

PTA Delegates Favor Sales Tax

Eugene (U.P.)—Voting delegates to the annual convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers here voted in an unofficial public opinion poll yesterday in favor of a sales tax for Oregon.

The delegates voted 226 to 19 in favor of a sales tax that would exclude food and seed and be earmarked for schools. They voted 125 to 71 in favor of a sales tax without the earmarking feature.

Delegates were also polled on state aid for school building construction and federal emergency aid for school buildings, approving both.

Officers of the Congress said the attendance of 1340 persons was the largest in its history for conventions held outside Portland. Delegates accepted the invitation to hold their next convention in Pendleton.

Daniel-Truman Rehearsal Set This Afternoon

By MARGARET RICHARDS
United Press Correspondent

Independence, Mo. — (U.P.)—Margaret Truman and Clifton Daniel rehearse their wedding ceremony today in the tiny Episcopal church where they will be married Saturday.

The daughter of former President Truman and her New York newspaperman fiancé planned for the rehearsal late this afternoon to take place behind closed doors in the church where Miss Truman's parents were married 37 years ago.

Both Miss Truman and Mr. Daniel have stayed within the privacy of the Truman home since his arrival by air from New York Thursday.

Was Overnight Guest
Mr. Daniel was an overnight guest in the Truman home. Earlier he met many of Miss Truman's relatives at an "informal family dinner" of fried chicken and frozen lemon pie. No newsmen or outsiders were admitted to the Truman home during the pre-wedding festivities.

They have said several times they want only a "small, quiet wedding."

The best man, Ted Marks, said he believed Margaret's wedding would follow almost the same quiet pattern as the one which joined Mr. and Mrs. Truman on June 28, 1919. He described that ceremony as a "very quiet, simple affair where not a lot of fuss was made."

The single-ring service to be performed at 5 p.m. (EST) Saturday, will follow the Episcopal Common Book of Prayer, which even prescribes the ways the hands are to be joined.

Just for the Women
Mr. Truman, who has talked several times with newsmen, has always refused to discuss his daughter's wedding with the statement, "That's for the women folks."

He was seen entering the back door of his home with two large boxes Thursday night, but would say only "they—the presents—are not for me."

Stack after stack of boxes have been brought to the picturesque old white home on Delaware street. One, it was learned, contained a plain silver fruit bowl from Battery D of the 129th Field Artillery Battalion. Mr. Truman's outfit in World War I.

District Meeting Held Here Today

Women from Congregational churches in southern Oregon and Northern California are in Medford today to attend a spring session of the Southern Oregon Congregational Women's fellowship. Morning and afternoon sessions are being held in Medford Congregational church, 300 Oakwood drive.

Main speaker is the Rev. Duane V. Wahn, who for the past 28 years has been working as a missionary among the Ovimbundu of Chilesso, Angola, West Africa. Also in Medford for the meeting are Mrs. F. L. Van Doozer, Portland, president of the Oregon Fellowship of Congregational Women; Mrs. M. O. Essig; Dr. Paul A. Davies, Portland, conference minister and superintendent and Mrs. T. J. Gordon, Portland, staff assistant.

The Rev. Mr. Wahn, states that the African church is rapidly coming of age and while not entirely through the adolescent stage, is now really running its own business.

"The Church is the center of life among the Ovimbundu as it was in early New England," says Mr. Wahn, whose major task during his latest term of service was as supervisor of industrial work and a liaison man between the Portuguese government officials, traders and the Mission.

His duties include, among others, the supervision of African workers, the cutting of timber in the woods, the securing and checking of necessary building supplies and a knowledge of building.

Attending today's meeting are women from churches in Medford, Klamath Falls and Ashland, Ore., and Etna and Callahan, Calif.

Posse and Troop To Be Guests in Josephine County

Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse and Ladies Mounted troop auxiliary, are invited to a social evening by Josephine County Mounted Sheriff's posse and auxiliary to be held at Grants Pass, Saturday, April 21 in the Fruitdale Grange hall. The hall is located one-half mile south of the Grants Pass bridge.

A dinner is to be served at 8 p.m. and 20 members of the local groups have made definite plans to attend, and others are expected to make the trip.

The local posse plans to assist the Josephine county group during the annual Josephine county fair.

Lizbergs Guests In Klamath Falls

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lizberg, 2117 Dellwood avenue, returned home Wednesday after being overnight guests in Klamath Falls of Dr. and Mrs. Neil Black. The group attended dinner Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, also at Klamath Falls, when birthday anniversaries of Dr. Black and Mrs. Brown were observed. Both couples visit in Medford frequently with the Lizbergs.

DAV Juniors

The Junior Disabled American Veterans auxiliary met Saturday at the home of Mrs. Harvey Cassman, Central Point. The Juniors furnished Easter candy for the Camp White wheel chair patients. The members made May baskets before the business meeting. Refreshments were served by Judy Guss and Gloria Thompson. The next meeting will be May 19.
