Three Members of County Rural Board To Be Chosen

Three members will be elected to the Jackson county rural board and one member to the non-high board at the annual school meeting Monday, June 18. For the rural board, one member will be elected from zone three consisting of Lone Pine and Howard districts. Incumbent is H. F. Padgham. Dewey and Kenwood districts will no longer be a part of the rural school district because they are being annexed to Medford and Central Point districts by action of the boundary board before the end of the current fiscal year. One member will be elected from zone four which consists of Jacksonville, Griffin Creek, Ruch, Applegate, West Side and Oak Grove districts. Incumbent is Glenn Smith. One member will be elected from zone five which includes Talent and Pinehurst districts. Incumbent from zone five is Mrs. M. O. Grove. Mrs. Grove has served one year of a three year term. According to a legal opinion from the district attorney's office, Mrs. Grove will be ineligible to complete the remaining two years of the term since she is a resident of Phoenix district. The district has reached the status of a first class district and has voted to be removed from the rural district. Nominating petitions may be secured from the county superintendent's office or from the clerks of the districts concerned, according to Alf B. Mekvold, county superintendent. The petitions must be filed in the county superintendent's office not later than May 18. Acceptances of the nominees must be made before June 2. One member of the non-high board will be elected from zone two consisting of Elk-Trail and Shady Cove districts. Incumbent is D. H. Barber. Nominations for candidates for membership on the non-high board should be made only by petition filed with county-school superintendent at least 15 days prior to the date of election. Mekvold said. They must be signed by not less than 30 legal voters of the zone in which the candidate is a resident. Unless the nominee files an acceptance at least 10 days prior to the election, the nomination shall be void, Mekvold pointed out. A candidate nominated must be a qualified school election voter. Filing Deadlines The last day for filing petitions for the non-high board is June 2, and the last day for filing acceptance by the nominees is June 7. Nominating petitions may be secured from the county school superintendent's office or from the clerks of the district concerned. Since Oak Grove and West Side districts will not become a part of the new consolidated Medford district until the beginning of the next fiscal year, the districts have drawn up budgets under the rural school district. Residents of the districts will vote on the rural school district levy May 21. The districts will also participate in nomination of candidates for the rural board and voting at the annual meeting.

Erring Soldier Has Opportunity

Washington —(U.P.)— For the soldier gone astray in today's Army all is not lost. While he serves time, time serves him.

The erring GI has the opportunity to improve his education or learn a particular trade or skill. And he also is taught how to develop a sense of responsibility. The Army now maintains five disciplinary barracks under the supervision of the provost marshal general's office. Their objective is to restore a man to honorable service or to return him to civilian life as a useful citizen.

The imprisoned soldier is gainfully employed eight hours each day. Competent instructors teach him woodworking, tailoring, shoemaking, farming and other trades.

Recently, the Army said, a graduate of its machine repair school took a civilian job and proved to be a top craftsman. He was so good that his employer offered to hire anyone the school could send him.

No Solitary Cells

This employer had no way of knowing the soldier became skilled while serving in a disciplinary barracks. The information wasn't on the school certificate nor was it volunteered by the barracks.

The military penal system has kept up with social progress. The musty, darkened solitary confinement cells are gone forever. Now each man in isolation gets enough light, the Army said, "to read the small print of the Bible."

And the toughest punishment is only the restriction of privileges and food. However, he is sure to receive more than enough daily calories to sustain the average human being.

A continuous education program attempts to instill in a man an insight into why he broke the rules. The soldier is taught to follow a positive attitude so he can live a worthwhile life.

The Army is hoping this system will develop in the soldier a sense of responsibility to himself and to society.

Illinois Man Seeks

Job as Pigeon-Catcher

Rockford, Ill. — (U.P.) — J. H. Andrews has volunteered to become a professional pigeon-catcher—at a fee of $1,000 a year.

Rockford has long been troubled with pigeons messing its public buildings and sidewalks.

Andrews submitted a bid to the county board of supervisors to construct 10 pigeon traps and operate them from November to March, or "until a reasonable control has been reached each year."

His bid also included $200 for initial construction costs of the traps. He wants a five-year contract.
