By UNITED PRESS

United Nations, N.Y.—U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, on the continuing violence in Palestine:
"A cease fire and what happens weeks or months after a cease fire is a little like stopping a motor. You know that immediately after stopping a motor, its temperature rises."

Washington—White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerly on why President Eisenhower rejected a proposed U.S. visit by Russian leaders:
"Right from the start we have been interested . . . in deeds, not words, from the leaders of the Soviet Union. We haven't got those deeds yet."

Denver—New York Gov. Averell Harriman, on whether the Democrats will have a strong civil-rights plank in its 1956 platform:
"We might as well all go fishing this November if the Democratic party deviates from the stand it took on civil rights in 1948 and 1952."

Washington—Former Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, on prospects of opposition to his bid to fill retiring Sen. Walter F. George's seat:
"Some disgruntled politicians are trying to secure a candidate to run against me."

Los Banos, Calif.—Sen. Estes Kefauver, charging the Republican administration with mistreating farmers:
"We know that you are not going to be fooled by false promises. We want the kind of economy in which all the people—farmer and banker—can live in prosperity and peace."

Brisk confidence, still best with woman copes.
Pique and soothe in turns
Soon passion crowns thy hopes.

Is your name difficult to spell? Does it irritate you slightly to note it spelled incorrectly on a letter addressed to you? Eric Maschwitz collects envelopes on which his name is incorrectly spelled. So far he has 49 envelopes on each of which his name is spelled differently. This despite the fact that Maschwitz is a highly successful writer of musical shows and popular songs. Among the many song hits he has written are, "These Foolish Things" and "A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square." Incidentally, he has already received over $70,000 in royalties from "These Foolish Things" with more coming in regularly.

there are exceptions. I know of a dark-haired fellow whose wife is a pronounced brunette who are the parents of five red-haired children, twins (a boy and girl) and triplets (two boys and a girl).

Speed
New York to San Francisco in 25 minutes. When? You may be able to make a trip like that within five or 10 years. That is what Dr. Hubert Strughold, space-flight expert of the United States Air Force, claims. As for a trip from New York to Chicago, that would take less than 10 minutes by the type of air transportation Dr. Strughold has in mind.

Benson Sees Ike Winning Farm States

Washington — (U.P.) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson predicts President Eisenhower will carry pivotal farm states like Iowa and Minnesota in the elections despite his veto of the Democratic sponsored farm bill. Benson said that by vetoing the bill Mr. Eisenhower "did not lose . . . any support in the corn belt or in the farm belt." Instead, he said, "I think it increased support for the administration."

Benson said in a television interview, "Reporters Roundup" Sunday, that "I have never felt that there was any unrest among farmers that some have indicated . . ."
"I feel that farmers understand this problem much better than some of us give them credit for."

Suspended Air Force Man May Return Soon

Washington — (U.P.) — Sidney Hatkin, suspended Air Force statistician, probably will be back at work for the government within the next few days.

Air Force Secretary Donald A. Quarles personally restored Hatkin to a "non-sensitive position" with the government. Hatkin, suspended 74 months as a security risk, recently revealed that a Russian Embassy clerk tried to hire him to dig up secret military information.
Hatkin's attorney, Joseph Freehill, said Quarles told him a letter restoring Hatkin to the federal payroll will be mailed today and probably will be received tomorrow. He said Hatkin will go back to work immediately thereafter.

Special Section Set Up To Handle Secrets

Washington — (U.P.) — British traitors Donald MacLean and Guy Burgess gave Russia so much secret allied information that a special section was set up in Moscow to handle it, it was disclosed Saturday.

The Senate Internal Security committee released an affidavit from Vladimir M. Petrov, of Sydney, Australia, reciting hearsay evidence that the defecting British diplomats had been spies for years before they fled to Russia in 1951.

Washington — (U.P.) — Sen. Allen J. Ellender proposed Saturday that the Foreign Aid program continue temporarily without new funds until it can be studied completely.

Among the Married

How long should a married career woman absent herself from the office on the occasion of giving birth to a child? There seems to be a wide difference of opinion as to this. Some women have worked up to a day or so before the birth and returned to the office a week or so after. Two-thirds of the policemen on the New York City force are married. They are permitted to take as much as 18 months maternity leave. It is believed by many experts on child rearing that during the first months of an infant's life the mother should always be near at hand. That to leave a baby too long in the hands of others than his mother is a serious handicap to the child's future health and general well being.

Passing By

Evan Shipman, elegant, erudite, elucidator of the more complex aspects of thoroughbred racing. His father was the distinguished playwright Samuel Shipman who collaborated with John B. Hymer on such smash hits as "Friendly Enemies" and "East Is West." Louis Mann and Sam Bernard were starred in the first named play. If you can't say quick as a quarter of a flash who starred in "East Is West" cease calling yourself a young old timer.

Horses and Women

That feminine attribute referred to as "it" is not exclusively possessed by the females with outstandingly beautiful faces and well curved figures. Mme. Patachou of Paris, one of the world's most popular entertainers, recently observed: "They say I ooze sex. How? If I had face and figure like Diana Dors or Marilyn Monroe it would seem logical. But I am plain, short and have not a single vital measurement."

Sidelights

"That jockey Bill Pearson is no Johnny-come lately around the racetracks," writes a San Franciscan. "I recall winning a hatful on a horse named Savings Bank he rode to victory at Santa Anita over 15 years ago!" . . . Red-haired children usually have red-haired parents. However, Nicosia, Cyprus — (U.P.) — The Cyprus underground has marked British Gov. Sir John Harding for death.

Leaflets tacked on Nicosia walls declared, "the man who shoots Harding will have his name written on a golden scroll."
The leaflets were similar to those which announced that the underground had hanged two British soldier hostages in revenge for the British execution of two Cypriot gunmen.
Friday they doubted that the two men, Cpls. Ronnie Shilton

Other leaflets spread by the EOKA underground offered to produce the identity cards of two British soldiers to prove they had been hanged in reprisal for the execution of the Cypriot partisans.
Friday they doubted that the two men, Cpls. Ronnie Shilton

LEAVES FOR NEW JOB
