

Julius Boros To Give Golf Advice Here

The driver is one of the easiest clubs in the bag to use for it is designed with a wide, flat sole, which will help you right the club if it should be swung a little too deeply into the turf. Because it is so elementary, and requires less effort on the part of the player, I enjoy using it more than any other club."

The foregoing remarks are by Julius Boros, world champion golf professional who will appear at Rogue Valley Country club on Thursday, May 3. Boros will team with Clayton Lewis, president of Rogue Valley, against George Harrington and Al Williams, club manager and club pro, respectively.

Prior to the exhibition, the touring pro will hold a clinic. He is expected to discuss the use of the driver as well as other clubs. The clinic is set for 1 p.m. with the 18-hole match to follow.

Top Money Winner

Boros won the World Championship tourney in 1955 at Tam O'Shanter Country club, Chicago. His victory made him the top links earner of the year. The Mid-Pines Country club (North Carolina) golfer also won the World tourney in 1952, the same year he took the U. S. open. Ben Hogan is the only other two-time winner of the Tam event.

The pro's appearance here is sponsored by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce through arrangement with the George S. May company, which backs the World championship affair. Boros, as a result of the Tam triumph won a contract for a minimum of 55 exhibitions about the country. He is also on the advisory staff of the Wilson Sporting Goods company.

"The main secret to hitting good drives lies in the ability of the player to relax," Boros says. "There is something about the driver which calls out to most people—(swing me as hard as you can)—and this idea is entirely wrong for good shots off the tee."

Spectator Attends Tilt At Own Risk

Salem—(U.P.)—The State Supreme Court ruled today that a spectator at a baseball game assumes the risk of being hit by a foul ball.

The court, in passing on an appeal of William E. Hunt against the Portland Baseball club, held that Hunt was familiar with the game, knew the risks of watching it and appreciated the risks when he sat in an unsecured part of the stadium.

Hit By Foul
Hunt was hit by a foul ball at Vaughn street ball park Aug. 8, 1952, when he left his seat in the stands opposite third base and headed for the exit.

He recovered a jury verdict for $2,400 but Judge James E. Crawford set the verdict aside and entered judgment for the ball club. Hunt appealed, claiming the existence of the ball club's negligence was a question for the jury to decide.

The high court, however, held that Hunt knowingly placed himself in a risky area and that the ball club was guilty of no unreasonable conduct.

Public Helps Out Olympic Champ

Rock Island, Ill.—(U.P.)—A generous public today promoted Bill Smith, America's only wrestling gold medal winner in the 1952 Olympics, to reverse his decision against entering the final Olympic trials for the 1956 team.

Smith, who as late as Wednesday night said he couldn't afford to travel to California this week end for the competition, was rescued from his financial plight by an 11th-hour rush of donations on his behalf.

However, two other top United States wrestling prospects, Terry McCann of Iowa, national collegiate 115-pound titlist the last two years, and Ken Leuer of Iowa, 191-pound NCAA champion, will not enter the trials because the trip would interfere with their school work.

Smith won his Olympic title at 160 pounds in 1952 and now is teaching at Rock Island High school. He said he has a family to support and couldn't spare the money.

Panchos Winners On Tennis Tour

Kitchener, Ont.—(U.P.)—A slim crowd of 500 turned out last night to watch an exhibition by Jack Kramer's globe-circling professional tennis troupe.

Pancho Segura beat Australia's Rex Hartwig 8-4 in the opening singles match. In the feature singles match, Pancho Gonzales, world pro champion, defeated Tony Trabert. Gonzales and Segura defeated Trabert and Hartwig, 8-3 in doubles.

VIC WERTZ SPURS CLEVELAND IN 5-2 WIN OVER ATHLETICS

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Vic Wertz is well on the way today toward making a comeback that would rank among the most dramatic in sports history.

Felled by polio last summer, the 31-year-old Cleveland Indians' first baseman is whaling the ball at a .429 clip and ranks as one of the Tribe's big hopes of preventing the New York Yankees from making a Runaway of the American League pennant race.

Big Vic—his back to his prepolio weight of 190 pounds—blasted a homer, double and two singles in four trips to the plate Wednesday night to lead the Indians to a 5-2 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics. The outburst gave him a season's record of nine hits in 21 trips to the plate. He has hit two homers, knocked in five runs and is taking up the slack left by the departed Larry Doby.

Throws Five-Hitter
Herb Score, the rookie strike-out king of 1955, breezed to his first victory of the new campaign behind the Indians' ninth batter, striking out eight batters and yielding only five hits.

Hector Lopez collected three of the hits off Score, who fanned 245 batters last year and has struck out 18 in two games this season.

The victory—their third in seven games—was especially important to the Indians because the Yankees rolled on to their seventh triumph in eight contests with a 4-2 verdict over the Baltimore Orioles. The Yankees broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning when shortstop Willie Miranda threw wildly on a potential inning-ending double play and added a cushion run for Whitey Ford when Hank Bauer followed with a triple.

Ford, who beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-1, in his first start, did not allow an earned run, yielded six hits and struck out eight batters in scoring his second win of the young season.

The Red Sox, meanwhile, suffered their fourth straight loss when Pedro Ramos pitched a three-hitter to give the Washington Senators a 4-1 triumph. Ramos struck out eight batters and lost his bid for a shutout on a sixth-inning homer by Jackie Jensen. Roy Sievers homered for the Senators who sent former teammate Bob Porterfield to his first setback in Boston flannels.

Jackie Steals Home
In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers took over undisputed possession of first place for the first time this season when they beat the New York Giants, 7-2, in the campaign's first meeting of the arch-rivals.

Carl Erskine pitched seven-hit ball for the Dodgers and Gil Hodges connected for three hits, including a homer, but the highlight of the contest was provided by 37-year-old Jackie Robinson.

Robinson, who had to fight to hold his job during spring training, tallied the first Dodger run when he stole home for the 20th time in his career in the second inning. Robinson went 2-for-3. Jim Hearn suffered the loss for the Giants, whose team batting average for the year is a sickly .210.

Harvey Haddix's two-hitter and Stan Musial's 540th double of his career sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6-0 decision.

O'Connor Clamps Down on Batters In Coast League

San Francisco—(U.P.)—President Leslie O'Connor of the Pacific Coast League has ruled that any batter who beefs more than 30 seconds over a called strike shall be put out of the game.

O'Connor also ruled that the player will be ejected and may be fined, even without the time limit, if he insults the umpire.

The league prexy made the ruling in an open letter to Umpire Pat Orr, who had reported that Sacramento first baseman Ferris Fain had "put on quite a show" over a called strike in a game between Hollywood and Sacramento last Thursday.

Orr said he "leaned over backward" to avoid ousting Fain. However, O'Connor, said an umpire must do his duty. He said Fain will be fined.

Bearcat Hurdler In Drake Relays

Salem—(U.P.)—Dean Benson, Willamette university's crack track performer and NAIA champion of the 120-yard high hurdles, will compete in the Drake relays at Des Moines, Iowa, tomorrow and Saturday.

Benson's best time in the 120-yard barriers is 14 seconds flat, recorded in the NAIA finals last year. A strong wind at the finals prevented the mark as being recorded as a new record, however.

Oregon Game Resources Compared To Box of Apples: Demand Heavy

Oregon State Game Commissioners are "trying to pass the box of apples around," Kenneth G. Denman, Medford attorney and member of the commission, stressed yesterday in a talk at the luncheon meeting of Medford Kiwanis club.

Speaking at Rogue Valley Country club, Denman compared Oregon's fish and game resources to a box of apples. "There are just so many apples in a box," he said—just so many fish and game animals and places to hunt and fish to go around.

The game commissioner also spoke of the heavy demand on wildlife—fish and game—in Oregon as opposed to nature's decreasing ability to produce. Denman mentioned how rich in game the Rogue river valley was 150 years ago and how the coming and growth of civilization in the valley has reversed that situation. He asked the questions: How much is each (sportsman) going to get out of the "box?" How long is it (the wildlife) going to last? Will it be perpetuated?

Telling of the large number of people hunting and fishing, Denman brought out that the commission is trying to decide what is best for the greatest number. He declared that the commissioners have "no axes to grind." It's not known today what's best for tomorrow and there is a lot to be learned yet about game management, Denman said.

Need Cooperation
The commissioner further stated that the program of the commission cannot succeed unless it has the cooperation of the major portion of the sportsmen. He added that the cooperation of the non-fishermen and non-hunters is also needed.

Denman spoke of the argument of what should be the aim of the sportsman—whether he should expect a full bag when he goes out, whether he should try to take everything he can today, get meat for his locker, and not think of tomorrow or whether he should fish and hunt for the fellowship, relaxation, recreation and pleasures involved.

Six new members were inducted into the Kiwanis club yesterday. They were Paul Jorgensen, John Judy, Dr. Billy Blackstone, Tom Polk, the Rev. Richard Jones and Norm Buvick. Dr. L. Paul Walker, chairman of the Kiwanis education committee and former division lieutenant governor, conducted the induction.

Perfect attendance pin awards were announced. They were 12 years, Irving Allen and A. A. Mann; 10 years, Robert Church; seven years, D. J. Bolton and Dr. Robert Voegtly; six years, Emerson Anderson, Darell Huson, Paul Smith and Boyd Dudge; four years, Fred Gatter and Ray Johnson, and two years, John Dellenback.

Disabled Vets' Fish Licenses Cost 50 Cents
Salem—With the trout season in the offing, war veterans 25 per cent or more disabled were reminded that they are entitled to fishing licenses for 50 cents.

The Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs, in issuing the reminder, said the veteran must have been an Oregon resident for one year prior to applying for the license. His disability must be current, and it must be certified by the Veterans Administration.

Application must be made to the State Game Commission, 1634 S. W. Alder st., Portland. Assistance Possible
Veterans of the Spanish American war, the Philippine insurrection and the Boxer rebellion do not have to provide disability.

County veterans' service officers and the state veterans' department can assist disabled ex-servicemen in filing for the benefit.

The veterans' department also reminded men on active duty with the armed forces in Oregon that they are entitled to fishing licenses in this state at the same price as residents. They may apply at any sporting goods store which issue game licenses.

Drawing Friday For 2-Ball Meet

Drawing for partners in the men's two-ball golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club is scheduled at 8 p.m. Friday at the club.

A 7 p.m. dinner will precede the drawing.

High and low handicappers will be paired for the event.

A full entry has been reported. Club officials said that the field will be limited to 128 men, or 64 pairs. Late signers over the 128 may take the place of linksmen who drop out.

BALTIMORE WARNED
Baltimore—(U.P.)—The U.S. Naval Academy officially cast doubts today on Baltimore's status as a good sports town and warned that unless crowds increase this year, no more football games will be played here by the Navy.

Champ Tourney Opens in Vegas

Las Vegas, (U.P.)—Twenty-two champions teed off in one of the nation's most important professional golf tournaments today—with the veteran Lloyd Mangrum in the favorite's role.

It's the fourth annual $37,000 Tournament of Champions on the windswept Desert Inn Country Club course.

Because Mangrum learned his golf on the windy plains of Texas, he has been installed as a 5-1 favorite, while defending champion Gene Littler and Dr. Cary Middlecoff are listed as 6-1 in the betting marts of this gambling city.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Wednesday Scuffles Bunch Up PCL Teams

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

If a tight pennant race makes the turnstiles click, the Pacific Coast League appears in for a large whirring sound.

After last night's battles the San Francisco Seals were only one game out of first—but were in the second division.

Los Angeles vaulted into a tie with league-leading Seattle without turning a wheel, but by merely sitting by playing pinocle, their game with Sacramento was rained out.

San Diego missed a chance to take over the top spot when the Padres dropped a 2-1 clossie to Portland while the Seals were hammering Seattle 11-1. Hollywood shoved Vancouver into the loop cellar with a 4-3 victory.

Bill Werle got credit for the victory over San Diego that kept the Padres a half game out, tied with Sacramento. However, Werle needed last inning help from Roy Shore, who came on in the bottom of the ninth with two on and only one out and preserved the game.

Lone Run
Jack Macko homered in the eighth for San Diego's only run.

Seattle got only two hits off Robert G. Smith, San Francisco rookie, while the Seals manufactured 13 off three Rainier hurlers to drop the leaders back into a first place tie.

Fred Baczewski took the loss when the Seals erupted for four runs in the fifth and then repeated the performance in the ninth. Gordie Windhorn and Tom Umphlett were San Francisco's batting heroes, each getting three hits.

R. C. Stevens was the hero of the Hollywood win, clouting his fourth home run of the season in the bottom of the sixth with nobody on and the score tied at 3-3.

Ernie Funk, second Vancouver pitcher, did not give up another hit in his stint of seven and two-thirds innings, but the Stevens blow did the work for the Stars. Hollywood got only three hits in all, but miscues, a bases-loaded walk and a wild pitch were enough for a three-run inning for the Stars in the second.

Vancouver tied it in the third on a two-run homer by Tom Pisoni.

A good number of Medford shooters may go to Roseburg for a registered shoot this Sunday.

President Bert Peck has announced the switch of the Medford Gun club's annual Mail Tribune trapshoot to May 19 and 20. It was previously set for June 2 and 3. The June date conflicts with the annual Elks State shoot at Gearhart. A number of shooters from Medford will attend the Elks event, which will also attract other top shooters who generally attend the Mail Tribune shoot.

LESSBURG GETS TIE
Milwaukee (U.P.)—The Milwaukee Braves have signed a full working agreement with the Leesburg, Fla., club of the Class D Florida State League. Player assignments to the Florida club will be announced at a future date by the Braves.

Local Club Takes 12th In Trapshoot

Medford Gun club wound up 12th with 37 points in the Oregon Journal telegraphic trapshoot after the final round of regular competition and is among 25 participants eligible to contend in a grand shoot-off in Portland on May 13.

Champion for the regular shooting was the Jefferson-Pine Grove club. It had 20 wins, 11 ties and no losses and a 51 point total, nipping the McMinnville Elks who had 50 counters.

Medford record was 15 wins, seven ties and nine losses.

Lost Three
The locals with a 73 lost to three of their four rivals last weekend. Jefferson-Pine Grove had a 75 as did Hillsboro. Herminston shot a 74 count. Hood River had a 73 score to tie Medford.
