

Program of Church Represented in Anniversary Rites

Eagle Point—About 120 persons attended 50th anniversary services at Eagle Point Community Bible church May 6. The Rev. Floyd Pollock, former pastor, gave the address on the theme, "That Ye Go Forward."

Representing Sunday schools were Jane and Ruth Westover and Doris Corliss from the Antelope area, who sang. The Rev. and Mrs. Elcho Redding and children, Mary Ellen, Miriam and LeRoy, sang in the Marathi language. The family is here on furlough from the Evangelical Alliance Mission in India. They were in native Indian costume and represented the foreign mission work which the church supports.

Charles Sturgill, representing home missions, also sang. The choir, directed by Miss Gayle Turner, furnished songs. Included in the program was dedication of an organ recently presented the church as a gift from friends of the institution. Mrs. Tom Shearlin was organist.

A ground-breaking ceremony for an educational unit to be constructed soon was done by the elders. They are J. C. Lusk, Carl Esch and J. H. Stanley. The pastor, the Rev. Joseph Munshaw, also participated in that ceremony.

A reception was held and assisting at the tables were Mrs. Ray Arthur and Mrs. Lusk. Deaconesses in charge were Mrs. Harry Hanscom, Mrs. David Kahl, Mrs. Darrel Stanley, Mrs. Ben Kingery and Mrs. Shearlin.

Interchurch Program Set To Open Here on Sunday

An inter-church daily devotional program, to be sponsored by the Medford Council of Church Women, and the Medford Ministerial association will begin next Sunday. Wide participation by members of local churches is anticipated. The program consists of a daily time of prayer and worship in individual homes for an eight-day period. For each day of the week there is a story of real life shared by a Christian family which is to be read aloud. The stories, from the devotional booklet, "Pages of Power," then are discussed in the family group. Prayer and Bible reading concludes the worship.

In many of the participating churches, sermons emphasizing the value of Bible reading and the importance of worship in the home will be preached, Sunday. At these services the congregations will receive materials to guide them in family and individual reading periods.

Announcing the beginning of the inter-church Bible centered activity, the Rev. Escil Hiser, chairman of the daily devotions project committee, said, "Through this program in Medford, our people will seek to find strength of spirit and a clearer understanding and appreciation of the role of our Bible in daily life and worship.

"Because basic attitudes toward religion are developed through the relationships of the family, the coming week of family worship has high significance for those whose lives are enriched by such Christian experience," he added.

The Daily Devotions program is an officially adopted emphasis of the Oregon Council of Churches, with resources and counsel from the committee on the use and understanding of the Bible, division of Christian education, National Council of the Churches of Christ.

Displays in three store windows on Main st., and programs by the local radio stations will also call attention to this community-wide program.

Following this week of emphasis the radio recordings, designed to promote the use of the

On the Roll

Far more than half the people of the United States have their names on church roll books. In all probability your name is included.

When the Roll...

We sing, "When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there." "The Lord Jesus told certain to rejoice that their names were written in Heaven." Elsewhere the Bible speaks of names being "written in the Book of Life."

It is one thing to have your name on a church roll; it is altogether something else to have it on Heaven's roll. Having your name on a church roll is good, if it is a truly Christ honoring and Bible loving church (otherwise it is of no value whatsoever), but church membership itself does not necessarily indicate enrollment in Heaven. The Lord does not make up His roll from church rolls.

"When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there" may be mere words telling something that will never be true. Only they are enrolled in Heaven who have become Christ's true disciples here, who have wholeheartedly turned from sin to the Savior, "who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

When the roll is called up yonder, will YOU be there?
