Nation Faced With Choice of Growth, Stevenson Says

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Adlai Stevenson says the nation is faced with the choice of an orderly growth along balanced harmonious lines or the present administration's "policy of drift."

Stevenson appeared at the Los Angeles Press Club last night while his political opponent for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sen. Estes Kefauver, campaigned on the other side of town.

Leadership Said Lost
The former Illinois governor charged the "policy of drift" in world affairs had lost this country the leadership it enjoyed four years ago. He said the worsening world position was not concealed by the frantic trips "of our misguided missile, the secretary of state."

Kefauver Confident
Kefauver expressed confidence he would "do well" in the state's June 5 primary. He said he believed results of the Indiana preference primary balloting was "quite a victory" for him even though President Eisenhower collected a majority of the votes.

While Stevenson attacked the present administration, Kefauver used his "grass roots" approach in his California vote getting campaign. The lanky senator braved a light rain to shake hands with persons in downtown streets of cities he toured yesterday from Santa Barbara to Torrance.

Pyatt was still unconscious and in critical condition today after spending much of the night in surgery. He was wounded in the head by O'Connor after the officer, who had gone to serve a warrant for a misdemeanor on Pyatt, was cut down by shots from a .22 caliber pistol.

District Attorney John Pickett of Coos county filed a first degree murder charge against Pyatt yesterday.
Pyatt was flown here late yesterday.

Central Point Jaycees Schedule Clean Up Week
Central Point —The Central Point Junior Chamber of Commerce has dedicated May 12 through 26 as "clean up Central Point week." Trucks have been scheduled to pick up all rubbish during that time, Jaycee officials said.

Jaycees have urged Central Point residents to pile trash in front of buildings to make pick-up easier.

NO PINK ELEPHANTS
Caledonia, Mich. —(U.P.)—Customers in Russ Allen's tavern have stopped seeing pink elephants in favor of red birds. Allen complained someone dipped 12 pigeons and chickens in red paint and turned them loose in his establishment.
