Elect

A bridal shower was given at the home of Mrs. Ina Huson, 505 Summit street, Friday, April 6 which honored Mrs. Huson's two granddaughters, Miss Margaret L. Huson, and Miss Laura M. Huson, who are both to be married this summer. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel F. Huson, 45 Lindley avenue.

Miss Margaret L. Huson is engaged to wed Kenneth Brown of Medford, and Miss Laura M. Huson is the fiancée of Doug Wall, Seattle, Wash.

The evening was spent playing games and the brides-elect were presented gifts. They received the gifts at long table decorated with an umbrella centerpiece and daffodils. White wedding bells were arranged above the table.

Guests included their mother and Mrs. Orrin Brown, Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mrs. Charles Clemens, Mrs. Richard Phillips, Miss Dorelyn Huson, who presented her sisters each a bride's book; Mrs. R. John Laird, the honored guests and the hostess, Mrs. Ina Huson. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Laird and refreshments were served.

Chapter CG, PEO sisterhood, will meet Wednesday, April 18 at the home of Mrs. Stephen R. Mosher, 332 Ardmore avenue. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. Mrs. G. T. Hauptert will preside for a business meeting that afternoon.

Students to Wed In June Service

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bohnert, Seven Oaks farm, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marilyn Bohnert, to James F. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rice, Myrtle Creek.

Miss Bohnert, who is a graduate of Crater high school, is a senior at Oregon State college. She is a resident of Azalea house and is a member of Mu Beta Beta and Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary societies.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Myrtle Creek high school and is also a senior at Oregon State college. He is a past president of Theta Chi fraternity.

The wedding date has been set for June 7 at First Christian church.

Miss Bohnert is to return Monday to Corvallis after being in Chicago, Ill., for a week as a delegate to a national meeting of Delta Sigma Rho society, which is an honorary forensics society for outstanding speech students. She was selected at Oregon State college as one of two outstanding delegates to the session, which observed the 50th anniversary of the founding of the society.

Corporal Weds Tennessee Girl

News of interest here is the wedding March 3 of Miss Dorris Ellen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Moore, Springfield, Tenn., and Cpl. Douglas V. Peters, son of Mrs. Maxine Vincent, 326 Benson street. The ceremony was read at Springfield by the Rev. K. B. Slifer of the Nazarene church.

Corporal Peters in the meantime has been transferred to Germany with the 11th airborne division in operation gyroscope which is replacing the fifth infantry division in Europe. The bride plans to join him in mid-summer.

At the time of the wedding Corporal Peters was a typist clerk in Company M of the division, stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools.
