

Frank Strafacci Scores Victories In North-South

Pinehurst, N.C.—(U.P.)—Frank Strafacci of Garden City, N.Y., hoped today that he had all of the "bulging bogeys" out of his system and that could go on to win the North and South Amateur Golf Championship for the third time.

Strafacci survived two grueling rounds of match play Wednesday in which he defeated H. H. Haverstick Jr., of Lancaster, Pa., 2 and 1, then established himself as the tournament favorite by eliminating giant killer Howard Everitt of Northfield, N.J., 1-up in 19 holes. Everitt earlier had defeated the tournament medalist, Doug Sanders of Cedartown, Ga., 3 and 2 in the upset of the tournament. Sanders had carded two successive rounds of six-under-par 66's.

Medford will meet Ashland here tomorrow while Klamath Falls entertains Grants Pass in a double header. If Medford's Black Tornado can repeat its Tuesday victory over the Grizzlies and if GP can sweep its stand with the Pelicans, Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass will be locked in a tie for first place and Klamath Falls virtually will be out of the race.

Ashland and Klamath victor-ies would strengthen the hold of the loop-pacing Grizzlies although the other three teams still would be in definite contention. The Friday battles loom as toss ups. Grants Pass and Klamath split before and GP fans feel the odds are against a Caveman sweep on the Pel field. Ashland has won two from Medford and the Tornado one from Ashland.

LONG BALL IMPORTANT Perhaps our memory is short but it seems the long ball — extra base hits — is playing a bigger role in Southern Oregon Conference baseball. Quite a few homers have been walloped.

CRATER ON PAR Crater, an A-2 contender which will join the A-1 ranks next year, looms on near par with the Southern Oregon Conference teams in baseball this spring. Medford had a tie and a one-run win in contention with the Comets. Ashland and Grants Pass had to go extra innings for one-run nods but the Cavemen did follow up the close by an 11 to 0 decision over Crater.

MEDFORDITES TOPS Four Medford high trackmen have turned in the best times in the state so far in their events, according to a rundown made by Bob Swan, prep sports writer for the Portland Oregonian. The bests listed are Wally Larson, :20.4, low hurdles; Mike Russell :51.1, quarter-mile; Wilcey Winchell, 2:02 half-mile and Lew Breazeale, 12 feet 9 inches, Pole vault.

Not listed is Neil Plumley's 53-9/4 shot put for Medford which would place him second to the 57-4 of Glenn Johnson, Beaverton. Larson's :15-2 in the high hurdles is second to the :14.7 by Eric Giberson, Beaverton.

It's interesting that another Russell, Daryl, of Roosevelt, Portland, has a :51.3 time in the quarter, second best to that of Medford's sophomore, Bob Mason, Crater, is listed at second best with 21 feet in the broad jump. Check back into our files finds an early season jump of 21-1/2 for Wayne Close, Medford, and 21-1/4 for Mike Hawkins, also Medford.

TWO FINEST TEAMS After the Grants Pass Rotary club track meet last Saturday, George Curtis, sportswriter for the Daily Courier of GP, termed the Medford and GP teams "the two finest 1956 high school track teams in Oregon."

Curtis also says, "coaches who want to compete on even terms with Medford next year will have to improve their own squads. They can't wait for Medford to slip, because (Coach Bob) Newland's crew is pretty certain to be strong again." He points to the top performers Medford will have back next year.

NOT WHOLE ANSWER Poor spectator accommodations for track at Grants Pass are cause for lament by Curtis. He feels that, if and when a permanent grandstand replaces the temporary bleachers, crowds watching track will be larger.

If larger, more comfortable stands are to attract larger crowds, Grants Pass fans will have to be different from those here. Medford has the facilities for handling huge numbers of cinder observers but still the crowds are meager compared to what is deserving for a state championship team year after year.

Could this year's Southern Oregon Conference baseball race wind up like the one in 1955 — with a play-off necessary to determine the league and district champion. (Klamath Falls, and Grants Pass met on Medford's neutral field in the decider.) The way this season's chase has been going the possibility of a deadlock again in the final standings is strong. But it's too early right now to tell. Perhaps, this week end's contention will give a better indication.

Medford will meet Ashland here tomorrow while Klamath Falls entertains Grants Pass in a double header. If Medford's Black Tornado can repeat its Tuesday victory over the Grizzlies and if GP can sweep its stand with the Pelicans, Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass will be locked in a tie for first place and Klamath Falls virtually will be out of the race.

Exley Shines In OSC Win

Corvallis—(U.P.)—A bases loaded double by Jerry Exley in the 10th inning gave Oregon State a 3-2 Northern Division baseball win over Idaho here yesterday afternoon.

At the end of the scheduled nine-inning game the score was tied at 1-1. The Vandals pushed across a single tally in their half of the extra frame only to have Exley's blast more than equalize it.

Idaho's Doug Randall went all the way on the mound, striking out 10 and giving up 7 hits. Dave Gambee worked 9 2/3 innings for the Beavers, allowing 5 Vandal hits while striking out 10.

South Dakota ranks sixth in the number of beef cattle per square mile with an average of 35 head.
