Many Attend Presbyterian Family Night

Over 300 persons attended a Family night dinner Wednesday evening at First Presbyterian church, the largest number ever to have attended such an event at the church, officers said. Hope and Candlelight circle members had charge of the serving.

Table decorations were done by Mrs. Alex McDonald, Mrs. W. A. Wolf and Mrs. H. S. Morris. They used flowers with figurines of girls and boys and miniature models of the church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West gave the invocation and concluding prayer. The program was planned to present a picture of Christian education being given in the church and was conducted by the Christian education director, Lawrence Clark.

Theme for the evening was vacation church school which will be held at the church June 18 to June 29. Mrs. J. K. Hoey, general superintendent of the church school, spoke on the need for bringing into the school this year children not associated with other churches.

Mrs. G. C. Corum spoke of the activities planned for the kindergarten department at the school. Mrs. W. H. Jamison told of primary department work, and Mrs. R. E. Cordon talked regarding the junior department. J. A. Edson was speaker for the junior high school section.

Mrs. George Flanagan gave the details of a day at Lake Woods where the high school students will spend a week beginning June 10 and the junior high group will go beginning June 17.

Miss Janet Jamison reported on her activities at Children's church held from 11 to 12 Sunday mornings, for children who have attended Sunday school during first service.

Mrs. Otis Swisher told about the teacher training course which she is conducting every Sunday and about the new church library. Mrs. Wayne Jamison directed the juniors in two numbers done with bells and Mrs. D. F. Huson led group singing.

Miss Jamison directed the smaller children in "song fun" and James McDonald provided moving pictures.

Disneyland Theme For Canoe Fete

Eugene—A Canoe Fete with floats built around a "Disneyland" theme will be the main feature of annual Junior Weekend at the University of Oregon May 17, 18, and 19.

The fete was revived last spring after a 14-year absence. It will be held on the millrace Friday night, or Saturday night in case of rain. Student living organizations will construct the floats and special lighting effects and orchestral accompaniment are planned for the fete.

The first event of the weekend will be the Junior Prom Thursday night. Jerry Fielding's band will play for the dance in McArthur court.

Saturday will bring the all-campus luncheon and the all-campus evening sing. The Ore-

Committee Makes First Plans for Y Smorgasbord

Plans for the second annual YMCA Smorgasbord, to be held in conjunction with the Y spring auction on May 19, were discussed at a meeting of the planning committee Wednesday morning, May 2, at the Y.

Solicitation will be handled differently this year, it is announced. Y members are being contacted to make donations toward the cost of the food, all of which will be prepared in the Y kitchen under the supervision of Mrs. Alex Tummers, member of the planning committee.

Included on the menu will be meat and fish dishes, vegetables and salads, all from special recipes of Mrs. Tummers.

Members on the planning committee are Mrs. John Mansfield, general chairman; Mrs. James Moerder and Mrs. Tummers, co-chairmen in charge of arrangements; Mrs. I. M. Eitrem and Mrs. Clifford Griffiths, co-chairmen in charge of contacting members; Mrs. James Winslow and Mrs. Fred Baggenstos, co-chairmen in charge of tickets; Mrs. Paul Harper and Mrs. H. P. Bosworth, committee members.

Serving hours will be from 5 to 7:30 p. m. Saturday, May 19. Tickets will be on sale at the Y office. Large groups which reserve space when tickets are bought will be served together in one of the smaller club rooms adjacent to the Social hall.

Twenty-Nine Attend Townsend Club Session

Twenty-nine members and two visitors attended the last meeting of Townsend Harmony Auxiliary club last week. Mrs. Maud Arnold presided. Four club members with birthdays in May were presented a decorated cake from Mrs. A. W. Ellison. They were Mrs. Ethel Hartley, U. S. Conner, William Comstock and Albert Kissinger.

A letter from Senator Wayne L. Morse relating to the Townsend Plan was read by Mr. Ellison, besides national news from a Washington staff.

The next club meeting will be held Wednesday, May 9, following a covered dish luncheon at 12:30 p. m., at Carpenters' Union hall, 123 1/2 West Main street.

Visitors are cordially invited to attend.

To Elect

Election of officers will be held at a meeting of Medford Zonta club set for Thursday, May 10, at 12 noon in the Jackson hotel.

gon Mothers' club will meet Saturday morning as a part of Mothers' Weekend.

Douglas Basham of Portland, junior class president, is chairman for the weekend, assisted by Miss Sally Jo Creig, Salem, and Miss Nan Hagedorn, Prineville, junior class representatives. Canoe Fete chairman is Darrel Britton, Medford, newly elected president of the student body.

Hospitals Plan Open House To Observe National Week

The public will have the opportunity again this year of visiting local hospitals in observance of annual National Hospital week. Anyone interested in calling the hospitals during the open houses, scheduled on different days at each hospital, is invited.

The first open house will be at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital on Wednesday, May 9 between 2 and 4:30 p. m., sponsored by the hospital auxiliary. Refreshments will be served.

The next will be Thursday, May 10 at Osteopathic hospital when visitors will be conducted through the hospital during the afternoon hours and refreshments will be served.

Sacred Heart hospital will hold open house Saturday, May 12 from 2 to 4:30 p. m., with Providence guild members in charge.

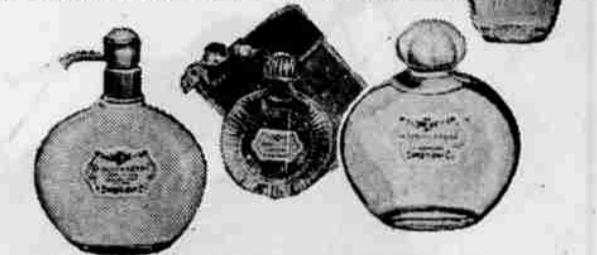

Other activities at Sacred Heart hospital will be a visit by members of the Medford Senior High school Future Nurses club, with Mrs. Juanita Anderson, adviser. The young women will be shown about the institution and served refreshments. Each year members of the club visit the hospital during the national observance.

On Thursday, also at Sacred Heart, Sen. Phillip Lowery, and Robert Boyer and Robert Duncan, candidates for state representative from this county, will be guests for a tour of the institution and they also will be dinner guests of the hospital staff.

At Rogue Valley Memorial hospital those who attend the open house Wednesday will see various displays including a detailed floor plan for the proposed Rogue Valley Memorial hospital building; a collection of pictures of nurses' uniforms and of patients.
