Miss Sonja Peterson, senior at Medford High school, has been awarded the Nancy Black Wallace scholarship in music, given by Willamette university every four years. Miss Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson, 2574 Jacksonville highway, is both a violinist and pianist and also sings. The scholarship, which is for $2,000, will be used by Miss Peterson to pay tuition for a four-year course in music. A member of choir, Madrigal club, orchestra, band and National Honor society, Miss Peterson was voted "Girl of the Year" by her classmates in 1955 and was one of the ten finalists to Girls' State.

Griffin Creek Club To Hold Election

Griffin Creek—Election and installation of officers will be conducted at a Griffin Creek School club meeting in the school cafeteria Monday, May 7. Stephen Whipple, music instructor, will play several piano selections.

Mothers of first and second grade students will serve refreshments.

This will be last meeting of the school year.

News About Books From the Library

About eight million people heard concerts by symphony orchestras during the past winter, according to a recent estimate. This is in addition to the millions who heard concerts on radio and television, and the still larger group who listened to symphony music on records.

It adds up to a very large number of people with an interest in music, and increasing promise that the new leisure in the years ahead will find still more people finding pleasure in music.

Music Week

In observance of National Music Week, May 6-12, the Medford Public Library has arranged a display of books and music.

Typical are the books for the general reader who wants to learn more about music. "Our Musical Heritage," by Curt Sachs is a short history of music, the purpose of which is to give an idea of the essential trends of thought and style. The author discusses music chronologically against a background of social and aesthetic influences.

David Ewen's "Home Book of Musical Knowledge," covers a lot of ground and anyone interested in music will find this type of book indispensable. His "The Complete Book of 20th Century Music," is a biographical interpretive, and critical guide to the music of our era.

For Opera Lovers

Among the books for opera lovers "The Opera Reader," edited by Louis Biancolli, tells the stories of the chief operas in sprightly fashion. Others are "The Metropolitan Opera Guide" and "Stories of the Great Operas" by Ernest Newman.

A recent addition is "Toscanini," by Samuel Chotzinoff. The great Italian conductor is seen at work and at play both here and in Europe—in all his fierce concentration on music. T. R. Ybarra's "Caruso," is a lively, warm account of the most acclaimed opera singer in history. There is also material available on the lives of other outstanding musical figures.

About Hi-Fi

To turn to the recording end of music there are two new books on High Fidelity. Donald Carl Hoefler's "Low Cost Hi-Fi," and "The New High Fidelity Handbook" by Irving Greene and James R. Radcliffe. The former contains hundreds of hints for budget high fidelity. Every hi-fi fan can do-it-himself and get the best in a custom sound system. The latter book is a practical guide for the purchase, assembly, installation, maintenance, and enjoyment of high fidelity music systems.

These and other books on the subject are available at the Medford Public Library and branches of Jackson County Library District.

Boy Scouts

Troop 8

Troop 8, Boy Scouts of America, held their annual charter dinner at the Guild Hall of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Tuesday, May 1.

After the dinner a meeting was held in which the following boys received their tenderfoot rank: Steven Swartsley, Tommy Harvey, Kenneth Rodgers, Jimmy Snodgrass, Lloyd Hammons, Tim O'Mara and Jerry Zimlicka. Harry Barneburg, neighborhood commissioner, assisted by C. A. Stothers, conducted the tenderfoot investiture.

Joyce Swartsley and Vic Kingla conducted a court of honor. Advanced to second class scouts were Earl Dalton, Gerry Winetrot, Gary Griffin and Walter Connor. Jim Barry and Kim Griffin were advanced to first class scouts.

Mike Morrissey and Richard Connolly were advanced to star scout. Mike Phillips and Philip Humphreys were promoted to life scout.

Jim Doyle, Jim Johnston, and Tom Barry were graduated into explorer post eight. At the close of the meeting Harry Barneburg presented the troop charter to Institutional Representative Elwood Hedberg.

Scoutmaster "Red" Stothers announced the camporee on Agate desert May 19 and 20. Troop 8 will spend the week of July 8-15 at the Boy Scout camp at Lake of the Woods. All registrations must be in by May 22.

Ethel Says:

We can't all be blessed with beautiful skins but thanks to Frances Denney we can now perform miracles on complexions marred by large pores, surface blemishes, and blackheads. The very first time you use this treatment you will see results. Your skin will be clearer, prominent pores will appear to be smaller, fading. The skin will feel tighter, in contour, look smoother, glow with a new, fresh aliveness.

The Visible Pore Kit contains three items, used together in three simple steps to rid your skin of the dulling veil of blackheads and visible pores.

Miss Claire Shoemaker, traveling Beauty Consultant from Frances Denney will be in Hudson's Pharmacy for two days May 7th and 8th to help you with any skin problems you might have. Do come in.
