

Suds Swamp SF Seals 6-1 In PC League

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

The Seattle Rainiers floated back to the top of the Pacific Coast league pond last night on the tide of water doings in the state of California.

The Rainiers swamped San Francisco 6-1 in the only game that the loop could launch. In Sacramento and Hollywood the weather was for boats and the Portland-San Diego encounter was played Monday out of schedule.

Don Fracchia, who used to be a Seal, pitched the win for Seattle. It was his third victory without defeat this season and the second time he has whipped San Francisco.

Fracchia held the Seals to six singles and did not let them score until the seventh when he had a 6-0 lead.

Sloppy Game
The game was almost as sloppy as if it had been played in rainy California. Each team made four errors with three of the Rainier runs and the lone SF tally being unearned.

The Rainiers won it early with two in the first and three all unearned in the third.

Hayes' Refusal May Draw Buckeyes Another Penalty

Chicago—(U.P.)—Ohio State, already on probation and barred from the Rose Bowl for at least one year, may draw another penalty from the Big Ten before the probationary period has expired, it appeared today.

Commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, in announcing a five pronged program for rehabilitation of the Buckeyes, left no doubt of his dissatisfaction with the cooperation of Ohio State football Coach Woodrow Hayes.

Hayes' refusal to account for assistance he gave football players, Wilson said "makes it impossible . . . to reach any positive conclusion . . . and accordingly leaves unresolved at present this phase of the investigation."

"I therefore find it necessary to explore and pursue further possible channels to compel a full disclosure on his part."

UO Unbeaten Marks Face Tests in ND

University of Oregon, Eugene—(Special)—Oregon's track and baseball teams put their unbeaten Northern Division records on the line again this weekend against Washington and Idaho while the Webfoot golf and tennis teams open conference play against the Huskies.

Coach Bill Bowerman's track squad goes after its 12th straight division victory in Seattle against the Huskies in a meet which may well decide the 1956 dual meet championship. Both teams have won two meets this year and have a number of outstanding individual performers.

The Duck baseballers, trying for their fourth straight pennant, were to rely on Don Lane, the sophomore lefthander, and S an Dmochowsky or Terry Madrox to do the pitching against the Vandals. Lane and Dmochowsky were easy winners last week in the opening series against Oregon State.

Bill Dellinger and Jim Bailey, who will face Australia's John Landy in Los Angeles on May 5, are both scheduled for extra duty against the Huskies with Dellinger set for the mile and two-mile while Bailey will be entered in the 880, mile and the relay.

Morris Key Man
Coach Bill Bowerman said Thursday Oregon's hopes for remaining unbeaten depended on how well the other Ducks do in a number of events which appear doubtful. Jack Morris and Jack Brown, the Duck football backs, face Dean Derby of the Huskies in the sprints, Gordon Dalquist will be a key man with races scheduled in the 440, 880 and relay and he hopes to have help in the quarter-mile from Arden Christensen and Dave Talbot, Doug Basham must run his best in the high hurdles and ers approximately $400 per year over a five year period from his personal funds, but he refused to name the beneficiaries.

Investigation disclosed that the football coaching staff, acting as an employment agency, agreed with certain employers that athletes given jobs would be paid wages without actually working during the football practice season with the work time to be made up later.

"In effect," Wilson said, "these boys were being advanced monthly wages for either two or three months with no enforceable liability to repay in kind or in services."

Black Tornado Track Crew Faces Ashland

Medford high track men Mike Russell, Pete Kershaw, Les Lingscheit and Wally Larson turned in outstanding performances this week as the Black Tornado groomed for its Saturday dual engagement with Ashland.

The Tornado will face the Grizzlies starting at 2 p.m. Saturday on the Medford oval. Ashland may give the Tornado boys stiff tests in several of the events but Medford is the overwhelming favorite on the basis of outstanding performances in previous meets.

Russell ran the fastest 330-yard race in many seasons for Medford on Wednesday time trials with a :35.2 mark. He eclipsed his previous fast time this year of :36.1. Kershaw also beat Russell's old time with a :35.4 showing. Pete's previous fastest was :36.6.

Better Mark
Lingscheit ran a 660-yard time trial of 1:25 flat on Wednesday to better Wilcey Winchell's earlier mark of 1:25.9. Newland said that Larson has done "real good" in practice in his high and low hurdle specialties.

The mentor stated that Winchell, who owns the best time in the state in the half-mile, will run the mile this week in a measure to help him build endurance for the shorter race.

Springer and hurdler Gary Riley were reported on the sick list and dash man Ken Tucker was said to have been in a motorcycle accident yesterday.

Ashland standouts include Stewart Baker in both dashes, Phil Austin in the mile and Gene Parent in the high jump. Witt is a top middle distance man for the Grizzlies.

Washington Tops Scoring In All-City Track Tangle

Spts.—Washington—2 col head . . . Washington grade school won two divisions and was third in the other yesterday to collect high overall honors in the annual all-city track meet at the senior high stadium.

The Washingtonians, taking the Class A and B laurels piled up a total of 89 1/5 points. Roosevelt, which tied with Jefferson for the Class C honors was second high overall with 74 1/5. Other team totals were Jackson 50 1/5, Jefferson 38 1/5 and Lincoln 36 1/5.

Jackson took first in the medley relay in which each school used two runners from each class.

In Class A Washington ran up 31 1/5 counters, Jackson 27 1/5, Roosevelt 25 1/5, Lincoln 10 1/5 and Jefferson 2 1/5.

Washington's Class B score was 33. Roosevelt had 23, Jackson 16, Lincoln 14 and Jefferson 10.

Five Records Fall
Jefferson and Roosevelt took Class C with 26. Washington was a shade behind with 25. Lincoln got 12 and Jackson 7.

Five records were shattered during the afternoon. James Cabler of Roosevelt in Class B heaved the baseball 210 feet 3 inches for his third record busting cast of the season. Henry Mack of Washington who tied the 220 mark in a meet earlier this week set a new standard of 7.42 seconds in the Class A 60 yard sprint. The Class A 220 record then fell before the 28.35 time of Paul Garren of Roosevelt.

In Class C Scott Hampson of Washington set a new mark of 7.96 in the 60 and Mike Barnes of Jefferson a new distance of 198-10 in the baseball throw.
