On The Side

The bankroll of the father of the bride takes a terrific beating in many weddings. However, young papas with a female child under 2 can get protection against a future financial setback when their daughters marry. A "wedding insurance" policy is available. The father starts payments when the girl is 2 or less. Then, if she marries at 19 or older, the insurance company will pay all the wedding expenses.

Asking
Queries from clients. Q. Is it a fact Voltaire drank 80 cups of coffee a day? What is the record for daily consumption of coffee? A. Have no record of Voltaire as a coffee drinker. Nor any world's record on coffee drinkers. Most coffee consumed in one day by one man with which I am familiar is that Damon Runyon averaged about 40 cups daily. . . Q. Which game is most played throughout the world, basketball or soccer football? A. It is soccer which is played regularly in over 80 nations.

So They Say
All females are fond of flattery but Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) women like it most. The easiest of all women for a smart fellow to fool are Aries girls. . . Leo (July 24-Aug. 23) women are in love with love. They are so eager to be in love that frequently they choose the wrong man. That is why so many first marriages of Leos fail. Leo women usually have two children, no more, no less. Or, so say the stargazers.

Passing By
Ethel Barrymore. First lady of the theater. Has been a star since she was 21. Her first starring vehicle was that quaintly titled play "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines." It was in a play titled "Sunday." That Miss Barrymore first voiced the celebrated line, "That's all there is; there isn't any more." She spoke this line after finishing the reading of a letter. The play was about a girl named Sunday who, by the terms of a will, was left in the care of three western cowpunchers.

Please Note
Can you name the best customer of the United States Post Office? It is Sears. Roebuck. That celebrated and extremely prosperous organization was started 70 years ago by Richard Sears, who was 23 at the time, and a station master at North Redwood, Minn. Sears began selling watches by mail order on the side. Perhaps you, too, could start selling something by mail order on the side holding your salaried job until well-established. There are a number of excellent books available on how to start and manage a mail order business. Inquire at the nearest public library.

Among The Married
When an argument starts between man and wife, what is most likely to increase its intensity? My belief is that when a heated argument starts between a husband and wife nothing serves to make the discussion more heated than for either of the battling pair to say, "don't shout," or "don't scream." When such a remark is made, it is then that the shouting and screaming really begin.

Profitable Place
Am asked the surname of the owner of that justly celebrated Sixth Ave., Manhattan restaurant of the yesteryear known simply as "Jacks." It was Dunstan. It is probable no Manhattan restaurant of the present, not even the fabulous "Twenty-One Club," is as profitable a venture as "Jacks" was. When Jack Dunstan passed away he left an estate of $7,000,000. Incidentally, the specialty of "Jacks" was Irish bacon and scrambled eggs.

Healthy Baby
Following the victory of a 15 month old infant in a "Healthiest Baby" contest, his very proud mother was asked what she fed him. She said, "plenty of dried milk, cod liver oil and orange juice and he has never had a sick day in his life."

Conservatives Join Johnson Backers
Washington — (U.P.) — Two leading southern conservatives Saturday joined a group of senators backing Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson as a possible presidential candidate. Sens. Harry F. Byrd and A. Willis Robertson, Virginia Democrats, said in a joint statement that if Johnson is presented as a favorite son candidate from Texas, "he will draw support not only from the South but from other areas of the nation."

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Capt. Wilhelm Hope, master of the tanker Sea Tiger, was arrested Saturday by FBI agents on charges of making a false statement to the government on ship survey.

Laughs of the Day . . .

Salinas, Calif. — (U.P.) — Dr. and Mrs. John Wagner took their electric toaster to a hardware store for repairs.

Max Ish quickly found the trouble—a two-foot dead gopher snake inside.

Des Moines, Ia. — (U.P.) — The Iowa Employment Security commission ruled that mice and snakes in a worker's lunch are not grounds for unemployment compensation.

Worker Allen A. Rodenberg, of Spencer, Ia., said he quit because he found a live mouse in his lunch bucket, a dead mouse in his bucket and a garter snake curled around his lunch.

The commission sympathized but ruled that nobody had really forced Rodenberg to quit.

Tokyo — (U.P.) — Sadakichi Kato, who confessed to a crime he didn't commit, and spent nearly two years in prison, said he stuck to the falsehood because he didn't want to "embarrass" the police.

Walla Walla — (U.P.) — Cries

of newborn babies were heard in the all male hospital of Washington State penitentiary. Warden Merle Schneekloth put at ease inmates who thought they were "stir crazy." He found the cause — a sound effects record played full volume on a phonograph.

Denver — (U.P.) — Judge Joseph E. Cook granted Mrs. Dorothy E. Brown a divorce from her husband, Garold, 32. Mrs. Brown testified that every time her husband left home "to get a haircut" he was gone 13 hours.

Beverly Hills, Calif. — (U.P.) — Songwriter Ira Gershwin reported his home had been entered and a piggy bank containing $300 was missing.

Police arrested Gershwin's ex-butler who was found in his home wearing a new wardrobe and playing the record, "The Poor People of Paris."

Strike at Macy's Ends Saturday

New York — (U.P.) — A marathon negotiating session early Saturday brought an end to the 11-day-old strike of some 8,000 employees of Macy's the world's largest department store.

Terms of the settlement were not announced but a union official said the agreement would mean "more wages and better conditions" for his union members. The strike was called April 10 by a local of the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union.

President Samuel Kovenetsky of the local said, however, that the agreement did not include the 37½ hour week that the union had been asking for. He said picketing would continue through today despite the agreement. The union will not consider the strike over until the members ratify the agreement, probably Sunday, he said.

NEW DAR HEAD — Mrs. Frederic A. Groves (above) of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was elected President-General of the Daughters of the American Revolution at their 65th annual convention in Washington.

London — Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev on the Russian "new look": "You must come to Russia now. It has changed a lot. It is an entirely new country."

Jerusalem — Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion on the danger of full scale war in the Middle East despite the cease fire: "The only way of averting war is the immediate dispatch of arms to this country."

Washington — Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson on President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill: "I feel that the American people generally admire the President for taking this courageous stand, and I believe they agree that it was the wise stand, it was best for agriculture."

Washington — President Eisenhower on U.S. foreign policy: "A policy that was good six months ago is not necessarily of any validity now."

Washington — Adlai Stevenson on U.S. foreign policy: "The United States has lost the moral initiative and is losing the military advantage in the cold war."

The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, a newspaper editor, a women's page editor and two newspaper writers. These consult with clergymen of all faiths and denominations. All letters are held in complete confidence.

Mrs. J.M.L. — Our college daughter has strayed. Jane — His wife won't divorce him.

Mrs. J.M.L. — Our daughter Jane is in a terrible mess and has given me a great deal of grief. She is a college student, and I have every reason to believe that she is having an affair with a married man. I am afraid of a tragic outcome, and I dare not tell my husband, as he would probably disown her in a moment.

There is a boy who is everything a girl could want in a husband and who is crazy about Jane. I have been pleading with Jane to accept him and get married, but she will not hear of it. If I could think of a good reason for making Jane quit college and come home, I would get her away from this married man, but my husband is set on her completing college, and I dare not tell him the truth.

Jane — I am in love with a man who loves me. I do not consider him a married man, and he does not consider himself married. Here is a woman who refuses to divorce him only because she wants a price he cannot meet.

I am not living with him and I am serious about finishing college and going into a profession so that I can help him meet his problems. My mother found out about a few intimate occasions, and she is trying to make a tragedy out of the situation. I think it is immoral for me to marry a man who loves me when I feel I belong to another. I think my mother should stop being tragic and leave me alone.

The Council: This mother is taking far too much on herself. She has no right attempting to force here daughter into a fake marriage, and she has even less right to usurp her husband's place as Jane's father. He should be told what is going on. Mrs. J.M.L. thinks he is too excited to know. She is probably wrong. In any event,

Playwright MacArthur Dies in NY Hospital

New York — (U.P.) — Playwright Charles MacArthur, who immortalized the roaring '20's in the roistering newspaper play, "The Front Page," died at a New York hospital Saturday with his actress wife, Helen Hayes, at his bedside. He was 60.

MacArthur, whose own youthful escapades rivaled those of the characters in his boisterous drama, entered the hospital last Tuesday, suffering from nephritis, a kidney ailment, and severe anemia.

Miss Hayes, his wife of 28 years, had cancelled a television appearance because of his illness. She was with him almost constantly until the end.

DORISH SPIKED
Baltimore — (U.P.) — Relief pitcher Harry Dorish of the Baltimore Orioles was expected to be out of action for two or three games until spine wounds in his right heel are healed. Dorish was spiked by Washington catcher Clint Courtney in a play at first base yesterday and the injury required 12 stitches.

Unlocks full horsepower

"RPM 10-30 Special" cuts engine drag to increase usable power up to 15%

This new kind of oil combines the free-flowing qualities of a light grade oil with the protective strength of a heavy grade to cover every range of motor oil performance from SAE grade 10W through 30. The result is less "drag" between moving engine parts. And this means...

Extra usable power—up to 15% more—for hills, passing, pick-up in traffic.

Full-time protection of vital engine parts. Free-flowing "RPM" goes to work the instant you touch the starter. Completely lubricates hydraulic valve lifters.

Gas and oil savings—up to 1 gallon of gas in every 8, oil consumption improved as much as 33% compared with light grade motor oils.

More knock-free acceleration—"RPM" fights off cylinder-head deposits that cause knock, improves octane performance.

Longer battery life—because your engine turns over faster and easier for instant starting.

Improved performance in all seasons, all climates. Meets requirements of high-compression engines.
