

Miss Huson May Queen At University

Miss Margaret Huson of Medford has been named May Queen at Willamette university, and is reigning over the May weekend festivities May 4-6, a university release announces.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell E. Huson, 45 Lindley street, the queen, is a senior music major and member of Delta Gamma sorority. Miss Huson has served as president of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music fraternity, and Associated Women Students. She was song leader for Delta Gamma and president of the orchestra, and treasurer of Unesco and the junior class.

Miss Huson was winner of an Elks Lumber company scholarship to Willamette university.

court are Miss Margaret Knockenhauer of San Mateo, Calif., and Miss Lorraine Landrud of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Huson and their youngest daughter, Dorelyn, are in Salem today to attend the coronation ceremony for their daughter. Queen Margaret's younger sister, Miss Laura Mae Huson, is a junior student at the college.

Miss Laura Mae Huson's fiancé, Douglas Wall, also a student at the school, will serve as Queen Margaret's escort this afternoon until the arrival of her fiancé, Kenneth Brown, Medford, a student at Southern Oregon college.

The coronation at four o'clock will be followed by an all-school barbecue and a presentation of the musical comedy, "Kiss Me Kate" and the evening will close with a reception for students, alumni and guests. Saturday's program includes an inter-sorority and inter-fraternity sing.

Queen Margaret's costume for the festivities is a white gown with very full skirt.

Mr. Huson will return to Medford tonight, while Mrs. Huson and Dorelyn will remain until Sunday.

Former Medford Actress Playing Role in Portland

Dolores Gottfried Berg, formerly of Medford, makes her Portland stage debut tonight in the Grace Kelly role of "Margot" in the Portland Civic theater's production of "Dial 'M' for Murder."

In 1954 Mrs. Berg played the leading role of "Daisy" in the Medford Footlighters play "Lo and Behold." She was a member of the Tudor Guild's board of directors, and was the first copy writer at radio station KBOY. Mrs. Berg is now employed in the program and continuity departments of Portland's CBS radio affiliate, station KOIN.

Following successful runs in London and New York's Broadway, Frederick Knott's "Dial 'M' for Murder" was made into a movie by Alfred Hitchcock. Grace Kelly, Ray Milland and Robert Cummings played the leading roles in the film version.

The suspense-laden murder mystery will be presented on the main stage of the Portland Civic theater May 4 through May 19.

Carl Ritchie, a member of the 1950 Shakespeare Festival cast and long-time Festival supporter, is displaying fourteen opaque water color set designs in the main lobby of the theater during the run of the play.

Mr. Ritchie is teaching speech at Willamette university and works at radio station KSLM in Salem. He is an actor-director with Salem's very successful "In-the-round-theater," the Pentacle.

Dinner Honors Howard Pierce

Employees of the Central Point branch of the First National bank of Portland sponsored a dinner last evening which honored Howard Pierce, assistant manager and personnel manager and Mrs. Pierce. Mr. Pierce is being transferred to the main office in Portland.

The dinner was held at Omar's in Ashland. Present were Richard Isaacs, manager of the branch, and Mrs. Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hueners, Medford, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shafer, all Central Point, Miss Lucille Abbott, Sams Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, Medford.

Mr. Pierce was presented a gift from the employees of the bank. Mr. Hueners is to replace Mr. Pierce at the bank. Mr. Pierce will leave Sunday evening for Portland while Mrs. Pierce and their sons, Larry, 12, and Ricky, 10, will remain here until after the close of school. The Pierce home is at 502 Alice street.

New Swim Class Announced at Y

With warmer weather coming to the Rogue valley, swimming classes at the Medford YMCA are in full swing, the Y reports. Latest class to be announced by the Y for valley homemakers is the morning swimming class, open to both the beginner and the woman who feels she needs to develop more confidence in her ability to swim in deep water.

This latest class will begin Tuesday, May 8, at 10 a.m., and will run each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter for eight sessions. Those interested in attending the class should register by calling the Y, 2-6295, or by being present for the Tuesday class.

Council for Blind To Hold Election

Officers for the coming year will be elected at a meeting of Jackson County chapter, Associated Council of the Blind, Sunday, May 6. It will be held at 2 p.m. in St. Mark's Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and Oakdale avenue.

Members and friends are asked to note the change of date. It is stated that since Mothers' day falls on the regular meeting date of the chapter, the change to one week earlier was found advisable.

In addition to election, members will complete plans for the annual white cane sale.

In Pullman

Mrs. S. E. Phillips, Big Boulder orchards, plans to be in Pullman, Wash., this week end to visit her son, Douglas Phillips, a student at Washington State college, and to attend Mothers' week end events there.

Washington PTA Hears Program By School Band

Washington school band entertained at the last meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association. Under the direction of I. A. Mirick, they presented a program of waltzes, marches and polkas including "The School Grade Polka," composed by Mr. Mirick especially for children from the fourth to sixth grade.

Thanks was extended to Mr. Mirick by Robert Sage, principal, and he was commended for the work he has done with the band.

Dr. Witter from the Oregon State Board of Health spoke on the results of the recent dental survey taken in the state of Oregon. Colored slides were shown to depict some of the actual cases found during the survey. Dr. Witter then answered questions pertaining to dental health.

The meeting opened with the flag presentation by Joan Holmes, Donna Johnson, Sheril Linn, and Judy Cofman, members of Mrs. Cooksey's Girl Scout troop. Mrs. Norman Neathamer reading of the PTA Prayer.

Room count was won by two rooms. Mrs. Ford's first grade and Mrs. Collins fifth grade were tied for the honor.

During the business portion of the meeting presided over by Mrs. Ray Alder, president, it was voted to use the funds raised during the year for a tape recorder, a stapler or a wick pen for each teacher for use in her room, coffee cups for PTA use, $100 to be put into the library fund with $25 of that amount for the purchase of records. It was announced that May 11, was the date for a musical program to be presented by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Refreshments were served by mothers of pupils in the fifth grade and child care was provided by Mrs. Herbert Gifford's Camp Fire Girls.
