Too young to love? Ah, say not so! Tell reddening rosebuds not to blow! Wait not for spring to pass away; Love's summer months begin with May!

Wonder what became of Anastacios Honchopathedorkumountourgeotopolus? He was the acknowledged long name champion of the United States. He fought with the American Expeditionary Force in World War I and was decorated for gallantry in action. Whenever his name was spelt wrong in a newspaper he called up the managing editor and complained bitterly.

her son, Jack Hughes in Los Angeles, then stopped off at Phoenix, Ariz., and on to St. Petersburg, Fla., where she visited with her father, M. D. Smith. At Ft. Lauderdale she visited her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Hewitt. Also in Dayton she had dinner with the brother-in-law of Mrs. Dale Sawyer of Shady Cove and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer. She returned home by the northern route through Portland.

Horses and Women For many years, Gertrude Lawrence was considered one of the world's best dressed women. So, if your loving wife aspires to achieve distinction as a woman of fashion, she might be interested in Miss Lawrence's seven rules for a well dressed woman. 1—Simplicity is all important. Tailored clothes by day. Basic black gowns by night. 2—Buy hats for the head, not for laughs. 3—Colors according to the complexion. 4—Buy a few very good things rather than a lot of average things. 5—Simple shoes. 6—No buttons, bows or frills. 7—Good grooming always. Very little facial makeup.

Small Business Ever consider going into business for yourself in a small way? If so, a book you should find very interesting is the one titled "How to Run a Small Business" by J. K. Lasser. This book might also be very helpful to those who are currently struggling to make a small enterprise profitable.

Marrying Man When the matrimonial career of that quaint character, Tommy Manville, comes up for discussion, there is frequently some confusion and disagreement as to the names of the gentleman's wives and in what order they became Mrs. Manville. The first Mrs. Thomas Manville was Florence Huber. The marriage lasted 11 years. No. two was Lois McCoin. That lasted five years. No. three, Avonne Taylor, one year. No. four, Marcelle Edwards, four years. No. five, Bonita Edwards, 17 days. No. six, Wilhelmina Boze, four months. No. seven, Sunny Ainsworth, two months. No. eight, Georgina Campbell, six and one-half years. Last named was only one of Manville marriages that didn't end in divorce. Georgina was killed in an auto accident. The ninth Mrs. Manville was Anita Rodd-Eden. That marriage lasted 27 days.

identally, the record for brief wedding ceremonies is said to be seven seconds. On that, however, I have been unable to check. Don't see how it could be done. The original American crossword puzzle, then called a workcross, was published in the New York Sunday World in December 1913.
