

MISS ELOISE MIELKE

Eloise Mielke, Marvin Despain Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mielke, 1700 Prune street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eloise Mielke, to Marvin R. Despain, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Despain, 1308 Hilton road.

Both are students at Brigham Young university, Provo, Utah. The wedding has been set for early June and will take place in the Latter Day Saints temple at Salt Lake City, Utah.

They will then return to Medford and a reception is planned in their honor at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Sorority Plans Coming Events; Officers Elected

Plans for the annual Mother's day meeting of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, were made at a meeting held April 12 at the home of Mrs. R. J. Higgins, Ideal court.

Discussion of plans for installation for the new officers was also held. New officers recently elected are Mrs. Austin Murray, president; Mrs. L. K. Morris, first vice-president; Miss Joan Pence, second vice-president; Mrs. Herb Robbins, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Garren, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred L. Griffith, treasurer; Mrs. Iving Thompson, city council representative and Miss Pence alternate council representative.

Mrs. Oris Goble gave the cultural program. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Murray and the hostess.

Here's an easy salad with a fancy look and a sweet-tart flavor. Roll grapefruit sections in honey and then in coconut or chopped nuts. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves.

Posse Adds Two Princesses To Court for Annual Roundup

Miss Juanita James of Medford and Miss Marcia Woodward of Butte Falls were selected this week as additions to the court to preside over Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse 14th annual Rogue River roundup. Glen Martin, chairman of the court committee, announced their selection.

Others of the court are Miss Verna Hickman, Eagle Point, queen; Mrs. Glenda Forman, senior princess; Mrs. Tessie Fisher and Miss Maxine Walsh, princesses.

The young women were selected on the basis of horsemanship. Judges were Lee Pruitt, Grants Pass, Josephine County Mounted Sheriff's posseman; Phil Stansbury, Ashland, and Leonard Ward, Eagle Point, president of the local posse.

Others who participated in trials were Miss Ruth Fisher, Miss Jo Woody and Miss Rosa Layton, all of Medford; Miss Rita King, Rogue River; Miss Mitzzy Baysinger, Jacksonville, and Miss Jean Estremado, Gold Hill.

This week end the court will

Couple Attends Family Reunion In Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryde, 24 Jeanette avenue, returned home Monday after a trip into northern Washington to attend a family reunion. The Rydes were accompanied north by Mrs. Winnie Taylor, Sacramento, Calif., Mrs. Ryde's sister, and in Walla Walla, Wash., they were joined by a third sister, Mrs. Jessie Holloway.

The trio continued to Pullman, Wash., where they were guests of a fourth sister and her husband, Col. and Mrs. H. L. Cole. While there they celebrated the 81st birthday anniversary of Mrs. Holloway, which took place April 10. It was the first time in 29 years that the sisters had been together. Their ages are from 64 to 81 years.

Two brothers, Frank D. Conrad of Garden City, Kan., and Claude C. Conrad, Dodge City, Kan., were unable to attend the celebration in the west since the Frank Conrads were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary April 10. However, through the cooperation of the telephone company, the four sisters and two brothers talked together during a "conference" call.

After the birthday celebration the sisters and their husbands took a motor trip to Spokane and on to Calgary, Can.

appear at Red Bluff, Calif., rodeo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin. Their appearance there is a part of publicity plans made by Harold S. Hulse of the posse to announce the annual Rogue River roundup dates, which are August 10, 11 and 12.

The local sheriff's posse grounds last Sunday was the scene of several activities. In the morning the first drill practice for the posse and Ladies Mounted troop drill team was conducted. That afternoon the Junior posse held their first drill team practice and at 1 p.m., a motorcycle club field day was conducted when the Rogue Ramblers participated with guests from clubs from Eureka, Calif., Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Canyonville, Myrtle Creek and Ashland.

Ernest Holbrook was in charge of that program which had a large attendance. No admission was charged. Don Sample, Medford, won the day's contest prize.

Mrs. Clarence Dodge is drill instructor for the junior group and the juniors are to appear at the Montague, Calif., rodeo July 20 through 21.

At the afternoon event were Mrs. Lee Wilson, Mrs. Roy Vaughn, Mrs. George Tockstein, Mrs. Glen Anderson, Mrs. Audrey Collier, Mrs. Harold Barber, Mrs. Carl Richardson, and Mrs. A. V. McKillop, a sister of the bridegroom-elect, all of Trail; Mrs. Laurence Conger, mother of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. Kirt Langston, another sister of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. Mable Hedgepeth; Mrs. Everett Shafer, also a sister, and Mrs. Ray Gillespie, all of Prospect; Mrs. Glen Nelson, Ashland, Mrs. R. Hiatt, and the honored guest, both of Medford.

Games were played and refreshments served by the hostess.

Men with scaly patches or moles on their faces should shave carefully to prevent injury or irritation to such areas. Chronic irritation is a factor in skin cancer, the American Cancer society points out.

Mr. and Mrs. Cappy Winston McIntire were married March 28 in First Methodist church here. The bride is the former Miss Rae Lavonne McCurdy.

Couple Married In Church Rites Held Last Month

An 8 o'clock evening ceremony March 28 at First Methodist church wedded Miss Rae Lavonne McCurdy and Cappy Winston McIntire. The bridegroom, a Navy storekeeper first class, has left for his station at Pearl Harbor.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Drury R. McCurdy, 320 Clark street, is a telephone operator for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and is making her home with her parents. In June the bridegroom will participate in the Dewline expedition in Alaska. He is a son of Mrs. Guy McIntire, California, and the late Mr. McIntire.

The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon read the double ring rites and about 50 guests attended the ceremony and the reception, also held at the church.

Mrs. Winston E. Meyers, Grants Pass, an aunt of the bridegroom was matron of honor and Mr. Meyers was best man. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a satin ballerina length gown and her elbow length veil was of tulle. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus centered with pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Meyers' gown was of blue net and her flowers were white gladiolus.

Acacia and white stocks with daffodils decorated the church. The bride and bridegroom both attended Shasta Union high school and junior college. The couple made their wedding trip to the coast.

Women's Group Plans Session

Mrs. Kenneth Cook will have charge of the program for a meeting Women's association, First Presbyterian church, Tuesday, April 24 at 1 p.m., in the church social room. Trinity circle will have charge of the salad luncheon which will be served.

Mrs. Cook recently visited Presbyterians missions in the Bay area and she will tell particularly of Los Gatos home in the Santa Cruz mountains. She will show slides of the Ming Quong home at Oakland and explain work done among the Chinese people and other nationalities.

Grace circle is to give a skit about Cameron house and its founding in 1849 in Chinatown, San Francisco, and outline its early history. The group's "opportunity gift" is to be given to Cameron house.

Mrs. Arnold Bohnert will give the devotions and music will be furnished by a high school trio, composed of Miss Janet Jamison, Miss Mira Frohmmayer and Miss Carol Denman.

All women of the church are invited to the luncheon and program.

Bethel to Honor Late Mrs. Faber Tuesday Evening

Central Point—The late Mrs. Everett Faber will be honored with an addendum to be given during a meeting of Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Tuesday, April 24. The meeting will open at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple.

The addendum will be given by members of Bethel 38, Order of Job's Daughters. Mrs. Faber was a past matron of Nevita chapter, organized Bethel 38 and was to have been grand guardian of Job's Daughters for Oregon for the coming year.

Mrs. Melvin McGrew, worthy matron, will preside. Decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Walter Turnquist and Mrs. Jane Kofahl is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Olive Rebekah Lodge Holds Friendship Night Observance

A style show of women's clothing of the early 1890s was one of the many features of a Friendship night program held by Olive Rebekah lodge Monday evening. Program numbers were furnished by various valley Rebekah lodges who were guests at a meeting, and Grants Pass Rebekahs gave the style show.

Gold Hill, Rebekahs did a skit which represented Medford members en route to an earlier Friendship night observance at Gold Hill.

Central Point members furnished a reading. Gifts were exchanged between the visiting groups and the local lodge.

Represented were lodges at Jacksonville, Central Point, Ashland and Grants Pass. Another Friendship observance will be held at Ashland, Tuesday 24 at 8 p.m., and all Rebekahs of the area are invited.

Mrs. J. D. Brummond, noble grand, and her officers, presented a program on the manner in which Rebekahs in Netherland conduct their lodge meetings and a notable difference was noted. The program was held in connection with International Understanding month, which is being observed during April, and sponsored through Mrs. Margaret Watt, president of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies.

Mrs. Byrl E. Drury, Coburg, past state president of the Oregon assembly, is representative for the American Rebekah Assembly. She was given a vote of thanks at the recent meeting for an altar cover given to the local lodge. A report was made of a recent cake walk by Mrs. Lee Garris. Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and her committee presented each visitor and local lodge member badges of pink and green.

Refreshments were served from tables decorated with spring flowers.

To Install

Installation ceremonies for the Crater Lake Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary, are set for Tuesday, April 24 at 8 p.m., in the VFW hall, at 42 North Front street.

The joint meeting is open to all veterans and their families.
