The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic
Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

Tingling of Numb Legs

Persons asked what they should do when their legs tingle or feel numb or weak. They should go immediately to a good physican and have their blood tested to make sure that they are not developing what we doctors call a primary or pernicious form of anemia. Such persons can usually be tremendously helped, almost over-night, by injections of vitamin B-12. These persons often tell me that they know of a relative who died years ago of anemia. Often my patient turned gray early—perhaps in her 20s or 30s. In case of doubt, I pump the stomach and test the gastric contents for hydrochloric acid. If the person has no acid in his stomach and very little juice, he may well be a candidate for a primary anemia. If he has plenty of gastric juice he is not likely ever to get a bad anemia, even if there is the tendency to this running in the family.

A Free Hospital

According to Andrew Hamilton, writing in Coronet (February 1956) there is a $10,000,000 hospital in Duarte, Calif., supported by private donations, where "no one has paid a cent." Only the well-to-do and those with hopeless cancer are turned away.

Sleeping Hours Said More Than TV Time

Chicago (U.P.)— The National Association of Bedding Manufacturers says Americans spend more time sleeping than watching television.

According to a recent survey, 33,500,000 TV families in the United States now spend about 2,300,000 man-hours per week watching TV.

This is more than the amount of time devoted to earning a living in the same households — 1,900,000,000 man-hours.

But it is considerbly less than the number of hours spent in slumber .

Assuming that the people in these homes get the recommended eight hours of sleep nightly, this adds up to 6,500,000,000 hours weekly.

P.S. The figures didn't show how many people fell asleep watching TV.

Illiterate Drivers To Receive Training

Muskegon, Mich. — (U.P.) — Michigan's first training program for illiterate drivers has started here.

"This is not a plan to get illiterate persons on the highways," said Municipal Judge William T. Caughey. "They are already there and will be driving anyway, with or without a license."

"Those who are unable to pass driver license tests do not sell their cars. They just keep on driving and fines assessed them for failure to have a license have not proved the answer to the problem. Most of these people want a license and will get one if we can make it possible for them to pass the test."

The course is designed to familiarize persons who can't read or write with traffic rules and standard traffic signs. Emphasis also is placed on warning signs which a driver would run across less frequently.

World Tour To Give Credit at College

Whitewater, Wis. —(U.P.)—Students with wanderlust will get another break this year at White-Water State college. The school will conduct a world tour for credit.

Prof. Clay J. Daggett said that 26 persons already had signed for the trip and that only 55 can be taken aboard the chartered plane. The tour, which costs $1,700, will include stops at Newfoundland, Portugal, Spain, North Africa, Greece, Egypt, Israel, Iran, Pakistan, Indian, Thailand, the Philippines, Hong Kong, Japan and Hawaii.

Students can earn two or six credits on the trip.

45 Ministers Rebuild Tornado-Wrecked Church

Udall, Kan.—(U.P.)—Forty-five ministers of the Church of Nazarene have rebuilt the Nazarene church here which was destroyed in a 1953 tornado.

The ministers put up siding, nailed down shingles and laid flooring. Some of them are over 60 years of age, and some traveled more than 150 miles to aid in the work.

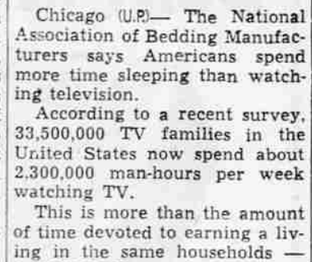
Man, 101, Files for American Citizenship

East Paterson, N. J. — (U.P.) — Jacob Kaminsky got around to filing for U. S. citizenship papers recently. Kaminsky, who came to the United States 73 years ago, is 101 years old.

He said he "just kept putting it off," but that his son, Major Joel Levinstein, persuaded him to file the papers while home on leave from Europe.



It is estimated that smokers will spend five and a half billion dollars on tobacco this year.

This doesn't even count the two billion dollars worth of cigarettes some smokers will bum from other smokers.

OPEN LETTER — Law student Irwin Luck Jr., 18, of Miami, Fla., believes in doing things in a big way. He rented this billboard at the busy New York corner of Eighth-av and 42ndst for $850 for a month to attract the attention of Singer Perry Como. The letter asks the chance to meet Como and audition a Luck musical composition. A representative of Como said that if Luck's songs are any good, Como will give them consideration.

Cockroaches Found in House No Disgrace

Ithica, N. Y. —(U.P.)— There's no disgrace in finding cockroaches in the house; it's in letting them remain.

The greatest hindrance to getting rid of these pests is the shame felt by people who are plagued by them and their hesitation to seek help, said Prof. Ray R. Kriner, Cornell entomologist.

Chlordane and dieldrin are the most effective insecticides for control of roaches, he said, but they are dangerous and are recommended for spot treatment only.

To prevent a roach invasion, Kriner explained, housewives should keep a close watch on baskets, bags and boxes that are brought into the home. Also, it is important to fill cracks in walls and baseboards.

Newspaper Advertising In February Shows Gain

New York— (U.P.) —National advertising in newspapers in February gained 23 per cent over the same month last year and 4 per cent over January of this year, Printers Ink reported today.

Newspapers also led all media in percentage gain over February of 1955, the magazine said.
