College Students Plan Summer Rites

Mrs. Robert C. Hart, Grant road, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ann Hart, to Arthur M. Beavens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beavens, Alhambra, Calif.

The engagement was first announced at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority house at Oregon State college where Miss Hart is a senior. Her fiancé is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity at the same school.

Both young people are to be graduated from Oregon State college in June, Miss Hart taking a degree in nursing school education and Mr. Beavens in chemical engineering.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Williams Return From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Williams, 1113 South Riverside avenue, have returned home after spending the past month in the east. The Williams visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Burroughs, Lexington, Mass., and the Burroughs' three daughters, Gail, Monica and Laurie, the latter born in January.

The Williams made the trip by train, traveling east on the City of Portland to Chicago, and returned on the California Zephyr, to San Francisco. While in Chicago, they visited the Art Institute of Chicago where they were particularly interested in a display of about 100 miniature rooms made by Mrs. James Ward Thorne and now a permanent exhibit of the Institute.

The Williams and the Burroughs attended a performance of the Metropolitan Opera company in Boston while in the east, seeing "The Tales of Hoffmann." Miss Lucine Amara, San Francisco soprano and friend of Mrs. Burroughs, sang one of the leading roles. They also saw a performance of the Ziegfeld Follies with Tallulah Bankhead and May Barnes and also saw Motormana and a showing of Cinarama.

Mrs. Burroughs, a soprano, now sings with the Lexington Choral society, directed by Al-Lanham of Boston City col-

Couple Weds In Gold Hill

Gold Hill—The wedding of Joyce Rosecrans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rosecrans of Galls Creek, to Norman Bennett of Kirkland, Ariz., took place at Gold Hill Methodist Community church Sunday, May 6 at 2 p.m.

The Rev. H. A. Dierdorff officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Rosecrans gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a ballerina length white satin gown with a finger tip veil and carried a gardenia corsage. Miss Janyce Rosecrans, twin sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a deep pink satin gown and carried a white corsage edged in pink. The bride's mother wore a figured nylon dress.

Claude Morgan was Mr. Bennett's best man, and William Rosecrans Jr., the bride's brother, was usher.

Mrs. Grace Bruce played the wedding march and Mrs. Norman Gail sang with Mrs. Bruce accompanying her.

The church was decorated with pink and white bouquets of tamarix and spirea. A bouquet of pink dogwood and tall pink candles decorated the piano.

Mrs. J. A. Kofahl and Mrs. Millie Walker arranged the decorations.

The reception was held in the church dining room. The wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Joe Morgan and decorated by Mrs. Joe Morgan Jr. was served by Mrs. Dan Dollarhide. Mrs. Claude Morgan served the punch. Miss Daisy Rosecrans took charge of the presents, and Miss Jackie Wright the gifts.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Woody, grandparents of the bride from Springfield, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bennett and family, Selma, Ore.; and Mrs. Dan Dollarhide, Ashland.

The newlyweds traveled to California for a short honeymoon. Upon their return Mrs. Bennett will resume her studies at the Crater High school and Mr. Bennett will return to Navy duty.
