

Installation Held By Howard Unit; Delegate Named

Officers for Howard Home Extension unit were installed by Mrs. R. D. Kay, Central Point, at a recent meeting in Harmony Hall of the Friends' Church, 2525 Merriman road. Installed were Mrs. J. R. Campbell, chairman; Mrs. L. R. Bailey, vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert Ottoman, secretary; and Mrs. Albert Stocks, treasurer. Corsages were presented the new officers by Mrs. Ernest Gleason, retiring chairman.

Mrs. F. C. Freeman and Mrs. Robert Ottoman presented the lesson on "Garment Finishes."

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Herbert Lingren, Mrs. L. I. Douglas and Mrs. D. M. Funk. Serving on the luncheon committee in addition to the hostesses were Mrs. W. W. Claypool, Mrs. C. E. Chisum, Mrs. William H. Seibert, Mrs. William B. Breeden, Mrs. John Benson and Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. Campbell, the new chairman, will represent the unit at the Oregon Home Extension council meeting at Oregon State college, Corvallis, June 5-6-7.

Howard unit has 32 active members, two of whom had perfect attendance at this year's meetings, Mrs. R. E. Merritt and Mrs. Freeman. Another interesting item about the membership is the number of mother-daughter combinations: there are seven mother-daughter combinations and one mother-daughter-in-law combination actively participating in the Howard unit.

Guilds Hold Installation In Chapel

Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker, New York City, editor of The Methodist Woman, installed officers for guilds of First Methodist church in recent ceremonies held in Meeker Memorial chapel.

The chapel was dedicated Sunday, May 13 in honor of Mrs. Meeker's late husband, a former mayor of Medford.

Officers installed for Ruth Esther unit were Mrs. George Davis, president; Miss Annette Gray, vice-president; Mrs. L. A. White, recording secretary; Mrs. Bernice Kunzman, secretary of promotion; Mrs. E. T. Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. Jessie Minear, co-ordinator.

New officers of Susannah Wesleyan unit are Mrs. Jerry Sherman, president; Miss Mary Vandenburg vice-president; Miss Nancy Lamb, recording secretary; Miss Marjorie Anderson, secretary of promotion; Miss Carol Van Ausdall, treasurer; Mrs. O. P. Taylor, co-ordinator.

Taking office for Gladamson unit were Mrs. Rex Note, president; Mrs. William Sweet, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. James, recording secretary; Mrs. Lois Fretwell, treasurer; Mrs. Bryan Pierce, co-ordinator.

Guests for the meeting were members of Mary Martha guild, Ashland, and officers of that group were also installed. They are Mrs. Pruitt, president; Miss Jeanette Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Clara Sader, secretary; Hazel Gunter, treasurer.

The ceremonies were followed by a reception and tea honoring Mrs. Meeker, her daughter, Miss Eleanor Meeker, and Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Dixon, who are leaving Medford.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Pierce and Miss Marjorie Sandefort.

The guilds presented Dr. Dixon a birthday cake, and Mrs. Dixon a gift. The Dixons are leaving the Medford church in June.

Valley Women Plan to Attend BPWC Meeting

The valley women plan to be in Eugene Friday through Sunday, May 25 to 27, to attend a state convention of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. Theme of the sessions will be "Salute the Past, Welcome the Future."

Miss Laura York, a state past president, will attend as a delegate at large, and the other delegates are Mrs. Harriett Watson, local chapter president; Miss Voda Brower, Mrs. Frida Burger, Mrs. Marian Wood and Mrs. Thelma McIntyre; and Miss Lucille Lenox and Mrs. Muriel Burns, alternates, are of Medford.

Members who also plan to be there are Mrs. Gertrude Lind, Medford and Mrs. Ellen Lyner of Ashland.

Miss Margaret Wilkinson, national membership chairman, from Memphis, Tenn., will represent the national federation of BPWC at the Oregon convention and will be a main speaker.

Mrs. Watson will attend a pre-convention board meeting as chapter president. Those who are not attending the board session will be conducted on tours of Weyerhaeuser Lumber company, sponsored by the Springfield BPWC, and a tour of the fine arts building at the University of Oregon, as guests of the Willem club of Eugene. A fun night dinner is planned for Friday night with the theme, "Festival of Nations."

New club presidents will be honored at a breakfast Saturday morning and the business sessions will get underway that day at 8:30 a. m., to continue to 5 p. m. Between 5 and 6 p. m., Miss Wilkinson will be honored at a tea and a formal banquet is scheduled for 7:30 p. m., when officers will be installed.

Sunday morning a breakfast will be held for past presidents and emblem ceremony performed. Miss York will be one of the honored guests at this function.

Winners Announced For Show

Rogue River — Sweepstakes winner for the recent spring flower show of Rogue River Garden club was Mrs. Paul Hughes, who won the prize for her specimen of Congo-Persian lilac. Arrangement sweepstakes winner was Mrs. Helen Harper, Medford, for her arrangement of white calla lilies.

Miss Eugenia Friendenthal won a junior award for a miniature garden scene and Girl Scout Troop 118 won a prize for the troop's non-competitive exhibit.

Judges were Mrs. E. W. Jermark, Ashland; Mrs. John Anderson, Eugene, and Mrs. L. C. Gordon, Central Point. They judged exhibits from Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Central Point, as well as from Rogue River.

Theme of the show was "Melody in Flowers." The hall and the tea room were decorated in keeping with the theme. Mrs. Bernice Kearns played organ music throughout the show.

Pleasant View nursery, Grants Pass, furnished shrubs, flowering trees and azaleas for decorating the stage, and the judges created a special award for the display. Park View nursery also displayed shrubs and rhododendron for the show.

Approximately 300 signed the guest book.

The May meeting of the club was held May 15 at the home of Mrs. Larry Bassett. Dessert was served. Mrs. Orion Hammett, a guest, was introduced.

A letter from Mrs. A. O. Floyd, district president, urged garden club members to attend the annual state convention to be held in Ontario, June 10-12.

Reports from the flower show were given, and officers for the coming year elected. They are Mrs. Carl O. Christensen, president; Mrs. Hayden E. Williams, secretary and Mrs. F. W. Shontz, treasurer. Installation will be held at a meeting June 19.

Eugene Woman Named to Office In PTA Congress

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Delegates to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers voted today for four unopposed candidates for regional vice-presidencies.

The candidates, nominated at Monday's session, were Mrs. Jennelle Moorehead, Eugene, Ore., Region 7; Mrs. Ralph Hobbs, Catula, Ga., Region 3; Mrs. L. E. Burr, Las Vegas, Nev., Region 8; and Mrs. Ruth Gagliardo, Lawrence, Kan., Region 5.

Mrs. Rollin Brown's term as national president will continue for two more years. She is from Los Angeles.

Dr. John Lester Buford, president of the National Education association, told the 3000 delegates Monday that television is not the solution to the teacher shortage.

Buford, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., said children need individual attention from a trained teacher. Furthermore, he said television would not be cheaper than hiring teachers.

"If you have TV, it has to be good TV," he said, "and that is pretty expensive."

Dr. Paul J. Misner, school superintendent at Glencoe, Ill., and president of the American Association of School Administrators, agreed.

"The shortage of qualified teachers will continue to rank as the No. 1 problem on our agenda of unfinished educational business," he said.

Lions' Auxiliary Elects Officers; Initiation Held

Medford Lady Lions elected officers at the monthly meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Herbert Seitz, 2502 Waldon place. Mrs. J. A. Tomjack was elected president.

Other officers are Mrs. R. J. Urie, vice-president; Mrs. J. A. Patella, secretary; Mrs. H. M. Christoffersen, treasurer; Mrs. N. F. Gier, lion tamer.

Mrs. Robert Dames conducted initiation, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and Mrs. Lee Mellish. The new members are Mrs. Lynn Colby, Mrs. Earl Courtney and Mrs. W. E. Ashton.

Plans were made for assisting the eighth annual institute for parents of blind children to be held May 30 to June 3 at the Oregon School for the Blind in Salem. This is a state project of Lions' auxiliary, the object being to help parents of young blind children learn how to best help the youngsters to grow into well adjusted, happy children and adults.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Penn Whitwood, Mrs. Alan Jewett and Mrs. Seitz.

Republican Tea Held Yesterday Is Large Event

About 100 guests attended the silver tea given yesterday afternoon by Jackson County Republican Women in the new large country home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle on Ross lane.

The event honored Mrs. Collis Moore, Portland, Republican national committeewoman for Oregon, and Mrs. Frank Bash, Medford, chairman of the Republican party in Jackson county. In the receiving line were Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Bash.

President committeewomen were presented gardenias.

Other guests at the tea included Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, Republican candidate from Klamath Falls; Mrs. Frank S. Sever, Portland, whose husband, Judge Sever, is presiding in circuit court here this week, and Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Klamath Falls, former national committeewoman for this state.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Robert J. Keeney, president of Jackson County Republican Women, Mrs. Roy V. Rickard, Mrs. Frank Ross, Mrs. Wayne Stine, Mrs. William E. Frake and Mrs. Ward V. Hammond.

The tea table centerpiece was of pink peonies from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warner, and had been arranged by Mrs. Stephen G. Nye.

Mrs. Weldon Kline was general chairman. Assisting her were Mrs. Nye, Mrs. Calvin Francis and Mrs. Hammond.

Mrs. Allan Perry Named to Office In Mothers' Club

Mrs. Allan F. Perry was elected a district vice-president of University of Oregon Mothers' club during the Mothers' week end program concluded on the campus Sunday. Mrs. Perry attended the week end events.

Mrs. Perry replaces Mrs. J. W. Barnard, Medford, who has served in the district office the past year. The district includes southwestern Oregon.

Mrs. George Holzgang is the new president of the Medford unit of the University of Oregon Mothers' club, replacing Mrs. L. G. Frink. Main project of this group is raising scholarship funds annually.

Will your baby be born perfect?

Before your baby was born, you thought, "What if I lose the baby? What if my baby isn't perfect?"

Now doctors have discovered that many tragic defects in newborn babies are not inherited. In the June Ladies' Home Journal you'll read how this revolutionary new theory can help you avoid such heartbreak as miscarriage, stillbirth, a child born mentally or physically deficient.

8 ways to help be sure

You'll read about eight specific steps you can take now before your baby is born—or even conceived... see how a few extra precautions before marriage and during childbearing years can help make sure your babies and their children will be born perfect.

You'll read about the risks working mothers-to-be face; the dangers of a change to high altitude while pregnant; the amazing effects lack of vitamins—or too many—can have on mothers and their babies; what illness you should deliberately try to catch before pregnancy; the effects of radiation, X ray and anesthetics.

Whether you or your loved ones are having a baby now... or dream of having one sometime in the future... you can't afford to miss "The Unsuspected Child."
