Gene Fuller Opposes Jones

Cleveland—(U.P.)—Two mid-dleweights with aggressive styles and high aspirations clash to- night in a nationally televised and broadcast 10-round bout.

Gene Fuller of West Jour- dan, Utah, and Ralph Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., had the odds- makers in a tizzy during their final training periods here. The money, 6-5 on Fuller up to Wednesday, gradually slipped to the same price on Jones the next day, and was expected to fluctuate right through the playing of the National anthem.

Jones, 28, is fresh from a victory over European middle- weight champion Charles Hu- mez of France. Earlier he beat Sugar Ray Robinson. Fuller, 23, has a 34-3 professional re- cord. Jones is ranked No. 5 in contention for the crown. Full- mer is ranked seventh. Neither is rated a knockout puncher, but neither ever has been knock- ed out.

Portland Pilots Tip Pacific Badgers 3-1

Portland—(U.P.)—Portland Uni- versity, behind the four-hit pitching of lefty Lenny Brooks, downed Pacific 3-1 in a baseball game here yesterday.

Facilities at the firm's Port Arthur, Tex., refinery were crowded so it was decided to experiment with the Sour Lake salt dome.

Athletes at Alabama End Walkout After Agreement

Tuscaloosa, Ala. — (U.P.) — Ninety-two rebellious University of Alabama athletes ended their walkout from their rent-free dormitory today after a compromise on their demands for more liberal training regula- tions.

The plays and Athletic Di- rector Hank Crisp came to terms at a meeting Thursday afternoon. "We're all happy now," Crisp said. "It's all over." He also released a joint statement call- ing the furor a "misunderstand- ing."

The athletes, all on standard Southeastern Conference scholarships, walked out Tuesday night and threatened never to return if coaches did not stop treating them like "children."

Reversion
The compromise, which ended a threat to the sports program, was actually a reversion to old training regulations set down by players some four years ago.

The revolt, long smoldering, was hastened Monday when coaches announced stricter rules following an automobile wreck early Sunday in which five play- ers were involved. The accident occurred at 3 a.m. when the men should have been in bed.

Pads Take PCL Lead; Angels Club Portland

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

The San Diego Padres took the Pacific Coast league lead away from Seattle last night and the Rainiers headed for Bordertown to see what they can do about getting it back.

The Pads parlayed a 4-1 vic- tory over Vancouver and a 5-2 San Francisco win over Seattle into a half game lead as the teams switched partners in mid- week.

In other games yesterday Los Angeles clobbered Portland 11-5 and Sacramento swept its three- game series with Hollywood by winning 7-4.

Pete Mesa pitched the Padres into the top spot by stopping the Mounties with five hits as he won his second game of the young season. Mesa tired, how- ever, in the ninth and Allen Get- tel put out the fire. George Bamberger was the victim of the nine-hit Padre attack.

Russ Kemmerer of San Fran- cisco matched Mesa's record by getting his second of the season without defeat at the expense of Seattle. Kemmerer held the defending champions to six hits and clouted a home run over the left field fence to tie the score at 2-2 in the fourth after Joe Taylor had lofted one of Kem- merer's pitches over the same fence earlier to put Seattle ahead. It was the third homer in two days for Taylor and his fourth of the season.

Elmer Singleton took the loss for the Rainiers.

Hollywood's Curt Raydon pitched splendidly for six in- nings against Sacramento and then came apart at the seams. Raydon had a no-hitter and five strikeouts for the first six frames, but came to a bad end in the seventh.

Al Heist got a bloop single off Raydon to open the seventh and then the Solons batted around against four Star pitch- ers with Heist also contributing a two-run double. Before the side was out Sacramento had seven runs and the ball game.

The Sacs got only a total of five hits, but sandwiched them around three walks, an infield out and a sacrifice fly to mount their big offensive.

Joe Stanka was the winner.

Los Angeles pitcher Harry Perkowski also proved handy with the bat as he slammed a bases-empty home run against Portland and held on for his second win against a defeat.

A four-run uprising by the Angels in the third and a six- run surge in the sixth made Per- kowski's work easier.

Ed Mickelson homered for Portland and big Steve Bilko slammed a three-run homer for Los Angeles in the third.

Young LeRoy Han, making his first start for Portland took the loss. He was wild and walk- ed four men during the four in- nings he worked on the mound. He also was behind the hitter often.

McElhenny Recovering From Surgery on Foot
Santa Monica, Calif.—(U.P.)—Hugh McElhenny, star halfback of the San Francisco 49ers, to- day recovered from an operation to remove scar tissue on his left foot.

Dr. Daniel H. Leventhal said yesterday after the operation in St. Johns hospital that the pro- griddler would be "better than he ever has been" as a result of the surgery. McElhenny's play- ing has been hampered by pain caused by the tissue on an old cut on his foot.

The football players will re- main in the hospital for several days and be on crutches about a week.

Ashlanders Get Pair From Pels

Medford and Grants Pass High's battled this afternoon in a Southern Oregon Confer- ence baseball fracas at Grants Pass. The Tornado of Medford was attempting to regain a tie for second in the circuit and the GP Cavemen sought to bolster their hold on the sec- ond spot.

Ashland—U.P.—Ashland won a high school baseball double- header from Klamath Falls yes- terday, taking one game 13-11 and the other by forfeit.

Klamath Falls lost the first game when umpire Virg Swans- on ordered Klamath Coach Ray Coley from the game for pro- testing a decision. Swanson or- dered the forfeit when Coley re- fused to leave the field.

Portland Track To Begin 10th Year on May 5

Portland — Portland Meadows opens its 10th year of hor- se-racing Saturday, May 5, for a 45-day and night spring meet- ing and closes Saturday July 7. This also is the first race meeting to be held in the Northwest.

Racing Secretary Jimmy Woodward has already hung out the S R O sign as all available stall space have been allotted.

William P. Kyne the "father" of racing in California, and general manager of the Portland Meadows plant, has announced a substantial increase in "jock- ey fees" to be in effect as of June 8, and continuing through- out the remainder of the meet- ing. The new schedule will be $55 for a winning mount, $25 for second, $30 for third and $35 fourth money, as compared to the previous scale of $35 for first place, $20 for second and $15, for both third and fourth places.

Other noted improvements be- ing made for the convenience of patrons at this popular race course is the installation of four screens measuring 30 by 40 inches each, and located in areas throughout the grand- stand, mezzanine, club house and the turf club. The picture, an enlargement of a 70-millim- eter film, will be shown after each photo finish race.
