

Glitter Set To Attend April Ball

New York—(U.P.)—Members of international society who aren't going to the wedding in Monaco will have a ball anyway—right here in little old New York.

The fifth annual "April in Paris Ball" at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel Friday night has attracted 1,000 members of the global glitter set who either weren't invited or didn't choose to attend the wedding of Prince Rainier III and Grace Kelly. For entertainment, luxury and names, it outdazzles any single function planned in Monaco.

Hardier socialites are burning up the airways to make an appearance at both functions. Hotel-man Conrad Hilton, personal representative of President Eisenhower at the Rainier-Grace nuptials, will be among those flying back to New York right after the cathedral ceremony Thursday to attend the $100-a-ticket ball.

Mr. Hilton will find more royalty and nobility at the April in Paris shindig than is scheduled to show in Monaco. One of the models for the collection of ball gowns contributed by top Parisian couturiers is Archduchess Marie-Illeana of Hapsburg, an imperial highness whose title tops Rainier's by two notches even though she works in an office for a living.

Mrs. William Paley, best dressed woman in the world, and four others who made the 1955 fashion honors list, will be on hand contending for the spotlight. They'll have plenty of competition from one of Europe's great beauties, the Vicomtesse de La Rosiere, who will wear a $1 million collection of diamonds on her black velvet evening hat.

The ball, which is sponsored by Cartier, Air France and Coty perfumes, will raise $100,000 for Franco-American charities. The French Duke of Brissac has arranged the donation of $50,000 worth of guest favors and door and raffle prizes by French industry. Each woman guest will get a year's supply of expensive perfume.

School Director To Attend Session; New Group Meets

Mrs. Ethel Tennant of Medford Nursery school will leave tonight for Portland to attend a northwest regional conference of the Child Welfare League of America. It will be held April 19-21.

Mrs. Tennant is a committee member of the Oregon Preschool association.

Mrs. Blanche Garcia, director of the Piedmont Play center, Oakland, Calif., will be a panel leader at the Portland meeting.

Members of the Medford Preschool association held the third meeting since organization April 14 at the Medford Nursery school. Resolutions concerning day care and kindergartens were drafted for consideration at the northwest regional conference.

Attending Saturday's meeting were Mrs. Maxine Vinson, Mrs. Don Wilcox, Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. Irma Ashby, Mrs. Robert Forbes, Mrs. Lester Harris and Mrs. Tennant, Medford; Mrs. Marcella Magruder, Ashland and Mrs. Edna Cunningham, Eagle Point.

Meeting Scheduled
Jolly Stitches club will meet Friday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Don Miller, 542 North Bartlett street. Dessert will be followed by cards.

Machine-Made Clothing Arouse Little Sentiment

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent

New York—(U.P.)—Machine made clothes make modern wardrobes the most extensive in history, yet historians of the future may have trouble assembling relics of our favorite mid-century costumes.

We are not as sentimental about assembly line fashions as our female ancestors were about their handmade Sunday best. They used to put away graduation dresses, plus the fans, hair ribbons, shoes and petticoats that went with them. We buy graduation dresses that double for summer dances.

Central Point PTA Elects Officers; Girls Plan Tea

Central Point—Officers were elected at the last meeting of Central Point Parent-Teacher association. Named to office were Mrs. Stanley Parrish, president; Mrs. Leo Ghelardi, first vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Monsey, secretary; Mrs. Leonard Kunzman, treasurer.

It was announced that girls of the eighth grade will entertain their mothers May 8 at a tea and style show under the direction of Mrs. Lorna Meyer. She will be assisted by members of the PTA.

The annual summer roundup will be held May 14 and 16. Parents of children entering the first grade next fall were urged to see that their children take advantage of this effort of a free physical examination.

C. A. Meyer, principal, reported that the open house held in March was an outstanding success, with more than 1,000 parents attending. It was recommended that money made through the sale of food that night be used to help buy curtains for the stage in the library.

The Rev. Norman K. Tully of First Presbyterian church, Central Point, spoke on "Youth." He stated that the idealistic qualities of youth should be encouraged, that idealism is above price and often is the difference between success and failure, or life and death. He urged that the home and school unite to develop manhood and to help produce a better humanity.

Mrs. O. T. Wilson, safety chairman, reported on numerous accidents in the vicinity of Central Point and urged that caution be exercised, both at home and on the highways.

Musical selections were given by Edythe Vlar, flutist, and Jeff Anhorn, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Anhorn.

Mrs. Chester Ashton, president, conducted the meeting and refreshments were served by mothers of children in the third grade.

Since canned cling peach halves are such a popular salad ingredient we're always on the lookout for new ways with the leftover syrup. Like this one. Try mixing it cup for cup with chilled ginger ale, adding a couple of tablespoons lemon juice. Makes a refreshing pick-up.

There are an estimated 250,000 highway bridges in the United States.

Chorus Honored At Coffee Hour; Concert Planned

The executive committee of Medford Council of Parent-Teachers associations and a group of parents from the PTA units honored the Mothersingers of the council with a coffee hour after a recent rehearsal of the chorus.

The Mothersingers are a group of PTA mothers from all city and outlying area schools, who come together each week because they like to sing. Mrs. LeRoy Jensen is directing the group and Mrs. H. Chandler Drews is accompanist.

The Council Mothersingers were heard over KMED and KYJC in a group of Christmas numbers during the holidays and have appeared twice before the council. At the last meeting, the group sang several numbers from the concert program which will be presented Sunday, April 29, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., in the cafeteria of Hedrick Junior High school.

The program will include both classical and modern numbers, and will provide a variety of arrangements full chorus, solo, duets and trio numbers. It is free and the public is invited to attend.

Annual Spring Dance Planned At Country Club

Rogue Valley Country club has planned the annual spring formal dinner for Saturday, April 21 in the theme, "Swing Into Spring." Chairmen of the committee are Dr. and Mrs. Billy Blackstone and Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Brophy.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 8 to 9 o'clock and dinner will be served buffet style from 9 o'clock until midnight. Dancing, with two orchestras, will be from 9 o'clock until 1:30 o'clock in the morning.

A number of committees will assist the chairmen. On the host committee are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mencke, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hupert and Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Turner, Ashland.

Dad's Club Head Names Committee

Corvallis—Harold White of Medford is one of 19 Oregon State college fathers appointed to four committees of the OSC Dads club by Ursel Narver of Portland, club president.

He has been named to the scholarship and awards committee.

Mr. White, 3654 Pacific highway south, Medford, has a daughter, Mary, attending OSC. She is a freshman majoring in elementary education.

Show Announced By Mann's Store

Mann's Department store has made plans for the second annual style show of Gloria Swanson designs termed "Conversation Pieces," and arranged by the Puritan Dress company. The store arranged a similar show last spring which met with much approval from women of the valley.

This year's style review will be held Monday, April 23, on the second floor of the store. Two shows are planned, one at 12 noon and the second at 3 p.m.

Medford is one of the few small cities where the show stops, it is stressed. Three models will appear, and each show lasts about an hour. All women of the valley are invited to attend.

Commentator will be Robert Collin, actor and clothes designer who has worked with Miss Swan-

Lions' Auxiliary To Participate In Phoenix Festival

Phoenix—Plans to take part in the annual Phoenix May festival were made at the monthly meeting of Phoenix Lions auxiliary held April 12 in the Kachina room. Mrs. Leonard Halfhill and Mrs. Roy Harnden were cohostesses for the meeting, and 19 members attended.

The festival will be held May 26, and various committees were named.

Two baked food sales are to be held by the auxiliary in Phoenix Saturday, April 28. One will be held at Ray's market, 104 South Main street, and the other at Triangle Food market at the north city limits of Phoenix.

son for a number of years. Last year's show had Countess Renee Sierra de Gorea as commentator.

New York—(U.P.)—The cheap cuts of beef can be turned into deluxe dishes. Spanish steak is an example. It used the less expensive cuts of flank steak.

Cut 1½ pounds of flank into 4 pieces. Pound to tenderize the tough fibers. Dredge in a mixture of 1/3 cup of flour, 1 teaspoon of salt and ¼ teaspoon of ground black pepper. Brown on both sides in 3 tablespoons of shortening or a piece of beef suet. Add ½ cup of chopped green pepper and 1 cup of sliced onion and saute. Add 2 cups of diced fresh tomatoes. Cover and cook 20 minutes, or until tender. Yield, 4 servings.

"Jim says I'm a gem!"

Jim can't get over how I manage to keep the house looking like a million and still have time for the many things I like to do. My secret is simply finding faster, easier ways to do my housework. Take my wood floors. I used to spend a full day scrubbing and waxing. Then plop into bed all worn out. Now I use Bruce Cleaning Wax and it's almost a snap. Bruce cleans and waxes in one easy operation. Takes me only half the time and effort. And my wood floors never looked better. Have you tried Bruce Cleaning Wax? You'll like it. So will your husband!

Incidentally, I've found other Bruce floor products help me, too. There's Bruce Floor Cleaner for cleaning and lighter waxing, Bruce Paste Wax, Bruce Asphalt Tile Cleaner, Bruce Asphalt Tile Self-Polishing Wax and the new Bruce Self-Polishing Wax. Yes, for floors it's Bruce!
