

Unander Discusses State GOP Party At Club Luncheon

State Treasurer Sig Unander discussed the Republican party in Oregon at a noon meeting Thursday of the Jackson County Young Republican club. President Winston Carl was in charge and Robert Elliott introduced Unander.

Declaring that future candidates and party leadership must come through Young Republicans, the treasurer said the present "immense growth" in this area poses a problem of developing the party, with Young Republicans as the "major source of strength."

He cautioned the group that the approximately 850,000 registered Republicans in Oregon are not the great majority of voters and that a 2,500-voter shift would change the election picture.

Continued dominance of the Republican party is necessary,

Grange News

Eagle Point Grange
Eagle Point Grange met Tuesday evening, April 17. All officers were present but one. Mr. Edsel substituted for Holly Swingle on the executive committee. The hall was decorated with baskets of spring flowers, arranged by Mrs. Augusta Perry and Mrs. Gertrude Stanley.

Master Mabel Wertz gave the first and second degree obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bartholomew.

Cliff Moore reported on the progress of the rural fire district, saying that many expressed approval. He also said officers of Central Point fire district have indicated a willingness to have the rural district of Eagle Point annexed to the Central Point district. Further information about this will be given at next Grange meeting. No action was taken at this time.

Earl Jossy gave an illustrated talk on the value of rotating pastures for dairy herds, showing how it increased the milk supply, and kept it high.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hubbell accepted, when voted for, to be alternate delegates to State Grange convention.

A motion to instruct the delegates to attend Grange Convention "with an open mind in regard to the sales tax question" was laid on the table "until next meeting." This was in order to give members a chance to express their opinions on the matter.

Two Scholarships were sponsored to 4-H summer camp, as has been the custom in past years.

The H.E.C. had a variety program of stunts and songs. Our favorite old-time fiddler, Ed Cowden, (85 1/2 years young) made music on his violin.

On the display table were miniatures made of wood, of unusual types and designs. A covered wagon, spinning-wheel, leave-note boxes, to name only a few.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McCorkle and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hale served the refreshments, of angel food cake with strawberry-whipped cream topping.

Next meeting, May 1, the men are to furnish and serve the refreshments to the ladies in honor of Mother's Day.

For display, Mrs. Stanley asks all to bring a picture of their mother.

Live Oak Grange
Following the opening seating drill at the regular meeting April 12 of Live Oak Grange, Master Melvin Lattie of Phoenix Grange was escorted to the master's station.

The agricultural committee reported a decline in the poultry market, hog prices advanced from $15 to $18 and beef prices also slightly higher.

Foster Luce, Grange representative to the water resources committee, gave a report on the meeting he attended.

Belle Hart was elected and installed as secretary, replacing Ruth Drumm, who resigned. Jessie Frantz was delegated to attend a meeting of Jackson County Chamber of Commerce committee to consider resumption of passenger service on the Southern Pacific in this area.

During the lecture hour, Melvin Lattie gave a report on the findings of the committee which investigated the sharp increase of taxes in Jackson county.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hoffman showed pictures of the island of Guam which they took during Hoffman's seven year tenure as a diesel construction engineer. Cake and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Streitz and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brooks.
