

SUGAR RAY KNOCKS OUT OLSON IN 4th

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Sports Writer
Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Champion Sugar Ray Robinson, elated at his "no fluke" knockout over Carl (Bobo) Olson in their return middleweight title fight, said today, "I would like to make my next defense against Carmen Basilio in New York."

The 35-year-old Ray, who again flattened ex-champ Olson Friday night, before 20,000, at Wrigley Field, explained, "Chairman Julius Helfand, of the New York Boxing Commission asked me to make the New York defense, and I would like to do it." Basilio of Syracuse, N.Y., is an ex-welterweight champ.

Ray added, "Maybe I'd really get a chance to show whether my legs are gone against Basilio."

He said he didn't get a chance Friday night because his right to the body and terrific left hook to the chin, knocked out San Francisco's Bobo at 2:51 of the fourth round.

Ring History Repeats
Coincidentally, it was at 2:51 of the second round in Chicago, last Dec. 9, when Robinson climaxed his comeback by recapturing the middleweight crown for the second time on a kayo over Bobo.

That December ending came so quickly and unexpectedly that many boxing men considered it a "fluke." Accordingly, Ray and Bobo went into the ring at "even money" for their scheduled 15-rounder at sunset Friday.

There was so much uncertainty about the outcome that an estimated 20,000 fans paid an estimated $200,000 gate. The state's richest fight Friday was additionally gilded by $100,000 from radio and television.

Champions and challenger were guaranteed $75,000 each by the Hollywood American Legion Stadium which promoted the bout. Each had the privilege of taking 30 per cent of the net receipts if they exceeded the $75,000 guarantee. The estimates indicate that 30 per cent would be about $78,000.

Both Need Dough
Both Ray and Bobo need their purses badly. Robinson owes the government $81,904 in back taxes, and Olson's wife announced Friday a separate maintenance suit that will tie up and perhaps absorb all his assets. Friday night Olson, scaling 160 pounds to Robinson's 159½, was just beginning to come on well in the fourth round when the cloudless sky fell in on him.

In the fourth session, Bobo was warned for the second time in keeping the top of his head in Robinson's face. Bobo landed a hard left hook to the head then a right to the temple that knocked the champion sideways. He followed with a right and left to the body as an exchange started.

Then whom! Robinson shot a straight right to Bobo's body, and boom!—a left hook to the head that dropped Bobo on his back on the canvas. He rolled over and tried to get up, but was only half sitting when counted out.

"It happened so fast, I don't remember anything about the knockout," Olson explained glumly after the fourth knock-out and ninth defeat in his career of 75 fights. It was Robinson's 137th victory and 90th knockout in his remarkable record that includes but four defeats in 145 bouts.

Mrs. Olson Asks Separate Support

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Mrs. Carl (Bobo) Olson, estranged wife of the fighter seeking to regain the world middleweight crown tonight in Los Angeles, Friday filed a series of court actions aimed at tying up all of the fighter's past, present and future financial assets.

At the same time, Mrs. Olson moved to dismiss her original suit for divorce, filed earlier this year, and asked instead for separate maintenance and support for herself and their four children.

In November, 1955, Mrs. Olson filed suit for divorce, charging extreme cruelty. She asked for a "fair share" of the community property, estimated at $200,000.

After the divorce suit was filed it was revealed that Olson was the father of another four children by another woman living in the same neighborhood.

Fabius Wins Preakness; Needles 2nd

Baltimore, Md.—(U.P.)—Calumet Farm's Fabius gained sweet revenge for his Kentucky Derby defeat Saturday when he beat mighty Needles in the 80th running of the $132,800 Preakness Stakes and buried his rival's dreams of a triple crown victory in his dust.

After taking the lead on the turn into the stretch, Fabius, second by three-quarters of a length to Needles in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, had all the speed he needed in the straightaway to mumble Needles in the middle jewel of America's triple crown of the turf.

The son of Citation, winner of the Preakness Stakes in 1948 and the last horse to sweep the golden diadem, flashed across the finish line a length and three-quarters ahead of Needles, who trailed the field as usual but failed to overtake the winner in the closing yards of the mile and three-sixteenths race.

Wallace E. Britt's No Regrets, seventh in the Kentucky Derby, was third, with Winding Way Farm's Gold Ace fourth.

Needles started to run—after loafing along in the rear of the eight other starters—when he neared the end of the backstretch. Jockey Dave Erb had the mighty son of Ponder, another derby winner who failed in the Preakness, running at his best, Erb drove Needles through one hole, then through another and just as he did in the derby, swept around the last three horses in his bid for victory.

But this time Needles did not have the finishing kick he needed as determined Bill Hartack, on Fabius, drove his mount with might and main to give Calumet Farm its fifth victory in the classic.

Bailey Wins Feature Run With 4:06

Berkeley, Calif.—(U.P.)—Australia's Jim Bailey, running for University of Oregon, won a "tactical" victory over UCLA's Bobby Seaman today in the slow time of 4:06. In the feature mile race of the Pacific Coast conference track and field championships.

Score Keeps Indians In Race For Pennat

New York—(U.P.)—Lefty Herb Score, who is taking aim at all the strikeout records in the book, fanned 15 batters today as he kept the Cleveland Indians in the battle for first place in the American league with a 5-1 victory over the Washington Senators.

Score's triumph on a fancy three-hitter enabled Cleveland to remain 2½ games behind the New York Yankees, who struggled to a 6-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

In the National league, Lew Burdette's four-hitter kept the Milwaukee Braves in first place with a 3-2 clutch victory over the New York Giants as the second-place St. Louis Cardinals pounded out 18 hits to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 11-5.

In other Saturday action: Roy Moore's relief pitching helped Baltimore beat Detroit, 5-4; Hector Lopez' two-run, ninth-inning homer gave Kansas City a 5-4 decision over Boston; Cincinnati out-slugged Brooklyn, 10-4; and Dale Long's hitting led Pittsburgh to a 7-4 win over the Chicago Cubs.

Score's 15 strikeouts fell one short of his personal record and three short of the major league single game record held by teammate Bob Feller. In gaining his fourth win of the year, Score had had a one-hit shutout until Roy Sievers homered in the ninth inning. Senator Pitchers fanned nine Indians and the combined total of 24 whiffs set a modern major-league mark for two teams in one game.

Score note: Washington pitchers walked 11 batters, score seven.

The Yankees were out-hit but were assisted by walks, an error, and a wild pitch as they gained their fourth straight win. Bob Turley was the winner, with help from Tom Morgan, and Howie Pollet the loser in his first AL start. Burdette had a two-hit shutout going against the Giants until the ninth inning when the Giants scored twice to menace his lead. Del Crandall led the knuckleballer's support with a pair of homers good for all three Braves' runs.

The Cardinals' 18-hit attack, which included seven extra-base blows, tied the N. L. high for the year held by the Cubs. Rip Repulski led the way with a homer and three singles and Wally Moon also homered as Lindy McDaniel got credit for the victory in relief.

Baltimore committed five errors but rallied to win as reliever Moore allowed no hits over a five-inning span. Giant castoff Billy Gardner doubled home the eventual winning run in the eighth inning. Reliever Duke Maas of the Tigers was charged with the loss.

Lopez saved the A's from their fifth straight home loss when he clouted his sixth homer in the ninth inning after pinch-hitter Tim Thompson had reached base on an error. Tom Gorman got the win and Bob Porterfield, victim of Lopez' blast, the loss, both in relief.

The Redlegs made it four-four against the World Champion Dodgers this year by hammering out 14 hits in their win today. Don Newcombe was charged with the loss as Joe Frazer, Johnny Temple, and Smoky Burgess homered for Cincinnati. John Klippstein was the winner, with relief help. Jackie Robinson homered for Brooklyn.

Long drove in four runs for the Pirates with a homer and a double to pace the Pirates' 13-hit attack against the Cubs, and now is batting .396. Le Walls also hit a two-run homer for the Pirates as Nelson King got credit for the win with relief from Roy Face.

Frenchman Tips Larson

Paris—(U.P.)—Art Larson of San Leandro, Calif., and Bob Perry of Los Angeles suffered stunning defeats at the hands of European Davis Cup players Saturday in the French International Tennis Championships, leaving only two Yank survivors in the men's singles.

French champion Paul Remy scored the tournament's first major upset by eliminating Larson, former U. S. titleholder, 5-7, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3, while Italian Davis Cupper Giuseppe Merlo whipped Perry, 6-2, 6-3, 6-0. He was joined in the round of eight by Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli, who turned back Luis Ayala of Chile, 6-4, 6-1, 0-6, 5-7, 6-4.

Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., did not play today. Darlene Hard of Kotelbello, Calif., and Dorothy Head Knode of Alameda, Calif., whipped Francoise Lema and Andree Soisbault of France, 6-0, 6-2.
