Quotes From the News

Washington—President Eisenhower on his veto of the farm bill: "I could not sign this bill into law because it was a bad bill. In the months ahead, it would hurt more farmers than it would help. In the long run, it would hurt all farmers."

Washington—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, on the farm bill veto: "Congress is not going to roll over and play dead at the crack of a whip."

Marine Hearings Will Be Continued

Parris Island, S.C.—(U.P.)—A Marine Corps spokesman said a court of inquiry will not complete its investigation of a night march that cost six lives until after tomorrow "at the earliest." The court held today its eighth consecutive day of hearings into the allegedly unauthorized march ordered by S/Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, 31, of Worcester, Mass., more than a week ago. Six of the recruits on the march were drowned in a tidal creek.

Capt. Ralph C. Wood, public information officer, said there was "absolutely nothing" to release about the hearings. Findings will be announced later in Washington, he said.

McKeon, whose platoon of trainees made the march, has been since confined to a brig for his mandatory presence at

Alsop Brothers Named for Award

Chicago—(U.P.)—Victor Cohn of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune will receive Sigma Delta Chi's annual Distinguished Service Award for general reporting, the professional journalism fraternity announced today.

Cohn, who also won the 1951 award, was included among award winners in 14 categories named by Mason R. Smith, national president of the fraternity. The annual awards, based on work done in 1955, were conferred on the 24th year.

Other winners included: Joseph and Stewart Alsop, New York Herald Tribune Syndicate, for Washington correspondence.

Winners will receive their awards May 15 at the fraternity's annual banquet in Chicago.

Soviet Police Ask Tighter Security

London—(U.P.)—Visiting Soviet police have asked Britain to issue "shoot to kill" orders in event of any threat to Nikita S. Krushchev and Nikolai Bulganin on their visit here, it was reported today.

There was no confirmation or denial of the request from official sources but a sudden wave of anti-Russian incidents made the report seem likely. British police traditionally are unarmed, but can carry pistols on certain assignments.

British police combed lists of known anti-Communist fanatics today in a grim effort to nip any assassination attempts against the Russian Communist Party chief and premier. They arrive by ship Wednesday.

Scotland Yard received assurances from leaders of 250,000 Iron Curtain refugees in Britain there would be no violence.

But it is the small percentage of extreme fanatics that has made both Britain and Russian officials clamp on the tightest security regulations in the island's history.

Officials voiced frank alarm at an attempt to burn down the Soviet Tass News Agency offices in Fleet st. and the paint splattering of the new Karl Marx monument in Highgate Cemetery Sunday night.

EXPENSIVE LIPSTICK

Munich, Germany—(U.P.)—Polish women pay $40 for a lipstick imported from the West, according to a refugee druggist. The druggist told Radio Free Europe that Polish-made lipsticks cost $1.40 but are of such poor quality that nobody wants them.
