

Hard Hitting Yankees Sweep 3-Game Series With Boston

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
 Unless somebody can short-circuit their awesome slugging power and do it quick, the New York Yankees may "run away" with the American league pennant race the same way the Brooklyn Dodgers ran away in the National league last year.

That's the sad fact being forced on the rest of the American loop today by the Yankees' stunning three-game sweep of the Boston Red Sox during the week end, capped by a 13-6 rout on Sunday.

The "Bronx Bombers" now have won five of their first six; the Dodgers of 1955 won 20 of their first 22.

It could happen again, unless some good pitching can cool off the Yankee bats that, in three games against the Red Sox, collected 34 runs on 33 hits, including seven homers, one triple, and five doubles. Look at these "big three" batting marks so far this season—Bill Skowron, 542; Mickey Mantle, 455; and Yogi Berra, 400.

Commit Five Errors
 Sunday's series finale featured Yankee homers by Joe Collins, pitcher Don Larsen (a grand slam) and Berra, and the Sox made things worse by committing five errors. Still, Boston had a 6-6 tie until the seventh inning when the Yanks exploded their second four-run rally of the game, including a two-run double by Mantle and a two-run homer by Berra.

Bob Grim, allowing three hits in 4 1/3 innings in relief of Larsen, got credit for his first win while Frank Baumann, in relief of Frank Sullivan, was tagged with the loss.

After an idle day today, the Yanks get a chance to fatten their record further in three games against Washington and Baltimore before visiting Boston for another test.

The second-place Chicago White Sox stayed a half-game behind the Yankees Sunday by whipping Kansas City, 3-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Billy Pierce. The little lefty fanned seven, walked only three, in gaining his second win.

Twin Bill Splits
 Two American league twin bills resulted in splits. At Cleveland, Detroit whacked four homers, including two by Al Kaline, to beat the Tribe in the opener 5-2, before Bob Lemon scattered nine hits to win the nightcap, 6-4, for his first complete game since May 30 of last season. At Baltimore, rookie southpaw Fred Basana of the Orioles gained credit for a 7-3 opening win over Washington with seventh-inning relief help from Harry Doris, who suffered a 12-stitch spike cut in a collision with Clint Courtney and will be out three days. In the nightcap, Camilo Pascual of Washington fanned nine and allowed four hits to win, 4-1.

In the National league, the Dodgers beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, in a single game limited to six innings by rain to give Don Newcombe credit for a three-hit victory, while all other teams played twin bills.

Cling To Lead
 The Milwaukee Braves clung to a half-game lead by rebounding to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 13-5, in the second game on 16 hits, including homers by Hank Aaron and Del Rice, after the Cards had taken the opener, 10-4, on an eight-run sixth inning highlighted by Stan Musial's grand slam.

Robin Roberts outduelled Johnny Antonelli to give the Philadelphia Phils a 3-1 victory over the Giants in the first game on a three-run homer by Ted Kazanski. The Giants took the nightcap, 9-7, with Willie Mays' three-run homer in the ninth proving the decider.

Homers by Solly Drake, Monte Irvin and Ernie Banks led the Chicago Cubs to an opening 5-4 win over the Cincinnati Redlegs. The second game was ended in a 1-1 tie by darkness after seven innings. Cub pitcher Bob Rush walking home the Redlegs' tying run in the seventh frame.
