

34th Anniversary Rites at Nazarene Set for Sunday

Members of First Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts., will commemorate the 34th anniversary of the organization of the local church Sunday, April 22, in Sunday school and morning worship services. The first pastor of the church, the Rev. C. M. King and Mrs. King participate in the celebration and give impressions from the early days of the church.

Charter members of the church will be honored and it is expected that others who attended during the first year will be present.

The Gospel Hour quartets will present a sacred concert beginning at 10:40 a.m., at the close of Sunday school.

The church has supported its own radio program for 12 years. The Gospel hour has been heard on KMED for many years at 9 a.m., Sundays. The singers will include the mixed quartet and a male quartet heard regularly on the weekly radio broadcast.

Also Sunday will be the final day of the church year for the Nazarenes in the Oregon-Pacific district. All record books will be closed after Sunday and an annual meeting will be conducted Wednesday, April 25, when trustees and stewards, and other officers, will be elected to serve for the next year. The pastor, the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, said today that, "The church is finishing one of the most outstanding years in its history."

National CA Day Observance Set

The young people of the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., known as the Christ's ambassadors, will join with 86,000 other Assemblies of God youth of the United States in observance of the 10th National CA Day, Sunday, April 22.

The Sunday service at 7:30 p.m. will feature members of the local CA group, led by president Dolores Leslie. Emphasis will be placed on position of youth in the church and their importance as future leaders. The pastor, the Rev. Weldon Colbough, will conclude the service on the topic "The Word is Sharp."

Officers in addition to the president are, Donald Strong, vice-president; Margie Strader, secretary; and Hazel Hanson, treasurer. The Rev. and Mrs. Colbough are advisers to the group.

At the service at 11 a.m. John Bollinger, representing the Gideon's organization, will be the speaker at the church.

Further emphasis will be given during the Sunday school period on loyalty to Sunday school. The theme for the day is "Steadfast in Communion." Each department of the school will feature this theme.

California Speaker To Be Here Tuesday

Ralph Castle, Belvedere, Calif., will give a public lecture Tuesday, April 24, on the power of God to heal, according to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Medford.

A member of The Christian Science board of lecturership, Mr. Castle will speak in the Senior High school auditorium at 8 p.m., on the subject, "Christian Science: The Law Governing True Self-Expression." The public is invited without charge.

Spring Sing Contest Scheduled at SOC

Ashland—Southern Oregon college's annual Spring Sing will be held Saturday, April 21, as a part of the high school visitation Senior Weekend activities. Judy Hall, Jacksonville, and Art Schmidt, Ashland, are co-chairmen of the event.

The Spring Sing is a contest for various organizations on campus. Awards are presented to winners in each of two classifications. They are conventional all songs which, in content and performance, are serious, classical, sacred, or traditional; and novelty—all songs which, in content and performance, are comical, popular, modern, or "barbershop."

'Cost Of Living' To Be Sermon Topic At Eastwood Church

"The High Cost of Living" will be the title of the pastor's sermon at the Sunday morning service at Eastwood Baptist church, north Keene way at Ridgeway dr. This will be third in a series of sermons dealing with the theme of "Christian Growth." Music will be featured during the service. Nursery care is provided.

"David—Man of Courage" will be the title of the message at the service at 7:30 p.m., also third in a series of sermons. The general title is, "A Gallery of Great Souls," concerning some of the great men of the Old Testament.

The Eastwood Baptist Church is an American Baptist church cooperating with the American Baptist convention. An invitation is extended to all interested.

Friends To View 'God Is Landlord' Film on Sunday

"God Is My Landlord," a colorful film, will be shown at the Friends church Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The picture depicts experiments of Perry Hayden, the "Quaker miller" of Tecumseh, Mich., who planted a cubic inch of wheat in 1940 that grew in six years to cover 2,666 acres of land.

His experience in tithing the crop each year so interested the late Henry Ford that he furnished the land and the equipment for harvesting the wheat, saying "This will go around the world." Both Henry Ford and Perry Hayden are key figures in the film, which was taken over a six-year period. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Worship services will be held at 9:45 and 11 a.m., with messages by pastor, Clayton Crisman, and music by adult and youth choirs. Sunday school will be at 9:45 a.m., and at 11 a.m., for young people. The three Christian Endeavor societies are having attendance contests and invite grade and high school boys and girls to come at 6:30 p.m.

'Get Acquainted' Meeting Planned At Central Point

Central Point—Parents of nursery and kindergarten children attending the Central Point Presbyterian church, and those on the Cradle Roll, will meet informally Sunday, April 22, from 5 to 7 p.m., for a "get acquainted" session with the teachers, the children and each other, at the church.

This is the second in a series to aid in a better understanding of the materials used in the church school and how they can be used effectively in the home.

The first meeting was for Juniors, and under direction of Mrs. Merrill Harsh, was well attended. On April 29, members of the Junior high and Senior classes and their parents will be welcomed, and on May 6, parents and children of the Primary department will meet. Dr. N. K. Tully is the pastor.

Loyalty Sunday Rites Planned

Loyalty Sunday will be observed at the First Methodist church Sunday, April 22. Copies of the church budget have been mailed to all members and friends of the church, according to officials. Dr. Raymond Balcomb's sermon will be, "Take What You Want—And Pay For It." The anthem at the 9:30 a.m. service will be sung by the Youth choir under direction of Mrs. George Sloniger. At the 11 a.m. service songs will be furnished by the Chancel choir under direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson.

Child Chooses Tracks For Rest; Train Stops

Chicago—(U.P.)—Peggy Gallagher, 2, chose the tracks of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad as a good place to sit down and take a rest Tuesday.

Engineer Howard Yarbrough saw her just in time and brought his train to a screeching stop "inches" away from the girl.

A South Dakota survey shows that farmers plant 11 weed seeds in every square foot of land they plant to food crops.

Temple Baptists Hosts for Rally; Speakers Listed

Medford has been chosen by Southern Baptist of the Northwest as one of the 30 cities in Oregon, Washington and western Canada in which to conduct one of a series of Victory rallies which, together, constitute a campaign to bring the impact of their national program to as many individuals as possible. Southern Baptists, who now have 30,377 cooperating churches and 8,474,741 members throughout 40 states, have developed a denominational program of Christian missions and education that works through its local churches to fill the needs of the individual. These rallies will explain the program to the people who benefit from it.

Rally Tuesday
The Medford rally will be held in the Temple Baptist church, Tuesday April 24 at 7:30 p.m. The speakers will be Robert N. Dove, associate in the convention's department of religious education, and James Forest, pastor, First Baptist church, Longview, Wash. Mr. Dove will emphasize the work of the Training union, and Mr. Frost will follow with a stewardship address. The Rev. Floyd Yeats is pastor of the host church.

This meeting will draw attendance from an area including Tululeke, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, and Canyonville, and is open to the public.

First Christians Hold Observances

First Christian church is observing Family month and the school of missions during April. At 6 p.m., each Sunday a study group has been conducted for each age level. The study this year is on the American Indians.

At 7 p.m. a program is held for the entire group. Sunday night a full length film "People Without Fear" will be shown. The evenings close with a social hour and refreshments. All members and friends of the church are invited.

Congregationalists Announce Program

At the Congregational church Sunday the Rev. Thomas McCamant will speak on "What Is Christian Work?" An anthem will be sung by the choir and a solo furnished by Mrs. Ellen Meek.

At 7:30 p.m., the Couples club will meet at the Sunday school building with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norris and Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Smith as hosts. The meeting will mark the first birthday of the organization. All interested couples are invited.

Idea
An idea may be good or bad, right or wrong. Most people have the wrong idea about religion. The Bible declares, "There is a way which seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Prov. 14:12). Why not get the Scriptural idea this Sunday?
