

Nurse is Speaker For Baby Sitters At Last Meeting

Mrs. Cleo Kent, a public health nurse for Jackson county, showed a film on baby sitting at the last meeting of the Baby Sitters' club of Medford. The meeting was held at the home of the coordinator, Mrs. Harold Geige, 1538 Springbrook road. Mrs. Kent led discussion following the film. All the sitters agreed to take certain medical tests to accompany their doctor's certificates, and also to have chest x-rays. Plans are also being made for members of the group to take a first aid course. Mrs. Geige states that members of the club are all mothers themselves and that they are being further trained in order to make them more efficient and dependable. All calls for sitters are channelled through the club.
