

Ducks Win Easily; OSC Shows Well

By UNITED PRESS
Oregon posted an easy win in a four-way track meet at Eugene Saturday but Oregon State had to be satisfied with a good showing and a 10 point deficit in its dual meet with Washington.

Oregon rolled up 62½ points to completely outdistance any competition in meet with Lewis and Clark, Portland Track and Field club and the Oregon Frosh. The nearest competitor to the Ducks were the frosh with a second place finish of 42½ points.

Six records fell despite cool cloudy weather at Corvallis Saturday as the Huskies scored a 70½ to 60½ win over Oregon State.

Larry Pulford, Washington sophomore, set new marks in two events, the discus and shot put.

Highlight of the Oregon meet was a two-mile time of 9:16.7, turned in by Jim Bailey. It was only the second time the transplanted Australian NCAA mile king has run the longer distance and his time ranks as the eighth best turned in by a collegian this year.

Teammate Bill Dellinger, scheduled for the two-mile grind, sat out the meet with a cold.

Jack Morris, ex-Medford high, won the 100-yard dash and low hurdles, for Oregon and Jack Moad, also ex-Medford, took the shot put for the Ducks.

SO Baseball Loop Reveals Expanded Slate for 1956

An extra game each week was added to the league schedule by directors of the Southern Oregon baseball league in a meeting held at Roseburg yesterday.

Dates of the extra game may be worked out at the discretion of the two teams involved, the directors ruled, but where the teams cannot agree on a date, the game will be played on a Friday night. The other two games in each home stand will be played on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Bill Askwith, business manager of the Medford Cheney Studs, indicated that he will seek to have all extra games here played on Saturday afternoon with the other two games to be Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Directors also approved starting times of 1:45 p.m. for afternoon games and 8 p.m. for night games.

Considerable discussion took place regarding speeding up games and President Hal Zurcher of Roseburg asked all business managers to instruct umpires to enforce a rule calling for five warm-up pitches between innings and eight warm-up pitches for relief pitchers, speeding players on and off the field between innings and speeding the pitchers to the batter's box when it is their turn at the plate.

Umpires also will be urged to limit the time used in arguments and to take appropriate action to discourage "gang bees" involving numerous players from each team.

The league schedule, with the extra game approved at the meeting yesterday scheduled for Friday nights, follows:

- June 15, 16, 17—Medford at Drain; Coquille at Coos Bay-North Bend; Bend, by.
- June 22, 23, 24—Bend at Medford; Drain at Coquille; Coos Bay-North Bend, by.

Major League Diamond Season Opens Tuesday

Ike To Toss First Ball at Washington

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York—(U.P.)—America's big and little people, a golfer named Ike and a few million guys named Joe, take time out Tuesday for the opening of the major league baseball season.

President Eisenhower, returning from a golfing vacation at Augusta, Ga., will throw out the ceremonial "first pitch" at Washington and upwards of a quarter-of-a-million fans will join him there and in seven other opening day games around the nation. A legion more will watch the openers on television, hear about them on their radios, or read about them in their newspapers.

Not the best baseball weather was promised by the forecasters. It will be cool in most places, clouds and showers will hang over some parks and in Boston there even was the possibility of snow flurries.

Nevertheless, it promised to be a gala day wherever games are played. Mr. Eisenhower after observing the first-pitch tossing tradition started by President Taft in 1910, will settle back to watch the pennant-defending New York Yankees play the last place Senators of 1955.

United Press Sports Writer
Manager Walter Alston of Brooklyn's world champions glumly conceded today that "we're hurrying for pitcher's" but hoped that he could get along with three starters during the early days of the season when there are open dates and postponed games.

For the present at least, he has only Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, and Roger Craig as bona fide starters, although he may press 19-year-old Don Drysdale into service. Moreover, both Newcombe and Erskine have had arm trouble, too, and through could weather, over-exertion, or other adversity join Billy Loes, Don Bessent, Karl Spooner, and Sandy Koufax in dry dock.

Naturally, the loss of lefty Johnny Podres to the Navy complicated matters even more. Fortunately, Alston is well supported with such reliable stars as Clem Labine, Ed Roebuck, and Jim Hughes but if they're called on to often, the whole staff might bog down.

The Yankees, like the Dodgers, have their injury troubles, too, even though both clubs are heavily favored to win their respective races again in the season beginning Tuesday. The Yankee pitching is okay but Gil McDougald, Irv Noren, Bob Cerv, and Elston Howard have been laid up most of the spring.

All teams were idle today except for the Giant who made a sentimental journey to West Point, N.Y., to play an exhibition against Army's Cadets—a tradition that started in the time of Manager John McGraw.

(Probable pitchers, weather, attendance, and starting times EST for Tuesday's major league baseball openers. Last year's win and loss records in parentheses.)

Two Score Double Wins In Olympic Tryouts
Portland—(U.P.)—Lee Allen of Portland and Del McGhee of Longview scored double victories in the Northwest regional Olympic wrestling tryouts at the Multnomah Athletic club here.

Allen won the 125½ pound Greco-Roman crown yesterday and McGhee topped the 147½ pound field. Saturday they had posted wins in free style titles.

Mitsy Tamura of Oregon City won the 114½ pound free-style title and was unopposed in the G-R action. Others earning the right to compete in the U.S. Olympic mat trials included Don Satchell of Portland State, Dave Newland of Eugene, Byron Nelson of Longview, and Lon Allen and George Coleman of Portland.

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Eddie Machen gets a chance to prove he is a big time boxer tonight when he meets morose, sixth-ranked Nino Valdes of Cuba in a 10-round, non-televized heavyweight bout at the Cow Palace.

Webfoot Links Team Tops Rogue Valley 23½ to 12½

Invasion of the Rogue Valley Country club by the University of Oregon varsity golf team over the week end resulted in a 23½ to 12½ victory for the Webfoots.

The Duck linksmen defeated the Medford squad 16 to 7½ in Nassau-scored individual matches Sunday. On Saturday in best ball partnership action Oregon had won 7 to 5.

Bob Prall, U of O, was the standout in Sunday scuffles. He stroked a one-over-par 73 in a 3 to 0 verdict over Harry Millett, Medford, who had a 78. The Webfoot had an eagle two on the par four No. 6 hole.

Norquist Has 76
Bob Norquist had the second best card for the Ducks with a 76 in a 3 to 0 win over Dr. D. C. Boals, who had an 80. Justin Smith Jr., recorded six birdies over 18 holes but still had just a 77 in his 3 to 0 decision over Iv-an Harrington. The RVCC team member had an 80.

Art Abrahamson and Mike Starling had the other Oregon victories, Abrahamson with a 78 won 3 to 0 from Bill Hartman, who had an 80. Starling beat Lee Flink also 3 to 0 with an 83 to Flink's 84.

Bob Rasmussen and Wendell Wissler posted 3 to 0 verdicts for Rogue Valley. Rasmussen (78) beat Don Bick (86) and Wendell Wissler (77) topped Chuck Huggins (78). Berry Ott, UO, (77), tied Jim Sheldon, Medford, (77) 1½ to 1½.

Wisconsin Mitt Champ

Madison, Wis.—(U.P.)—Ten college boxers shelved their newly won NCAA fist trophies today and looked forward hopefully to the Olympics next fall.

The 10 slugged their way to victory in the 19th national tournament here Saturday.

The school-boy champions won the right to take part in the U. S. Olympic tryouts, where 20 boxers will be chosen to represent the United States at Melbourne, Australia, this fall.

University of Wisconsin fighters dominate the list with five NCAA champions. The Badger boxers compiled a record-smashing 47 points in Saturday's tournament.

Idaho State, pre-tournament favorite, finished a distant second with 20 points.

The 1956 college champions are Dean Plemmons, Wisconsin, 112 pounds; Choken Maekawa, Michigan State, 119; Bobby Sol-leau, LSU, 125; Dick Rall, Washington State, 132; Dick Bartman, Wisconsin, 139; Gil McLane, LSU, 147; Vince Ferguson, Wisconsin, 156; Roger Rouse, Idaho State, 165; Orville Pitts, Wisconsin, 178; and Truman Sturdevant, Wisconsin, heavyweight.

Snead Takes Greensboro
Greensboro, N.C.—(U.P.)—Sam Snead, whose own opinion was "I played lousy," had a $2,200 check in his pocket from the Greater Greensboro Open Golf tournament today while other players wished they played as "lousy."

Snead won his sixth title here Sunday in the tournament which has come to be known among other pros as "Snead's Open."

About the only difference was that the mountain minstrel from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had to play 74 holes to win this time instead of the usual 72.

Hoosier Fred Wampler, who came from far back in the third round with a sensational 64 to take the lead Saturday, lost to Slamming Sammy on the second hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday.

Swarthy Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., finished third at 281. Veteran Jim Turnesa of Spring Valley, N.Y., came in fourth with 283.

Pat McMurtry Faces Jackson
Portland—(U.P.)—Pat McMurtry and Matt Jackson, two heavyweights with a reputation for knocking out opponents, clash here tomorrow night in a scheduled 10-rounder.

McMurtry, the Tacoma youngster, has 17 knockouts in 20 pro fights. Jackson has won 18 of 28 fights by the knockout route.

Tornado, Cavemen Vie In Baseball Tuesday

Grants Pass and Medford High school baseball squads will engage in a battle for lone hold second place in the Southern Oregon conference in a scuffle at the Medford diamond on Tuesday. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

The Black Tornado and the GP Cavemen each have two wins and two losses in the circuit. A victory for either would boost its chances in the tight chase for the pennant. Ashland, which hosts Klamath Falls Thursday in a doublebill, has the loop leadership now by one game over GP and Medford.

Duane Sides is the likely choice as starting twirler for Medford, while Larry Cochell, lefty sophomore, may get the Caveman call. Cochell pitched GP to victory last year in the play-off for the district laurels. Coach John Kovenz of Medford also has Henry Putney and Ernie Tyler to pick from. Other Caveman pitching possibilities are Jim Smith, Frank Thomas and Larry Mendenhall.

Possible Starters
Possible starters for Grants Pass in the infield are Pete Proctor, first base; Chuck Lasher, second base; Chuck Nevi, shortstop, and Allen Drews, third base. Jerry Christean may be the catcher with the outfield to be picked from among Walt McCurdy, Dennis Eckstein, Reno, Nev.—(U.P.)—Christian Pravda, former world's champion skier from Austria, won the Silver Dollar Ski derby yesterday with a perfect score of 200 points. Pravda, now an instructor at Sun Valley, Ida., won the giant slalom yesterday and the slalom on Saturday.

Butch McFarland, Arnold Slaven, Ray Hubbard and Cochell. Medford enters the Tuesday mix with a season record of three wins, one tie and three losses. Grants Pass has split series with Ashland, Klamath Falls and Roseburg and has trimmed Talent. Records of the two clubs indicate a toss-up Tuesday. Medford and Grants Pass meet again on Friday at GP.

The Tornado has earned itself the reputation of surprise club in the conference.

Crater High Thrashes IV Nine 17-3

Central Point — Crater high took advantage of 10 hits and 11 bases on balls in rolling up its runs and got five-hit pitching from freshman Wayne Allen Saturday in lacing Illinois Valley 17 to 3 at Cave Junction.

The win gave the Comets a 4 and 0 mark in the Rogue League strengthened their hold on the top spot.

Big inning for Crater was the fifth with seven runs on three singles, a triple, two walks and three errors.

Allen struck out five batters and walked just two. Neil Green hit three for four for the Comets and got one triple. John Shama got two for three and Campbell doubled for the Crater nine. One hit batter was recorded by Dan Sianaker, IV pitcher, along with 11 walks Crater received. The IV hurler whiffed four batters.

While the Comets have the loop lead, Eagle Point is favored to pull up close in tussles in games at Phoenix on Friday and against Phoenix at Eagle Point on Saturday. Crater has a non-loop mix with Grants Pass at Central Point this Saturday but no league tussles.

SCORE:
Crater..... 042 072 2—17 10 1
Illinois Valley..... 000 201 0—3 5 7
Allen and Laffer, Campbell (6); Sianaker, Burrows (7) and Seam.

MH Netters To Play GP
Medford High tennis players have their third match of the season Tuesday when they meet Grants Pass here starting at 2:30 p.m.

The Tornado will be without the services of Bob Schmidt, No. 3 man, who has the mumps. He also missed the Klamath Falls tussles here last Saturday and will be out a couple of weeks.

Klamath handed the less experienced Medford crew the first conference loss for the Black Tornado in four years. The Pelicans came here with seven matches behind them this season while Medford had played only one. The KF gang scored a 7 to 0 team win.

Swaps Sets New Record on Track
Hallandale, Fla.—(U.P.)—Swaps, his owners and his jockey are ready to take on Nashua again "anytime." But the meeting may be several months away.

The glistening chestnut colt's name went into horse racing's world record books Saturday for the second time when he posted a new mark for one mile and 70 yards by winning the $25,000 Broward Handicap at Gulfstream park in 1:39 3/5.

The way Swaps knocked two-fifths off the record left racing fans and his owners, Rex Ellsworth and trainer Mish Tenney, convinced the long-legged four-year-old is in the peak of condition.

BOBO RESTS
Santa Monica, Calif.—(U.P.)—Carl (Bobo) Olson planned to rest today and resume training Tuesday in preparation for his May 18 middleweight title bout with champion Ray Robinson. Olson sparred four rounds Sunday.

SHOT PUTTERS TO VIE
Lawrence, Kan.—(U.P.)—Parry O'Brien and Bill Nieder, the world's two top shot putters, are expected to clash Saturday at the Kansas Relays. O'Brien has an all-time record heave of 61 feet, 5¼ inches. Nieder of Kansas became the second man to better 60 feet when he did 60 feet, 3 inches Saturday during a dual meet.

All Coast Loop Clubs Split Sunday Frays

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press Sports Writer
Brutal injuries and bad attendance—two nightmares which make clubowners wake up and sweat-haunted the Pacific Coast League today with the season not yet a week old.

None of the ball clubs made any progress on the field or at the gate yesterday as every team split twin bills before a feeble turnout around the league of 20,474 paid. San Francisco led at the turnstiles with 7311, followed by San Diego with 5196, Los Angeles 4539 and Sacramento 3428.

Of course, the weather generally was dismal.

Hardest hit in the injury department were the Seals who lost southpaw pitcher Ted Bows-field indefinitely after the 21-year-old Canadian dislocated his right ankle heading into second base in the nightcap with Portland.

Fisher Spiked
There wasn't much joy in Sacramento, either, where right-handed pitcher Maurice Fisher of the Solons spiked himself in the right foreleg in a similar run on second base in the eighth inning of the first game.

Yesterday's parade of splits and splints left Vancouver, Seattle and San Francisco lunched in a three-way tie for first place. San Diego, Portland and Los Angeles are in a similar jam for second followed by Hollywood and Sacramento.

Mounties Fadd
For a few hectic innings, it seemed that Lefty O'Doul's Vancouver Mounties might finish the day on top of the league. They steamed to their third straight win by downing Los Angeles, 7-6, in an 11-inning opener that took four hours and six minutes to play. Outfielder Angelo Dargies broke it up with his fourth hit of the game, scoring old George Metkovich. But the Mounties went down, 4-3, in the second game when beefy Steve Bilko of the Angels clipped a game winning single in the home half of the last inning.

San Francisco downed Portland 6-2 in their chilly opener as Jerry Casale fireballed the first five innings to notch his first win of the year. Bill Slack checked Portland for the rest of the game when Casale was belted for a double to open the sixth. Bill Werle went the route for the defeat.

Beavers' Revenge
The Beavers won the second, 4-3, on four unearned runs. After Bowfield's mishap in the third inning, pitchers Eli Grba and Jack Osborn did the hurling but the loss remained Bowfield's. Bob Hall got the win although he was slugged for three runs in the last inning and had to give way to Ray Shero.

Hollywood and San Diego also divided their marbles. The Stars took the opener, 3-1.

John Carmichael blanked the Stars with four hits in the nightcap for a 6-0 win which assured the Pads of a split.

Seattle and Sacramento broke even as well. The Solons won the opener, 6-3. Vic Lombardi spun a five hitter in the short finale as the Suds won, 3-1.
