

Grange

Jackson County Pomona Grange
Jackson County Pomona Grange will meet April 28, at 10 a.m. at the Gold Hill Grange hall.

All Granges are reminded that this is the annual memorial service. Pomona Chaplain Hattie Hendrickson asks that the chaplains (or a representative) of all subordinate Granges who lost members by death since the last service be there to honor these members in the service which will be held immediately after the noon meal.

Following this, discussion of the sales tax has been made the special order of business. The results of the study made by the special taxation group of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce will be reported on at this meeting.

Upper Rogue Grange

The regular business meeting of Upper Rogue Grange was held April 19 with Master Caroline Harding wielding the gavel.

Elk-Trail mothersingers entertained with three songs under the direction of Mrs. George Moore, after which Dr. Eugene Meyerding of Medford gave a talk on cancer, also showing slides.

Pomona Master Herb Carlton obligated Fred Brugger in the third and fourth degrees. Secretary Eda Torrance announced we would receive an "all dues paid" pennant again this year when State Grange convenes in Pendleton in June. Brother and Sister Harding are the delegates and will attend.

Refreshments were served by Brother and Sister Grieve and Sister Velma Barr.

Shady Cove Grange

Grange met April 11 with Master Cecil Kee presiding.

Since this was the business meeting, the committee chairmen gave their reports. Agriculture Chairman Marie Larson furnished more back breaking information about gardens and yards. Sadie Vanderlip reported on HEC. Phil Matschenbacher reported on the needs of the fire department. Edgar Vanderlip reported on the last meeting.

Ord training faculty, prepare to drop a shell into 60mm mortar being aimed by Sgt. 1/c Chester L. Cook. Pvt. Foley qualified as an expert rifleman while there April 13.

PLEASE!

San Antonio, Tex. — (U.P.)—Lakeland Air Force Base, which formerly had more stop signs per square block than any comparable area in the country is about to become a driver's dream. An estimated 100 stop signs will be eliminated and replaced with "Yield Right of Way" signs.

of the 3 C's committee. Ola Houston stated she now has several boxes of stored clothing for emergency use in the community. Ed Houston reported on the progress of the state highway department on Crater Lake Highway, also the condition of the county roads.

The members missed Mannie and Reed McKay and hoped for a speedy recovery for Mannie, who was injured in a recent car accident.

After the regular business the members enjoyed an hour of fun and relaxation provided by Lecturer Edgar Vanderlip.

The April 25 meeting will be potluck, starting at 6:30 p.m. followed by a social meeting. All Grangers are welcome to join in an entertaining evening.

GOLD HILL Local Artists Show Pictures

By MRS. SAM ELLIOTT

Gold Hill—Two Gold Hill artists are displaying pictures in the show window of Whitmore's Variety store. Miss Marylyn Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harrison, is showing a seascape, and Mrs. Wally Neece has a mountain scene on display.

The Garden club, which was to meet at Mrs. John Cogswell's home, met instead in the Roadside park in Gold Hill, because Mrs. Cogswell was ill. They held their potluck luncheon under the trees and enjoyed their first summer session. Mrs. Clarence Parsley donated the cake for the occasion. Present were Mrs. Lester Parker, Mrs. George Dorfman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cameron, Mrs. Amy Ross, Mrs. Ferd Jones, Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. Clarence Parsley and Mrs. Hanna Routh. Mrs. Jones won six hybrid pansy plants. The next meeting will be held at the Roadside Park south of Rogue River, with Mrs. Routh bringing the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster have moved to Medford, into their own home. Brewster is social science teacher for the 6th grade and will follow up his pupils by teaching the seventh next year.

William Fields, who has been convalescent for some time, has returned to work.

Mrs. Hazel Kirk of the Whistletop in Medford, has been in Gold Hill this week taking care of her property here.

John Griffith has just returned home from the hospital where he had major surgery on his eye.

The winter term scholastic honor roll at Oregon State college shows that three Gold Hill students have won honors. Mrs. Douglas (Gail) Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Skyrman of Central Point and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Gold Hill, made her mark in elementary education. Benson Foley, a sophomore majoring in chemical engineering, also made the roll as did Miss Shirley Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyman, who is majoring in home economics.

Mrs. Elias Stastny of Sacramento, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lahnum, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Deuel, owners of the Del Rio Orchards here, are renovating and modernizing the Old Stage Coach hotel.

Mrs. George Gillman, Mrs. Molly Harrison and Mrs. Gertrude Burke have returned from a trip in California. They went to Modesto, San Francisco, Alameda and stopped for a while in Roseville to see Mrs. Betty Hulbert. Mrs. Hulbert is a Gold Hill pioneer, and owned the original hotel here.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hoare of John Day, Ore., and two children, have moved into the home owned by Mayor and Mrs. Milton Steinmetz on First ave.

Mrs. Lottie Frost of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fleming of Grants Pass, and their mother, Mrs. Emma Fleming, of Highway 99 North, have returned from Pendleton where they visited a sister, Mrs. Robert Floch, and family. While they were gone they went to Kennewick, Wash., to visit Mrs. Frost's son, Victor Frost, and family.

Frank Johnston, who spends half the year in Coolege, Ariz., has returned to Gold Hill.

Mrs. W. F. Romine, who has been quite ill for some weeks, was taken to the Osteopathic hospital in Medford this week. She is doing nicely.

The Gold Hill Grange are to be congratulated on backing a winner when they sponsored Miss Connie Jean Hanscom for the Pear Festival Queen.

Stewart to Explain Reappraisal Program

Salem — (U.P.)—Oregon's state-wide tax reappraisal program will be explained by Samuel B. Stewart, commissioner in charge of the valuation division of the State Tax commission, at a meeting in Minneapolis on April 25 and 26.

Stewart will meet with the Minneapolis Citizens Tax Study committee, a group appointed by Minnesota Governor Freeman.
