Catholic Church Ceremony Marries Medford Couple

A nuptial mass at Sacred Heart church Saturday, April 14, wedded Miss Evelyn Laurene Harrison and William O. Harrison, 3360 Lone Pine road, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Frank E. Harden, 44 North Peach street, and the late Mr. Harden.

The Rev. Nicholas Deis read the marriage ceremony at 9 o'clock in the morning with about 75 guests attending. A reception followed in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

The bride's gown, designed and made by her mother, was of lace over bridal satin, with the lace cut away in scallops to reveal the front skirt and with back folds of lace covering the train. She carried a white orchid encircled with white carnations. Mr. Harrison escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. James Messer, matron-of-honor, wore a pink taffeta gown and the bridesmaids, the Misses Carol Van Ausdall and Sharon Lilly, were gowned in orchid taffeta frocks. Their colonial bouquets were of violets and pink carnations and their headresses were of pink carnations.

John Murphy was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Neal Murphy and Richard Coates.

Bruno Pellegrini was at the church organ. Baskets of white stock and pink carnations were on the church altar, and pink carnations arranged with peach bloom and white blossoms decorated the reception tables.

Mrs. Vernon R. Bacon, Mrs. Milton D. Erickson and Mrs. Carl Jantzer served the cake, coffee and punch. Miss Helen McDonald took charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a print dress with beige coat and white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a print suit with navy coat and white rosebud corsages.

The newly-wedded pair made a wedding trip to San Francisco and are at home at 518 West Sixth street, Apt. 2. The bride, who attended Sacred Heart High school in Los Angeles, is on the staff of Southern Oregon Title company. Mr. Harden, a graduate of St. Mary's school in Medford, is with the California Oregon Power company.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Harrison, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belli, Gardena, Calif., all four grandparents of the bride; and Albert A. Goode, Los Angeles, godfather of the bride.

Doctor and Wife Guests of Durnos

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Hurxthal of Boston, Mass., are guests in Medford of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Durno, 222 Valley View drive. Dr. Hurxthal, chief of medicine for the noted Lahey clinic in Boston, traveled west to give a paper before a meeting of medical men in San Francisco.

Miss Burroughs is a junior student at Medford Senior high school and her fiance is employed by his father.

The Community Bible church at Central Point, will be scene of the wedding rites.

Miss Carol Carter Becomes Bride of Harvey Boardman

Miss Carol Carter became the bride of Harvey Boardman in a ceremony held April 15 at First Methodist church. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated for the double ring service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carter Jr., 1325 Vawter road, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Alberta Boardman, 726 West Fourth street.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of bridal satin designed with tulle and embroidered lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

Three sisters of the bride and a sister of the bridegroom were attendants. They are Miss Judy Ann Carter, Miss Beverly Carter, Miss Patricia Carter and Miss Sue Boardman. They wore gowns of pastel crystalline and carried nosegays of pastel carnations.

Jack Boardman was best man for his brother and another brother, Al Boardman; Bob Bills and Dick Harrison were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue brocade dress and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in blue lace and both mothers had white accessories. Mrs. Boardman's corsage was of white rosebuds.

Stock and snapdragons in pastel shades decorated the church and songs were furnished by Mrs. Richard Harrison, accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Adamson.

About 100 persons attended the ceremony and reception held at the church rooms. Individual wedding cakes were served the guests and table decorations of daffodils were in the form of a wreath.

The couple left for San Francisco for a wedding trip and will return to live at 230 South Central avenue.

The bride is a bookkeeper at O. P. Taylor accountancy offices. She attended Boise schools and Boise college.

The bridegroom, station agent for United Air lines, received his education in Oregon schools and Southern Oregon college.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carter; Mrs. Gerald Call and daughter, Janie; Mr. and Mrs. Garth Howard and Charles Coulter, all of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Miller, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Chester Waite, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hamilton, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Boardman and family, Grants Pass.

The bride was a guest of honor at several events held before the wedding and Mr. and Mrs. John Niedermeyer, Jacksonville, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, were dinner hosts to members of the bride's group, other family members and out-of-town guests Saturday, April 14.
