The luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. It is pointed out by officers that at the group's last meeting it was decided that future meetings will be held a half-hour earlier. In the past they have met at 1:30 p.m.

Hostesses for the Tuesday luncheon and the afternoon will be Mrs. Everett Gillespie, Mrs. D. A. Hutchison and Mrs. Larry Rose.

Study Club

Wednesday Study club will meet May 2 at 2 p.m. in Girls Community club. Mrs. N. T. Hodges will give a program on America; folk music and Stephen Foster. Mrs. Hazel Flurry will report on a current news topic.

OSC Announces Week End Events

Corvallis—Mothers of Oregon State college students will be honored May 4 to 6 at Mothers week end on campus. More than 1000 mothers are expected to attend.

Week end events planned include campus tours, a luncheon for mothers and their sons and daughters, firesides in the various student living organizations, a fashion show, comic opera, interfraternity sing, play, dance demonstration and flower show.

Special services are planned Sunday in Corvallis churches for mothers and students. The OSC Mothers' club will announce winners of its 1956-57 scholarships at the annual business meeting May 5. Seventeen full-tuition study grants were awarded last year to outstanding and worthy students.

Mrs. Marshall Dunham, Lakeview, Oregon's "Mother of the Year," has been invited as a special guest. All four of her children have attended OSC.

Miss Helen Hume, Oregon City junior, is general student chairman. Mrs. S. W. McHugh of Corvallis is Mothers club president.

Mercy circle of First Presbyterian church has planned a May day breakfast for Tuesday, May 1, at the church. Breakfast will be served from 7 to 11 a.m. and the public is invited to attend. The committee states that reservations are not necessary.

Mrs. Nettie Grover Honored at Luncheon

Four friends of Mrs. Nettie Grover, 806 Adams lane, a shut-in for a number of years, called on her Tuesday, April 24 and a no host covered dish luncheon was served. The group presented Mrs. Grover a bouquet of tulips.

Those who arranged the event and attended were Mrs. Chris Wolff, Mrs. N. L. Erskine, Mrs.

Gilbert Blackburn of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. M. E. Olson.

Mrs. Grover's daughter, Ruth, now of San Francisco, is a friend of the four women who called on Mrs. Grover Tuesday. They form a small informal club, organized in 1920.
