Oregon Blue Star Mothers Close Annual Convention

Blue Star Mothers of Oregon closed the annual convention in Medford yesterday with election and installation of officers. Mrs. Oliver H. Simons, Grants Pass, was elected state president to replace Mrs. Rex Note, Medford, who has served the past year.

Other new officers are Mrs. Edwin Barnes, Roseburg, first vice-president; Mrs. Fred Middlebush, Medford, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen Watson, Medford, third vice-president; Mrs. Charles Kretschmer, Grants Pass, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Ruth Harmon, Grants Pass, financial secretary; Mrs. Willis Wilson, Grants Pass, recording secretary; Mrs. Jesse O. Cullison, Grants Pass, treasurer; Mrs. Note, chairman.

Plans were made to change the annual convention from April to May in order to coincide with visits of the national president to west coast chapters. Mrs. Nellie Leonard, Detroit, Mich., national president, will visit Medford in June. The annual national convention will be held in Columbus, Ohio, in October.

Convention events included a banquet and memorial service Wednesday evening, and a luncheon yesterday noon at a First Christian church. Speaker was Maj. Gen. J. H. Hicks, Jackson county director of civil defense, who explained how the organization would operate in time of national emergency. During the convention Mrs. James Cech was introduced in recognition of her "outstanding record" of service to the Camp White Veterans' administration domiciliary at Camp White. Mrs. Cech has given 2,000 hours of voluntary service at the camp, and this is said to be more than any other Blue Star Mother in the United States has given for service to institutionalized veterans.

Mrs. Kretschmer has received an award for 500 hours of voluntary service.

The local Blue Star Mother project concerns the wheel chair patients at Camp White. Grants Pass chapter members also serve at the Camp White domiciliary, and women of the Roseburg chapter work in the VA hospital in that city.

It is stated that there are 173 VA institutions in the nation, and that Blue Star Mothers are at work in 67 of these. The organization's membership is concentrated mostly in the eastern states, and is new in Oregon with the first chapters having been organized only eight years ago. There are eight chapters in the state, and the Medford chapter is three years old.
