Spectators Watch As Bear Cubs Killed

Portland — (U.P.) — Hundreds of spectators watched helplessly yesterday as two young cub bears at the Portland zoo, out in the sunlight for their first look at the world, were killed by the male bears.
The mother bear had brought her cubs out from their dirt den. Immediately the male bears began to attack the cubs as the mother fought desperately to ward off the blows.
Within an hour both cubs had been killed. Many stayed to witness the tragic drama and many others moved away before it ended.
Zoo officials said bears were dangerous at this time of year and it wouldn't have been safe to order anyone into the den.

Hessie Braddock, Socialist Member of Parliament for Liverpool Exchange, said: "I will ask the secretary of state if he is aware that Private Smith, with an excellent army record, had been refused a final signature on his demobilization papers until he had his hair cut."

The advertising paid off and Luck was given a chance to show his wares to the famous entertainer.
