Erskine Pitches 2nd No-Hitter

Brooklyn — (U.P.) — Carl Erskine, the Brooklyn Dodgers' scrappy little right-hander fighting to overcome an arm ailment, slow-balled his way to the second no-hit, no-run game of his career Saturday in beating the New York Giants, 3-0.

The 29-year-old veteran from Anderson, Ind., used a blazing fast ball to no-hit the Chicago Cubs back on June 19, 1952. His speed was gone today, but his guile and courage carried him through.

A crowd of 17,395 at old Ebbets Field watched in tense silence as Erskine muffed the Giants' bats inning after inning with his tantalizing slow curves. Five balls were hard-hit against him, but two were foul and brilliant fielding by Jackie Robinson, Carl Furillo and Pee Wee Reese prevented the others from becoming hits.
