

Medford Woman Named to Office In PTA Congress

Eugene — (U.P.) — The Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers winds up its 43rd convention here today with two closing sessions scheduled.

A panel discussion with the subject "The influence of today's community on your child," was slated for this morning with the afternoon devoted to a high school student panel with the topic "Juvenile delinquency in today's community."

The convention held its banquet meeting last night at the close of the second day of activity.

During annual election Mrs. Joseph Edmiston of Milwaukie was elected treasurer. Regional vice-presidents elected included Mrs. James King, Sherwood; Mrs. L. E. Marschat, Salem; Mrs. L. O. Garrison, Lebanon; Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Medford; and Mrs. Ray Knudson, Prineville. Other major officers were not up for election.

Bridegroom Will Meet Truman Kin

Independence, Mo. — (U.P.) — Newsman Clifton Daniel Jr., arrived in Independence today from New York for his first meeting with many of the relatives of his bride-to-be, Miss Margaret Truman.

Daniel and the daughter of former President Truman will be married Saturday in Trinity Episcopal church here.

Father Patric Hutton, the 30-year-old rector of the church, disclosed Wednesday that it would be a single-ring ceremony. He said a private wedding rehearsal would be held in the church at 4 p.m. Friday.

Father Hutton said Miss Truman and Mr. Daniel were given Episcopal pre-marriage instructions in New York by the Rev. Arthur Kinsolving of St. James church. He said it has been standard practice of the Episcopal church for the last 10 years to provide such instructions.

Mr. Daniel will attend a family dinner of the Trumans tonight at the former President's home on Delaware street. He will meet many of Miss Truman's relatives for the first time at the dinner.

Father Hutton said that the bridegroom, like Mr. Truman, is a Baptist. Miss Truman and her mother, however, are Episcopalians, he said.

Scores of newsmen from New York, Washington, Chicago and St. Louis will be on hand for the wedding. Many of them were already in Independence today.

News photographers will be permitted to take pictures inside the church after the wedding ceremony, Father Hutton announced, but no pictures will be allowed during the ceremony.

Residents of Independence had little to say publicly about the marriage, telling newsmen they regarded it as "a private affair."

New York — (U.P.) — Margaret Truman recalled in her memoirs today that her father came upon her mother one day burning papers in the fireplace of their home in Independence.

"What are you doing, Bess?" asked former President Harry S. Truman.

"I'm burning your letters to me," mother said.

"Bess" said my father, "You oughtn't to do that."

"Why not?" my mother said. "I've read them several times."

"But think of history," my father said.

"I HAVE," said mother.

Home Economists To Hold Session

Latest developments in home economics will be explored at the Oregon Home Economics association annual convention at Gearhart April 20 to 22.

The program theme, "What's New in Home Economics," will be developed through exhibits of recent developments in electrical equipment, foods, fabrics and home furnishings.

Convention highlight will be naming of "Oregon's home economist of the year." Mrs. Alice Wieman of Portland and Mrs. Ava Milam Clark and Mrs. Frances Clinton both of Corvallis have been nominated for the honor.

Mrs. Wieman is a former home economics teacher and has been active in state and national home economics organizations for many years. Mrs. Clark was dean of home economics at Oregon State college for 33 years before her retirement in 1950. Miss Clinton is state leader of home economics extension for OSC.

"What's New in Foods Development, Merchandising and Buying in the Northwest," is the subject of a panel discussion Saturday morning, April 21. Panel members will be Eugene Lowe, Astoria retail grocer; Mrs. Emma States, home economist and advertising executive, Seattle; Kenneth Lenaburg, food processor, Mount Vernon, Wash.; Dr. H. W. Schultz, head of food technology at OSC; and Dorothy Sherrill, OSC consumer education specialist.

Main convention speaker is Dr. Camilla Anderson, psychiatrist at the University of Utah school of medicine. She will talk about emotional and mental health problems at the Saturday night banquet.

Jackson Group Meets Recently

Jackson school study group met at the home of Mrs. Maurice Ritchey, 412 Oak street, last week. Twelve members were present and two guests, Mrs. Richard Schuchard and Mrs. Howard Kennett from Roosevelt district.

Children's problems and their causes were discussed at the meeting and all interest parents were urged to attend an evening of questions and answers to be conducted April 27 at 8 p.m. at First Methodist church by Dr. Harry Danielson, Medford's first child psychiatrist.

Coffee and rolls were served and plans made for an outdoor potluck luncheon to be held Wednesday, May 2, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon in the garden of Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, 421 North columbus avenue.

Two Attend AAUW Meet In Corvallis

Mrs. Emerson Anderson and Mrs. Frances Willett, retiring president and new president of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, are in Corvallis to attend the annual convention of American Association of University Women in Oregon which opens today. Sessions continue through April 21.

About 110 delegates from Oregon's 29 branches are expected to attend the sessions. Mrs. R. Willard Duncan, Klamath Falls, is state president. Meetings are being held at the Memorial Union building.

Theme for the convention, "Challenging Today's College Women," will be illustrated in addresses by Judge Lucy Somerville Howorth, Washington, D.C.; Dr. A. L. Strand, president of OSC; Mrs. C. D. Winston, north pacific regional vice president and dean of women at Southern Oregon college, Ashland; Mrs. Gertrude Houk Farriss, national status of women chairman, Portland.

Highlight of the annual session will be reports from each of the 29 chapter presidents on projects of the past year and plans for 1956-57. Discussions also are planned on "Education for International Understanding" and on the state survey of child care and pre-school facilities made by AAUW.

Progress in the AAUW scholarship fund-raising program will be outlined. More than 3000 Oregon members are taking part in the program, which was established to help deserving women graduates complete advanced study.

National AAUW leaders will speak during the three-day meetings. Special guests will include Mrs. Paul Patterson, Salem, "Education Citizen of the Year," and Mrs. Marshall Dunham, Lakeview, "Oregon Mother of the Year."

Band to Play for Washington PTA

The Washington school band will entertain at a meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association to be held Friday, April 20, at 2:15 p.m. in the school gymnasium. The band will play under the direction of I. A. Mirick.

A report on findings of the dental survey will be made by Dr. Witter from the Oregon State Board of Health.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of pupils in the fifth grade. Child care and school-ground supervision will be provided.

Flax can be grown almost anywhere in North America.

Women's Class At YMCA Plans Soft Ball Games

Women's soft ball games are the latest addition to the YMCA women's morning gymnasium class. With warmer weather in view, the present members of the class have decided to spend one day a week on the soft ball diamond in Hawthorne park, with Don Day, YMCA physical director, as instructor. They will continue to play volleyball in the Y gymnasium the other day.

This Tuesday-Thursday class, which is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 12 each of those mornings, may develop into a soft ball class when the Y gym gets too warm for indoor games.

Anyone wanting to join the group, either for the soft ball alone or for the combination of soft ball and volleyball, should call the Y to register (phone 2-6295) or come to the Thursday class, according to Mr. Day.

Methodist Women Announce Session

"Fruits of Discipleship" is the theme of the Eugene district meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service to be held Friday, April 27, at Roseburg Methodist church. Registration will be at 9 a.m. with devotions at 9:30 a.m.

Reports from district officers, Wesleyan Service guild, executive and nomination committees, jurisdiction highlights, conference projects, a memorial to Mrs. Louise Bunch and Mrs. Everett Faber and installation of officers are on the program.

Marvin Pursinger, who attended the White House conference and who is a Ford Foundation student, will be guest speaker. His topic will be "The Responsibility of a Christian in Times of International Tension."

Luncheon will be served at noon and a nursery will be maintained during the session.

Boy Scouts

Talent Cub Scouts played ball again Saturday. In the first game Den 4 downed Den 2, 10 to 4. In the second game, Den 3 forfeited the game to Den 1 after the third inning because they did not have enough players.

Den 1 is undefeated in the series. The games are held at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, and parents are welcome.

Cub Scout Pack 44 will have a pack meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 19, in the Lone Pine school gymnasium.

Glee Club Entertains At Rotary Meeting

Medford High school Glee club men entertained Tuesday at Rotary club luncheon at the Jackson hotel. Allen Lehl directed. Miss Sonja Petersen accompanied.

The selections included spirituals and folk songs, as well as popular numbers. One, "Kentucky Babe," was directed by one of the students, Jerry McCulloch.

Anniversary Dance Of JCDC Set Today

Certificates of appreciation to the Disabled American Veterans, the Rogue Valley Ballroom and the Medford Musicians union will be presented at a dance at the ballroom at 9 p.m. today.

The dance will commemorate the anniversary of the purchase of the Jackson County Disaster Car, and proceeds will be used to purchase additional equipment. Bob Roberts' Melody Wranglers will provide music for dancing.

The ballroom was made available by the owners, and the dance is being sponsored by the DAV.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Watrud and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Coleman will be hosts at the dance. Watrud is president of the Disaster Car and Coleman is vice president.

Great Eads To Have Two Shows In County

The Great Eads, magician, will present two shows in Jackson county schools today and tomorrow.

He will be at the Prospect high school gymnasium starting at 8 p.m. today, and at the Griffin Creek school at 8 p.m. Friday, April 20.

Proceeds from the hour-long show at Prospect will be used by the school's visual education department, according to Kenneth Vannice of Prospect high school. Mrs. Myrna S. Frink, Griffin Creek school principal, said proceeds from the show there will be used to benefit the music class of the school.

Charles Jones Named Jaycee President

Charles Jones was elected president of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday. Other officers included Bill Kramer, first vice-president; Bob Bernardi, second vice-president; Cap Haggerty, secretary; and Glenn Jennings, treasurer.

Officers will be installed at a banquet at 7 p.m., Tuesday, May 1, at the Jackson hotel. Guest speaker will be former Oregon State Jaycee President Jack Lively of Springfield.

About 12 members of the local Jaycees plan to attend the annual Oregon State Jaycee convention in Astoria, May 11-13.

For a pudding pick-me-up, try a "topper" of sauteed coconut. Quick and easy to make, it adds a de luxe touch to the simplest dessert. Melt two tablespoons of butter in a saucepan over the direct flame of the top burner. Add 3/4 of a cup of shredded coconut and saute until golden brown, stirring constantly. Top any pudding and serve.
